EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
 An elaborate and successful formal dance was held last Thursday evening by the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. The attendance was one of the most widely representative that has appeared at a club function for some time and the fact that the dancing continued with unabated enthusiasm until the orchestra played the final "Home, Sweet Home," was indicative of how everyone enjoyed it. The magnificent ballroom was a veritable dream of gorgeous color. The beautiful decorations and lighting effects, together with the lovely gowns of the ladies, combined to make the affair what is considered to be the prettiest held in the club for some time.

The fact that this was the last formal dance of the season brought out an unusually large number of members and when the cars were called at 12 o'clock it seemed all too soon to everyone present.

The annual meeting of the Rose City dancing club was held last Tuesday evening in the great room of the Portland Chamber of Commerce when the following officers were re-elected: President, N. A. Perry; vice-president, E. A. Hartman; secretary-treasurer, W. M. Kapus.

The Newest in Sport Hats

THIS is an opportune time to buy Sport Hats while the assortment is at its best. The soft, balmy days of early summer suggest an early selection of outgoing costumes fitting to the season.

As the prices are extremely moderate, we would advise buying several at this time.
