

OBREGON DENOUNCES CARRANZA'S SLAYERS

Assassination Is Declared an Act of Cowardice.

TRIBUTE PAID EX-CHIEF

Hospitality Offered by Herrero to Aged Fugitive Held to Have Been Wantonly Violated.

EL PASO, Texas, May 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Venustiano Carranza, president of Mexico and head of the seventy-second government that country has had since 1821, was assassinated at I. A. M. Friday by Colonel Rodolfo Herrero and his soldiers at Tlalcoahualingo, Puebla, according to a message received here from General Alvaro Obregon, dated at Mexico City today.

"There were found six or seven more bodies of the men in Carranza's party," said one message from Obregon. It was not stated who these men might be.

Reports given out by the revolutionists said Carranza was assassinated by his own men. Herrero was described as an ex-federal officer. He was once a member of the Carranza army under Diaz, who was forced to flee Mexico in 1911.

Carranza was made a prisoner and cowardly assassinated at the cry of "Viva Obregon," said Colonel Rodolfo Herrero and his men, violating the hospitality that had been offered by Herrero, according to a message from his chief followers to General Pablo Gonzalez, noted in his message to revolutionary agents here.

Assassins Are Denounced. Obregon answered his message in scathing terms. He declared that the Carranza followers, numbering more than 30 men, and including Juan Barragan, chief of staff; Ignacio Bonilla, former ambassador to the United States, whose candidacy for the presidency brought on the latest revolution, and other prominent leaders had "died defending your chief."

"You would be at rest with your consciences if you had escaped the shame of your cowardice," Obregon told the Carranzistas they were sufficient to have done their duty, "to have saved Mr. Carranza's life, if as you state he was assassinated."

"On repeated occasions," said Obregon, "President Carranza was notified of the guaranty which would be given him if he would leave the danger zone, but he refused to accept this offer because he considered it an undignified act of a man who had saved himself, leaving his companions in danger. This act of Carranza revealed the disgust and disloyalty which you failed to appreciate."

Obregon Report Delayed. The first report of the assassination of Carranza was filed by Obregon Friday night. The message did not reach here until today. "This message said: 'Have just received the following message from Huixquilucan, state of Puebla, signed by Colonel L. Hernandez: 'General Mariel advises me from Villa Suarez that the Carranza forces, ex-federal officer, Rodolfo Herrero, killed President Carranza at I. A. M. place of a man who had saved himself. There were found six or seven more bodies of the men in Carranza's party. It is not stated who these men might be. I will wire details later. Rodolfo Herrero surrendered last March to General Mariel and had been an officer under General Fabian.'"

Rebel Leaders Anxious. From the wording of the Obregon telegram, skepticism was expressed here by many persons in close touch with the revolution concerning the affiliations of Herrero. The anxiety of the Mexicans on this point was given to the press with particular stress on the fact that the killing occurred far away from the field of operation of our forces."

DEATH OF CARRANZA VEILED IN MYSTERY

Washington Speculates as to How ex-President Died.

OLD PROPHECY RECALLED

Slaying of Three Franciscos Is Predicted to Be Followed by Unusual President.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Venustiano Carranza has joined the long line of Latin-American dictators who have ended their stormy careers in flight and death.

A fugitive in the mountains of Puebla the old man who kept the United States and Mexico in a broil for the last five years, was killed on Thursday by some of the troops which had protected him as a loyal bodyguard in his flight from the Mexican capital.

Whether he fell fighting or a victim of the celebrated "ley fuga," which made dead men of Madero and Suarez, is actually stated in a confidential report. It occurred in such fragmentary information as has come out of the tropical fastness of Tlalcoahualingo, where he died, presumably surrounded by a few loyal friends.

Death in Attack Reported. Early dispatches today from Mexico City said the ex-president was killed in an attack led by General Herrero, who had gone with Carranza in flight, but later deserted to the revolutionists. The announcement, made at the headquarters of General Obregon, head of the revolutionary movement, stated that Carranza had died in battle.

But later advices received in El Paso indicated that Carranza had been made prisoner and assassinated in a cowardly manner, and said some of the friends who were with him at the time had sent a protest to General Pablo Gonzalez.

The story may not be immediately known, and even then may be the subject of dispute. In any event, it adds to the mystery of the death of Carranza, who led the revolt against him and is expected by many to succeed to the head of the government, lost an arm in the battle of Celaya with Villa.

HEADACHES ARE DANGER SIGNALS

Nature never fails to send out warning when the health is in danger. The warning may be painful, as in the case of indigestion, or it may be indicated by a headache, or it may be indicated by a headache, or it may be indicated by a headache.

Headaches are generally an indication of nerve starvation. In good health the substance which the nerve cells use usually to work is renewed by nourishment which it gets from the blood. If the blood becomes thin and weak the nerves cannot get sufficient nourishment. Headaches, indigestion and sometimes neuralgia are the result.

When the nerves give warning that they are feeble for want of food, begin treatment at once with the tonic which Mrs. P. Harris, of No. 3272 Martin avenue, San Diego, Cal., found so beneficial.

"Loss of weight, extreme nervousness and loss of strength were my chief symptoms," says Mrs. Harris. "It seemed as though I was tired all the time and would never get enough rest. I had very little appetite and my blood was so thin that I lost all its color. I suffered almost continually from headaches."

"I had tried several medicines but they all upset my stomach so that I had to give them up. One day I got a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and began to take them. Before I had taken a box I began to feel stronger and had more ambition. It was not long before my appetite improved and I found myself looking forward with pleasure to meal time. Gradually my nerves became quieter. The headaches became less severe and then disappeared. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a fine tonic and have recommended them to my friends."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent by mail, on receipt of price, 60 cents a box by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write for the free booklet, Diseases of the Nervous System. Adv.

Thousands take Hood's Sarsaparilla as their spring medicine for that tired feeling, nervous weakness, impure blood, and testify it makes them better, eat and sleep better, and "makes food taste good."

Spring debility is a condition in which it is especially hard to combat disease germs, which invade the system here, there and everywhere. The white blood corpuscles, sometimes called "the little soldiers in the blood," because it is their duty to fight disease germs, are too weak to do good service.

Hood's Sarsaparilla increases the "little soldiers" and enables them to resist germs of grip, influenza, fevers and other ailments. It has stood the test of three generations, giving entire satisfaction. Get it today.

RUSE USED TO ESCAPE

GUARD IS TRICKED BY RICH DRAFT DODGER.

Ex-Magistrate and Friend of Bergdoll Family Explains Prisoner's Method.

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—The method used by Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, convicted draft dodger, in escaping from his federal guard in this city yesterday was explained today by James E. Romig, ex-magistrate and friend of the Bergdoll family.

According to Mr. Romig's story, Grover's car, which had been laid up all winter, was being put in condition by the mechanic when he arrived home. Grover went driving that afternoon with his guards. Yesterday morning the mechanic was still working on the motor car. Mr. Romig understood it was being prepared for a journey. He was to accompany Grover, but he didn't know where he was going. "How about a search for $100,000 Grover is said to have buried in Maryland?" he was asked. "I do not know anything about that."

Mr. Romig told the details of the escape. "We were in the library, Grover, the two guards and myself," he said. "Grover was reciting Shakespeare. Just when he had us all laughing the telephone bell rang. Grover went into another room to answer it. When the bell continued to ring, one of the guards said: 'He didn't answer that.' The sergeants looked for Grover. I joined in the hunt, but no trace of him could be found. We then found that Grover's own car which the mechanic had been repairing in the garage, had disappeared.

"My God," said one of the guards, "where has he gone to?" "I telephoned Giboney (Bergdoll's attorney) and he came out at once."
