Little Marjorie Anne Knouff celebrated her second birthday Wednesday with a party at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. W. P. LaRoche, when 22 little tots with their mothers were asked to help make the day gay. Marjorie is a daughter of the late Sergeant A. Knouff and Mrs. Knouff.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Ivar Larson entertained at cards Tuesday evening in their new home, 344 1/2 Montgomery street, in honor of Mr. Larson's brothers, Carl and Hugo Larson, recently returned from the American expeditionary forces in France and Germany. Mrs. Hebburn and Miss Hedberg of St. Paul carried off the honors.

Mrs. D. Saperstein, Mrs. J. Lewis and Miss Mollie Mozorokky entertained with a shower last Saturday evening for Miss Eva Goldstone, whose engagement to E. Goldstein was recently announced. About 80 relatives and friends of the bride-elect were present, making the evening a most enjoyable one. The guest of honor was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ritchie of 955 East Glisan street celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary on May day with an evening party. For this occasion the house was decorated with apple blossoms and other spring flowers. Mrs. E. B. Schoenborn of Oregon City and Mrs. Ira J. Kimmons of this city sang. Those presiding in the dining room were Mrs. Schoenborn, Mrs. L. C. Murray, Mrs. V. Kistler, Mrs. G. N. McKay, M. W. Barchurat, Mrs. H. Furlong, Mrs. E. A. Gunther, Mrs. Ira Kimmons, Miss Fannie Bennett and Miss Marie Hagemann. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Barchurat, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Lybhywek, Mr. and Mrs. H. Furlong, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Putnam, Mrs. Margaret Collins and sons Russell and Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Y. Schoenborn of Oregon City, Miss Marie Hagemann and Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Kimmons.

One of the attractive children's affairs of the year was given Friday afternoon at the Laurelhurst kindergarten, 751 Belmont street, by Mrs. Elizabeth Bird and daughter, Marie Bird. The school walls were banked with greens and flowers to make a forest setting for the little play of "Red Riding Hood." The children were costumed to illustrate the different merry rhyme characters, the leading roles being taken by Alice Kelly as the fairy of the woods, Gene Ross as Red Riding Hood, Jack Fitchner as the wolf and Donald Goodsell as the woodcutter. The various costumes were Nancy Mattison as Bo Peep, Jack Parker as Little Boy Blue, Tom Parker and Violet Ketchum as Jack and Jill, Ruddy Powell as Jack Horner, Gretchen Sine as Miss Muffet, Joe Howard as King Cole, Valerie Vernon as Mistress Mary, Harry Hodes as Tommy Tucker, Dorothy Rinehart as Queen
