Walch-Walch.
Miss Myrtle Lucille Walch and Dr. Edward Frehn were married June 26. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Walch, was born in Portland and has lived practically all her life in this city. Mr. Walch is a well-known Portland business man.

Young-Baker.
Miss Myrtle M. Baker and William H. Young, both of Portland, were married June 17. Rev. Alexander MacLean of the Central Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Frances Turner sang and Dorothy Lee played the wedding march. David James Watson, nephew of the bride, carried the ring in the heart of a rose. The bride was pretty in her gown of white satin trimmed with silver lace and embroidered in silver thread. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Hersherberger-Garrett.
Charles Wilson Hersherberger of Portland was married last week to Frances Christine Garrett at the home of the bride, Fairmount. The couple will make their home at 529 Montgomery drive, Portland. The bride is a talented girl, a graduate of the Art Institute of Chicago and during the past year has been a supervisor of art in the schools of Portland. Colfax McPherson was best man at the wedding and Miss Marjorie Garrett was maid of honor.

Dittner-Shlanick.
Miss Lillian Shlanick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ockerman of Seattle and Henry Dittner, president of Shlanick's Inc., son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dittner of Yakima, Wash., were married last Wednesday in the Holy Rosary church. The couple will be at home after July 1 at 721 Multnomah avenue. The bride is a graduate of the University of Montana and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of Gonzaga college at Spokane.

Gould-Colgan.
A beautiful wedding took place the evening of June 15 at the Methodist Episcopal church when Miss Hazel L. Colgan became the bride of Valen L. Gould. Rev. Henry T. Ackerman officiated in the impressive ring service and about 75 friends and relatives attended.

Perkins-Thompson.
Among the June weddings was that which took place at the home of Mrs. Linda Thompson, Sunday, June 13, when Linda Eleanor Thompson became the bride of Reamy De Camp Perkins, recently returned from overseas service. The house was prettily decorated with palms, Canterbury bells and marguerites. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Cronin of All Saints church, only immediate relatives being present. The bride was attended by Miss Dorothy Mische and the bridegroom by Lewis D. Manciet, cousin of the bride. After their return from a short wedding trip the young people will be at home to their friends at 729 Hoyt street.
