

FREE CAMP GROUND OFFERED SHRINERS

Arrangements Made to Care for 5000 Auto Tourists.

COLUMBIA BEACH IDEAL

Great Tent City by the River May Be Big Feature of Coming Convention.

Free camping grounds, capable of caring for 5000 persons, are offered to the Al Kader shrine, committee yesterday by Noble Joseph Reig, manager of Columbia beach. The grounds are situated at Columbia beach, close to an ideal spot for those visiting Shriners who will travel to the oasis of Portland via automobile. Arrangement will be made to care for all those who like to cook their own meals. There will be electric lights for the full camp, and the only fuel to be for gas and electricity. Those who will desire to "camp out" on this beautiful river beach need only provide their own camping outfits, beds and bedding.

Thousands of Cars Coming. Mr. Reig made this offer to the Shrine committee when he learned that thousands of automobiles are to be driven into Portland during the week of June 29.

Though the Portland Garage and Repair Men's association, under the direction of President Lester and N. Stanton, already have provided for caring for and housing 2300 autos in garages of the city, there have been indications that point to the probability of several thousand more cars being driven into Portland by the northwest Shriners.

It has been impossible to find out definitely how many cars may come to the metropolis, but Mr. Reig has provided for emergencies and will be able to care for or place on various tracts throughout the city probably 4000 or more cars if those already arranged for in garages.

Committee Seeks Information. "We cannot impress too strongly on automobile owners the desirability of letting us know if they intend to drive in by auto," said Mark Woodruff, secretary of the committee yesterday. "Questionnaires have been sent out, but many replies have not been received, and if the magnitude of the housing proposition was realized, and particularly so from an automobile standpoint, those who intend to come by auto to Portland would give us this much-desired information. I urge all to write us at 522 Gannon building, through every city, town and hamlet, if they intend to come by auto, for we must know how many cars to provide."

With Charles Gribb, chairman-at-large, A. L. Tett, chairman of the hospitality committee of the Shrine, has named his hospital committee-at-large, including the following: A. J. McDaniel, M. R. Spelding, John Y. Richardson, F. H. Vinsel, E. El. El. Van Over, H. A. Thatcher, Sergeant H. L. Carney, Inspector W. H. Hyde, E. G. Gordon, Patrolman W. E. Williams, E. Marsh, W. R. Powell, P. Short, H. C. Linton, F. R. Johnson, F. Parker, L. Reno, E. D. Thomas, W. C. Bender, Robert Hamaker and E. Johnson.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE STUDENTS ELECT OFFICERS

Roy S. Keene of Salem Chosen President by Unanimous Vote—Miss Bernice Haines of Portland, Secretary.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 22.—(Special.)—For the second consecutive time in recent years a president has been elected, unanimously by the student assembly, Roy S. Keene of Salem receiving that distinction this week. William Teutsch of Nyssa, Or., retiring president, was also unanimously elected last spring. Keene has been prominent in athletics, playing varsity baseball and being recently elected captain of the team for next year. Paul Seena, newly-elected first vice-president of the student assembly, received the largest majority given in the election. He wears a varsity "O" which he won in track two years ago. He was a member of the 1920 class until he entered the navy during the war and now is finishing his work with the class of 1921. His home is Milton, Or. He has been elected to the Forum, upper-class honor society. Miss Bernice Haines, home economics junior from Portland, newly-elected secretary, has been prominent in student activities during her three years here. In her freshman year she received the Clara H. Waldo prize for success in literary and scholastic attainments and in student activities, and for qualities of leadership and womanhood, and last year she received honorable mention for the same. She was recently elected to the Forum honor society. This year she is assistant editor of the Beaver annual, junior publication. W. B. Hayes of Pasadena, Cal., is rewarded with the office of editor-in-chief of the O. A. C. Barometer, on which staff he has worked consistently since early in his freshman year. "Duke," who has been one of the mainstays of the college paper for the past two years, received a decisive majority over his one opponent. He is a junior in agriculture and was honored with membership in the Forum and Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity.

GOVERNOR AIDS CAMPAIGN

Attention Called to Drive of Ex-Service Men. Proclamation Urges Support for Effort Being Made to Increase Membership of Legion.

Interest in the success of the American Legion's membership campaign in Oregon is shown by Governor O'cott, who has issued a proclamation calling the attention of citizens to the state and nation-wide drive of the ex-service men which will conclude this week. Though originally planned for last week only, the interference of election activities led to an extension in Oregon for another seven days. Portland post does not begin its campaign until tomorrow, though other local posts throughout the state started last Monday. Governor O'cott's proclamation is as follows: State of Oregon, executive department, Salem, Or. To the People of Oregon—My attention has been directed to the fact that during the weeks from May 17 to May 23, inclusive, the American Legion will carry on a drive for new members. This is a nation-wide drive, in which it is expected that over a million new members will be enrolled, bringing the strength of the organization up to 2,500,000. This is an object which I trust may be carried out to a highly successful conclusion in Oregon, as well as in the nation at large. It is a matter of pride on the part of every good American citizen, whether or not he was in the service during the late war, to see the millions of young Americans returning to civic pursuits and joining in an organization which has for its purpose and purpose the upbuilding of the welfare of the entire nation. It has become apparent during the life of the American Legion that this organization will not only on soundest lines of patriotic endeavor, but that it is an organization which will be of great benefit to the state and nation.

Court Questions Jurisdiction. A decree of divorce will be awarded Mrs. Clara Morris Goetten from Walter Goetten by Circuit Judge Tazewell if he finds that his court has jurisdiction in the case, Judge Tazewell told the contestants yesterday. He took the matter under advisement, as well as in the nation at large. The question of jurisdiction is brought up by the admission that Mrs. Goetten lived with her husband subsequent to beginning suit for divorce, but her attorney contends that a supplemental complaint disposes of that objection.

BANKERS WILL CONVEENE Financial Problems and Bills to Be Discussed by Speakers. BOISE, Idaho, May 22.—(Special.)—The Idaho Bankers' association will hold its sixteenth annual convention at Moscow on June 4 and 5. Bankers from all parts of the state are expected to be in attendance. Financial problems will be discussed, together with bills relating to the banking industry now pending before congress. The programme for the convention has not been definitely decided upon but it is announced a number of prominent bankers will give addresses. E. H. Plowhead of Caldwell is president of the association, and J. W. Robinson of Boise secretary.

COAST GUARD HOME BURNS

Headquarters for Compass Station Crew at Marshfield Destroyed. MARSHFIELD, Or., May 22.—(Special.)—The residence at the old coast guard station burned last night during the absence of Chief Walter Dyarszynski. The building contained eight rooms and was headquarters for the compass station crew sent here recently by the navy department. The losses include considerable clothing and a wireless equipment stored in the residence. The compass station stands half a mile from the residence and was not harmed. Chief Dyarszynski believes the fire was of incendiary origin.

Oregon Professors Aid Berkeley. The University of California has obtained two Oregon professors for its summer school session this year. Dean Eric W. Allen of the school of Journalism and Professor William C. Morgan of the chemistry department at the University of Oregon are two of the 15 educators selected from all over the country.

High Schools Hold Exercises. CENTRALIA, Wash., May 22.—(Special.)—Rev. W. J. MacHenry of Portland last night delivered two commencement addresses of the 1920 class of the Napavine high school. The Adna graduating class also held commencement exercises. Dr. E. H. Todd, president of the College of White, was valedictorian and salutatorian respectively.

LIFT OPERATOR IS HURT Track Strikes William Ketchum Waiting for Train. William Ketchum, 55, elevator operator at the Raleigh building received bruises and cuts about the head and face and a possible fracture of the skull yesterday when he was struck by a truck driven by Francis McIntire of the Upsilon apartments at the intersection of Sixth and Salmon streets. He was taken to the St. Vincent's hospital. McIntire, who is a driver for Morrison & Kern, was arrested and later released. The police were advised that Ketchum was watching an Oregon Electric train and failed to see the approaching truck.

For a Greater Oregon

Oregon and the Royal Chinook

THE SALMON FISHERIES of the Pacific Coast rank with the oyster and herring fisheries of the Atlantic, as the most valuable fisheries in the world. Oregon has a large and increasing share in this wealth, for the Columbia River and the coastal streams produce millions of dollars' worth of this finest of food every year.

MORE THAN $100,000,000 worth of salmon have been caught in the Columbia River alone since the inception of the canning industry. In 1866 the first rude cannery on the Columbia River was put into operation. The industry now supports twenty-one canneries; their product is shipped all over the world.

THE 1919 COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON PACK brought to the State $7,490,920, an increase of more than three million dollars over the pack of five years ago. The 1919 catch in Oregon coastal streams returned $979,692. Adding to these figures, the $2,500,000 valuation of clams, oysters, crabs and fish other than salmon caught on the Oregon coast last year, the total financial return for Oregon fisheries amounted to $10,970,612.00.

THE FISHING INDUSTRY gives employment to approximately 25,000 people in this State; 11,000 are actively engaged in catching and handling the fish, while the balance are employed in canning and packing the product.

CREDIT FOR THE INCREASING SIZE of the Oregon Salmon Pack goes to the State Fish Commission, who, in 1910, instituted a system of fish propagation. This has proved a remarkable success. The State of Oregon operates eighteen hatcheries, one of them, the plant at Bonneville, being the largest in the world. That these hatcheries are the salvation of the fishing industry is shown by the fact that while the catch is steadily increasing in this State, it is decreasing at an alarming rate on other sections of the coast.

SINCE 1914, when the first results of the present hatchery system became apparent, the salmon industry has steadily progressed in a way that promises much for the future, assuring a growth that will be instrumental in making a Greater Oregon.

The DEALER says— "the GIANT mark protects you from imitations"

"It pays me to give my customers what they ask for," says the retailer who knows what's what. "Whenever they ask for 'Giant Powders' I give them GIANT Powders—the real Giant, made by The Giant Powder Co., Con. I don't tell them that I have the same thing, only under another brand name, because it is not true."

"The name 'Giant' on a case or a stick of powder is evidence that the powder is made by the company that originated Giant Powders. Remember this: You can't get Giant results when you use ordinary dynamites that look like Giant but aren't marked Giant."

Look into the new, money-saving methods of clearing land, blasting tree beds, ditches, boulders, etc. They are all described in our up-to-the-minute book, "Better Farming with Giant Farm Powders." A post card will bring it by the first mail.
