

HARDING'S FRIENDS IN REGIONS JOYBLANT

Nominee's Ability Lauded by Political Leaders

ELECTION IS PREDICTED

Tollbu Paid to Mrs. Harding for Helping Husband Rise From Ranks; Ohioan Once Editor

C. M. Ideman and Dr. Ernest Drake were the representatives of the Harding campaign in Oregon and they are enthusiastic over the success of their friend. Both speak of the nominee in the highest terms and predict his election.

Senator Harding made no aggressive campaign in Oregon, through the advice of Mr. Ideman, but a quiet man was carried out in friendly sentiment for the Ohioan and quantities of Harding literature were distributed throughout the state. The success which Senator Harding has achieved in life has been greatly aided by his wife, according to Mr. Ideman, who intimately acquainted with the governor and during the campaign has been in almost daily communication with her.

Harding Entertained Here. "Senator Harding is a man whom people cannot help but like," said Mr. Ideman, when the flash of the governor's nomination arrived in Portland yesterday afternoon. "He is a big man, physically and mentally—a wonderful fellow."

The framers of the Oregon system—Guinn it is a good nomination. Harding and Coolidge should make a strong team. Certain in the United States senate he has been one of the leaders along the line of progress. He will be placed in the White House by a triumphant victory.

Robert A. Miller, a democratic leader in the state, thinks that the nomination of Harding means the republicans before the election.

Man of Vision, Says White. George A. White, adjutant-general of Oregon—Harding has come out of the tangled maze as the man of the hour. I feel from what I learned of him that he is a man of great strength, of great vision, of the great caliber that is needed in the present time.

Harding is giving the country another man of destiny in Harding. He will receive the solid support of the republican party and will elect. "A mighty fine selection. Harding will receive the solid support of the republican party and will elect."

STAMPEDE MAKES HARDING NOMINEE

Nothing Certain at Convention Before Final Result. The stampede is started. Can it be headed off? A group of excited delegates is shoving along through the jammed aisles with a great picture of Harding. Kentucky comes through with 26 for the Ohioan. They say Lowden has sent word that his delegates are backing Harding. If so, it will over by the shouting. Louisiana sees the band wagon coming along and climbs aboard. Maine and Maryland stand in the breach for Wood. Most of the Wood forces are apparently holding the fort, but the Lowden delegates are breaking. Missouri helps Harding along with 36. Nebraska goes solid for Wood and Kansas. Wood rosters aglow with excitement.

WOMAN ANNOYS SESSIONS

Screeching for Johnson Causes Audience to Wish Some One Would Shoot Her. A woman delegate stirred the convention to hilarity by giving one-half vote to Will H. Hays. She was followed by another one-half vote to Johnson. The woman delegate stirred the convention to hilarity by giving one-half vote to Will H. Hays. She was followed by another one-half vote to Johnson.

Missouri gets in a hurry to find the band wagon and the chairman, amid great confusion, asks permission to change the delegation's vote. A colored delegate rises in excited protest and Missouri finally withdraws its request. The convention gives way to a vast hub-bub.

Harding Makes More Gains. The vote shows that Harding has made more gains and Ohio jumps up and gives twice cheers. Kentucky, which is for Lowden, thinks it is time for a recess. The viva-voce votes seem about even. It is too late for the fixers to fix it up. This thing is going its own way without much aid, but in a determination by the convention to settle the fight for itself.

Medill McCormick climbs on the platform. Conference of leaders going on. Nobody knows what is to happen. Willis joins the conference. Two strangers on the platform engage in an altercation. One strikes at the other and they are put off.

The chairman seizes his gavel and arbitrarily declares the motion for a recess carried. The real game is Sproul or Knox. The convention is apparently getting beyond control.

Nobody's prediction is worth much. The trial ballots are not being sent up for Knox. Here it is 4 o'clock, and the press boys have a new line of dope. Some wise guy has been talking to somebody who knows what Penrose is saying over that long distance telephone what is to happen. Neither Wood nor Lowden will do. They are to give Harding a trial up to the tenth ballot. If the convention is then impervious to the shouts of the galleries for their new-found hero, the trial ballots are to be sent up for Knox. LOWDEN BUT KANSAS COMES ALONG WITH 20 VOTES FOR HARDING

The stampede is started. Can it be headed off? A group of excited delegates is shoving along through the jammed aisles with a great picture of Harding. Kentucky comes through with 26 for the Ohioan. They say Lowden has sent word that his delegates are backing Harding. If so, it will over by the shouting. Louisiana sees the band wagon coming along and climbs aboard. OHIO SENATOR IS CHOSEN ON TENTH BALLOT

Lowden Releases Delegates. It was the parleys between the Harding and Lowden men, however, which apparently bore the most fruit when the balloting began again, for Governor Lowden came to the convention during the ninth rollcall and, reversing a previous plan to go before the convention itself, issued instructions from behind the scenes releasing his instructed delegates. Senator Harding also was in the rear of the Coliseum platform during the voting and conferred with Chairman Hays.

Almost as soon as the alphabetical call of states began after the recess the ground swell for Harding demonstrated that it could not be forestalled. Connecticut, when her name was called, took 12 of her 14 votes from Lowden and gave them to Harding. In Florida he got seven from Wood, and then Kentucky, almost from the first a solid Lowden state, flopped completely into the Harding column.

Wood Forces Desert. Amid scenes of rising enthusiasm other blocks of Lowden delegates followed suit, while many of the routed Wood supporters also went to the Harding camp. At the end of the rollcall Senator Harding had rolled up a total of 374, putting him far into the lead, and several scores of votes nearer the nomination than any candidate had been before.

Lowden at the end of the ninth had only 121 votes left out of the 567 with which he ended the eighth, and General Wood's strength had fallen from 299 on the eighth to 249 on the ninth. Johnson dropped from 87 to 82.

As the 10th rollcall began delegates quit Lowden, Wood and Johnson right and left, and the big hall was in almost continuous applause as Senator Harding announced accession to the Harding standard. It was reserved for Pennsylvania that the cheering and the applause.
