NOBLE WINS NEW LAURELS

PHILADELPHIA LABORS FOR MONTHS ON CONCLAVE.

Herman Rehborn, Veteran of Lu Lu Temple, Attends 16 Consecutive Shrine Sessions.

Success of a Shrine convention is dependent upon the ability of the imperial potentate. In the case of the Portland convention the unusual executive ability of W. Freeland Kendrick has done much to make the 1920 convention the greatest convention ever held in North America.

Behind the scenes has been a man who has labored night and day not only for the last few days but for months to assure a successful convention. This man is Noble Herman Rehborn, imperial representative of Lu Lu temple, Philadelphia, and vice secretary to the imperial potentate.

Noble Rehborn has attended 16 consecutive imperial sessions. Most of his visits were made as imperial representative of the famed Lu Lu temple.

He served as lieutenant of Lu Lu temple for 25 years, and when he sought to resign this position members of the patrol refused to permit his withdrawal from the organization and voted him an honorary first lieutenant.

Noble Rehborn is an active member of all Masonic bodies in Philadelphia, carrying a life membership in every organization except the Masonic Veterans association, which does not issue life memberships.

DENTAL CLINICS PLANNED

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S TEETH TO BE CARED FOR.

Investigation Shows 80 Per Cent of Pupils in Portland Need Attention.

As the result of investigations into the dental health of Portland school children, made by Dr. Edna Sherrill Eames of the city health bureau, the Portland chapter of the Junior Red Cross, acting in conjunction with the Portland District Dental association, has arranged for the establishment of two portable dental clinics, operated by three dentists and three assistants, to journey from school to school and care for the teeth of the city's boys and girls.

According to the observations of Dr. Eames, as well as investigations made in August, 1917, by the local dental association, 80 per cent of Portland's public school children are in need of dental care.

Lack of dental health of the child mitigates against mental efficiency, and consequently the condition should be corrected as soon as possible, according to the Junior Red Cross and the society.

At present city children are being given dental attention at the Neighborhood house and the city health bureau, but only 7 per cent of those in need of care are coming to these clinics.

The dental clinics which will be inaugurated in September are modeled along lines advocated by army authorities. The three dentists and assistants will travel from one school to the next and perform needed work as soon as practicable. It is thought, however, that the clinics will be regularly maintained.

Funds for the movement are being received by the Junior Red Cross from local dentists and it is stated there is no question but that the proposed clinics will meet the urgent need of the city's children.

Mrs. S. M. Blumauer, local chairman of the Junior Red Cross, is heading that organization's efforts in the movement, while Dr. M. C. Holbrook is acting in a similar capacity for the Portland District Dental association.

MAN HURT IN ELEVATOR

LEG PINCHED IN SHAFT AND HELD FOR HOUR.

Bolt in Floor Cut Out With Blow Torch Before Release Can Be Effectuated.

R. G. Drake, 51, of 324 1/2 First street, employed as an elevator operator in the Title & Trust building, received a compound fracture of the right leg and a fracture of the right arm, about 12:30 yesterday when he was caught in the elevator in the building.

The man's leg was pinched between the floor of the elevator and the shaft and it was about an hour before he could be released. A bolt in the floor of the elevator was cut with a blow torch before the injured man could be released and the fire department was called to prevent and possibility of a blaze being started.

Drake was taken to St. Vincent's hospital by the Ambulance Service company. Hospital authorities expressed the belief that it would not be necessary to amputate his injured leg.

Drake, who has an artificial left leg, mounted the elevator on the first floor of the building. As it ascended his coat is said to have caught in the doors of the shaft on the second floor and his leg was drawn in between the floor of the elevator and the side of the shaft. With the man caught in that position the car went almost to the fourth floor before being stopped.

W. R. Robinson, 354 Park street, operator of the elevator at the time, told Motorcyclist Patrolman Tully that he momentarily fainted when the man was caught and for a few seconds knew nothing so that he was unable to stop the car. Physicians from the police emergency hospital gave the injured man morphine opiates to deaden the pain he suffered.

Drake is a brother of Dr. Emmett Drake, Portland dentist, and Fred Drake of this city. He has been employed as an operator in the Title & Trust building for three years.

MAN'S PAROLE REVOKED

Earl Townsend Goes Back to Penitentiary for Year.

When Earl Townsend gets out of the penitentiary about a year from now he will probably find a warrant for his arrest awaiting him, as he is talented in more than one criminal line. Townsend, who was sent to Salem some time ago for his connection with the burglary of a store at Hillmore, and later released on parole, was returned to the penitentiary Friday by Circuit Judge McCourt after he had been arrested by the police on charges of peddling narcotics. His parole was revoked and he must serve another year.

The latest charge that he must now face is for violation of the prohibition act. Deputy sheriff yesterday paid a visit to a still lodged in the woods on the Boone's Ferry road and alleged to be the property of Townsend. The cache included several tubs of mash.
