Mrs. Edward Kiehlley and Baby

sportsmen from British Columbia—Dr. J. J. Frye and W. S. Holland, have promised to be on hand with four or five famous hunters. California's well-known horsemen will be represented in the arrival of Revel Lindsay English of Pasadena and Tom Mason of Santa Barbara, both of whom are owners of prize-winning saddlers. Through the kindness of Mrs. Jacob Kamm, who lent the property on Jefferson, between 16th and 17th streets, the men from Corvallis and their artillery horses, will go into a miniature encampment for some days preceding and during the show. They are training several excellent mounts for the hunter classes and they have numerous stunts planned for the exhibitions each evening.

The members of the Portland Hunt club are working hard at putting their mounts through tryouts on the Hunt club grounds adjoining Garden Home. Invariably a small gallery follows this work and the exercises culminate in delightful little social festivities, with luncheon, tea, and dinner parties made up by congenial groups.

A special feature which always is attractive is the drill and exhibitions of the Portland Junior Hunt club. These belles and beaux represent some of the leading families of the city and the riders are fearless and graceful. Their part of the programme is anticipated with considerable pleasure, and of course the young folk will have their full quota of social gaieties. Many of these have arranged box parties for their visiting friends and relatives and the inevitable attendant festivities will be fully indulged in by the younger contingent.

Friends of Dr. J. D. Sternberg and his mother will call this afternoon at their home, 709 Lovejoy street, where an informal reception will be held for Miss Josephine Oppenheimer of Olympia, Wash. The engagement of Miss Oppenheimer and Dr. Sternberg, announced last week, came as a distinct surprise to many of their Portland friends. No definite wedding date has been announced. Dr. Sternberg has been a practicing physician and surgeon in Portland for more than 15 years. He received his medical education at Rush college in Chicago. He also is known as one of the best local golfers. Miss Oppenheimer is the guest of Dr. Sternberg's mother.

The wedding of Miss Bertha Goldstein and Edgar R. A. Lokey is scheduled for this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 908 East Twenty-first street. North. Both Miss Goldstein and Mr. Lokey are former students of Jefferson high school.

A smart event of this afternoon will be the musical given by the younger pupils of Miss Mayne Hogan Flynn, which will be held at 4 o'clock in the room of the Multnomah hotel. This is an annual event, popular among the "sub-deb" set.

Members of the Shakespeare Study club are preparing for a lecture to be given June 17 in the ball room of the Multnomah hotel by Henry Lawrence Southwick. Mr. Southwick comes to Portland with an international reputation as a lecturer and artist. He is known for his studies of Shakespeare and Portland people are looking forward with interest to his appearance here. His programme delivered under the auspices of the local club will be of an interpretative nature based on Shakespeare.

The committee in charge has announced the following as a partial list of the patrons and patronesses for the event:

Messrs. and Mesdames A. H. Averill, George Barr, Frank L. Ball, Everett Babcock, Roy Bishop, Charles

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Barnes entertained for Mrs. Watson with an informal tea.

Miss Jane Hoefel has set June 30 as the date for her wedding to Dr. L. L. McKenna. The wedding will be a simple affair, owing to recent sickness in the family. The engagement of Miss Hoefel and Dr. McKenna was announced three weeks ago at a party given by Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell. Miss Hoefel is the daughter of Mrs. L. C. Hoefel of Hillsboro.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 5.—(Special.)—A double wedding of interest to people of Portland; was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sunstedt, Tuesday night, when their two daughters, Alice M. and Vivian E. were married to Ivan W. Elder of Portland and Marshall W. Leister of Seattle.

The wedding was a simple home affair with only relatives present. The brides wore white georgette crepe and carried shower bouquets of roses and orange blossoms.

The bridesmaid for Miss Alice was Miss Annette Sullivan of Portland. The bridesmaid for Miss Vivian was Miss Edith Leat. John Anderson was best man for Mr. Elder and Ted Buckley for Mr. Leister. Mr. and Mrs. Leister sailed for Alaska on a honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Elder were former students of Reed college and will be at home to their many friends in Portland after July 1.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 5.—(Special.)—Miss Ethel A. Marquette of Anshakha and George A. Bauman of Portland were married here Thursday. Those attending the simple ceremony were Miss Maude Poole and

A Sure Way to End Dandruff
There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.—Adv.
