

SPOKANE IS HOST TO 2000 SHRINERS

All Special Trains Operated by Lodge Members.

TWO CARS FOR DANCING

Galveston Special Also Has Two Jazz Bands to Provide Music for Dancing Parties.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 19.—(Special)—By noon a dozen bands, a dozen patrols, a half-dozen drum corps, three or four Shrine choirs and almost 2000 Shriners had entered the gates of the city and were the guests of El Kafif temple, Spokane.

The patrol and band of El Kafif temple met and escorted to the Masonic temple every visiting Shrine delegation.

More than 200 automobiles were commandeered by the visiting nobles for whose use the cars had been engaged.

Ismalia temple of Buffalo, N. Y., in special trains and carrying approximately 500 Shriners, was the first of the immense caravan to move through Spokane. Ismalia stopped 30 minutes.

Some Remain for Day.

The first Shriners to remain for the day were El Mina from Galveston, Tex., and Molla from St. Joseph, Mo. Both arrived in their own special trains over the Great Northern.

Al Amin of Little Rock, Ark., and Sahara of Pine Bluff, Ark., were the next temple delegations to arrive, also over the Great Northern.

Al Amin carried a band of 30 pieces, a patrol of 53 and Sahara is here with a patrol of 25. Molla of St. Joseph, Mo., is here with 152, a band of 25, a patrol and 32 and a drum corps of 25. El Mina of Galveston carries a party of 164 with a band of 40 pieces and patrol of 34.

The Galveston special is complete in every detail. The special carries two baggage cars, transformed into dancehalls. Hardwood floors have been placed in these cars. In one a negro jazz band plays, while in the second a jazz band composed of Shriners gives dance music.

Shriners Operate Trains.

The special carries supplies for the party for ten days. The Galveston, like all of the other special Shrine trains, is being operated by Shrine employees of the railroads. The engineers and conductors on all of the specials, as well as most of the officials of the operation of these specials, are Shriners, the special trains having been placed on request in the hands of Shrine.

Osman of St. Paul, Minn., with a band of 60 pieces, a patrol of 24, a drum corps of 24, 12 buglers and a dozen chanters, arrived during the morning. Osman brought a party of 257.

Another of the early morning arrivals was Aladdin of Columbus, O., with a 40-piece band, 10 standard bearers, a patrol of 23 and a chorus of 24.

Ken temple of Grand Forks, N. D., with a special train of 14 cars, arrived over the Great Northern. A band of 36, a drum corps of 16 and a patrol of 30 accompanied the party, which consists of 188.

Atlanta Chanters Along.

Yaarab of Atlanta, with chanters, band, patrol and drum corps, arrived this afternoon.

Oasis of Charlotte, N. C., arrived during the night and swelled the number.

Rajah of Reading, Pa., arrived at 8:45 P. M. over the inland last night and departed at 11 o'clock.

An attractive Shrine patrol is that of Osman temple, St. Paul. The red coats and the black trousers of the patrol of Aladdin of Columbus also was one of the unusual color schemes of the visitors.

A sensation of the parade this afternoon was the Galveston Shrine, when its band and patrol appeared in silk bathing suits.

Aladdin's band of Columbus, O., one of the largest in the country, won much applause.

organization to the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen. "Miss Ashley will spend about six weeks in the Spokane territory to strengthen the locals already established and organize new ones in the inland empire," said Miss Cecil Birchfield, managing field officer of the four L's, here today.
