

SOCIETY

Mrs. Graham Mitchell (Helen Bosch) Honored at Recent Tea.

Miss Bertrude Rossiter of San Francisco, Guest of Mrs. W. F. Smith.

Mrs. C. R. Dabney (Alice May Mosier) Edmondson Girl, Bride of Portland.

Miss Elizabeth Boyd, Honored at Recent Tea.

Mrs. Duero R. M. Webster (Blodys Welch)

who recently sold their home at Sixteenth and Thompson streets, Irvington, have taken apartments at the Campbell.

Miss Johnnie Rowland of Olney, Ill., is the guest of Miss Mildred Croust of Rose City park.

Dr. and Mrs. Courtland L. Booth are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, Charles Frazier, who was born Monday, June 23.

Mrs. I. M. Binard and son Bert of Lewiston are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Freedman.

The Knights of Columbus will entertain Tuesday evening on the Swan, leaving the foot of Jefferson street at 8:30 o'clock. M. P. Brennan is chairman of the committee in charge.

Miss Ada Tiedeman will become the bride of John B. He of Eau Claire, Wis., Wednesday, July 7, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiedeman.

FOSSIL, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—Miss Erna Mettler and Connelly Wallace of Vancouver, Wash., were married here Wednesday. Judge Johnson of Fossil officiated.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Mettler of Fossil. The bride, who is one of Wheeler county's popular young women, was charming in a gown of white crepe de chine. She was graduated from the Wheeler county high school with the class of 1918 and since that time she has been teaching near Fossil.

The bridegroom has a ranch near Vancouver where the couple will make their home.

BAKER, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—Miss Christine Dooley has returned to Baker after a three months' tour which covered Chicago, Washington, D. C., New York City and other large eastern cities and the Bermuda islands. Miss Dooley met her sister, Miss Ruth Dooley, at the nation's capital, and the two proceeded to the British colony in the Atlantic ocean. On the return trip Miss Ruth remained at Washington where she is employed by the government in the war risk insurance department.

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 3.—(Special.)—A double wedding of Malone couples was solemnized at Montesano Wednesday afternoon, the principals being Miss Thelma Davidson and Lauren Bennett and Miss Maida Stead and Edward Campbell. Relatives at the wedding party included the mothers of the two brides.

An attractive wedding of last week was that of Miss Fay Stuckel Barnes to Hermes Wrightson, which was solemnized at the home of the brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Barnes, on Wednesday evening. The house was decorated with palms and flowers, pastel shades of flowers being used in both the living room and on the supper table.

The bride was gowned in white satin and lace. Her wedding veil, which was exceptionally attractive, was given to her by her cousin who wore it on her wedding day. The bride's attendant was Miss Sara Smith, who wore a dainty gown of orchid taffeta. Marshall Woodworth of Albany, was the bridegroom's attendant, and little Sue Samson was the ring bearer. Margaret Nugent, Mildred Johnson and Dorothy Munsell and other members were the bridesmaids. The ceremony was read by Rev. Walter Henry Nugent, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, after the ceremony a reception and supper was held, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wrightson and other relatives assisting Mr. and Mrs. Hermes Wrightson to receive the guests. At the supper table Miss David Minsinger and Miss Gretchen Taylor served. Dorothy Bennett, Mildred Mitchell, Edith Camp and Ida Miller assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Wrightson left for a short honeymoon to Mount Hood after which they will be at home in Portland in their new home. Out-of-town guests were S. S. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, McMinnville; D. W. Barnes, Hillsboro; H. W. Stuckel of Everett, Wash. Music was given by Mrs. R. F. Feemster and Genevieve MacLean.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

At the home of L. J. Eshelman, near Centerville, Klamath county, Washington last Wednesday was the occasion of a pleasant family reunion of four brothers—L. Eshelman, Centerville; J. F. Eshelman and Dudley Eshelman of Tacoma, and Dr. C. Eshelman of Portland. The four brothers settled in Klamath county in 1873. The meeting marked the 70th birthday of L. Eshelman, who has lived on the farm 42 years. All the land formerly controlled by the Eshelman boys is now owned by L. J. Eshelman and his son, S. C. Eshelman. The descendants of the elder brother are three children, 24 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, nearly all of whom were present at the reunion. Many neighbors and friends, among them a number of general pioneers of 1873, were present to offer congratulations.

HARRISBURG, Or., July 3.—The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Tanton was observed last Saturday at their home in this city. Mr. Tanton is in his 81st year, is a veteran of the civil war, enlisting from Wisconsin, the native state of both himself and his wife. She is 68. They have been residents of Oregon since 1902. With them to observe their anniversary were their sons, Byron of Newport and Ira of this place, and their daughter, Mrs. Rolly Baker, also of Harrisburg, and a number of other relatives and old Wisconsin friends.

One of the interesting Shrine events was the entertainment of Al Malaitah band at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Ray at Hillsdale. The band and other members were escorted by Noble Albert von der Werth. After a delightful and festive time the noble and his wife went to Banl Brith hall, which was their headquarters, and later formed a gay parade and marched to the Multnomah, where various notables and celebrities were serenaded. Mr. von der Werth was presented with a handsome emerald ring and platinum diamonds for his untiring efforts to dispense suitable hospitality.

WEDDINGS.

Evans-Strook. M. O. Evans, field manager for the Oregon Growers' Co-operative Association, and Miss Elizabeth Strook of Chehalis, Wash., were married Wednesday in Vancouver, Wash., by Rev. S. H. Thompson of the Methodist church. The bride is a graduate of East Tennessee normal school and the University of Southern California. Mr. Evans was well known here as school supervisor several years ago and later was connected with the extension work at Oregon Agricultural college. He was in Tacoma as garden supervisor and later with the Union stockyards. He is a graduate of Cornell.

Koenigs-Nunn. The marriage of Miss Ruth Cleveland Nunn and William Henry Koenigs was solemnized June 30 in St. Philip's church at Dallas. Father Houghton of St. Dinwiddie officiated. The wedding march was played by Miss Dorothy Bennett, who also accompanied Miss Alice Grant when she sang "At Dawning" just preceding the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home to members of the immediate family, after which the young couple left for the bride's home in national park and to Victoria, B. C. They will return to Portland to make their home.

Marlowe-Bowditch. The wedding of Miss Louise K. Bowditch and Thomas A. Marlowe was solemnized at Trinity Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon, June 30, at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few intimate friends by Dr. A. A. Morrison. Mr. and Mrs. Marlowe will make their home in Portland.

Minsinger-Hedlund. Miss Julia Hedlund became the bride of David William Minsinger Saturday afternoon, June 26, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hedlund, Rev. O. W. Taylor of Grace Episcopal Memorial church officiating. The service was read in the presence of a few close friends and

Store Not Open Tomorrow

Store Not Open Tomorrow

ULTRA MODES

IT IS IMPORTANT
that you see tomorrow's papers for

H. Liebes & Co.'s
Announcement

Semi-Annual Clearance
Beginning Tuesday, July 6, 9:30 A. M.

A Regular Carnival of Bargains

—Never were assortments so large and complete at clearance time.
—Never were the reductions greater.
—Never was there a more favorable opportunity at saving, and never was the necessity so urgent.

Tuesday The Day

H. Liebes & Co.
ESTABLISHED 1864 FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

9:30 A. M. The Time

relatives of the bridal couple. John E. Hiley was best man and Mrs. Clara Hedlund, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride wore a smart frock of white crepe georgette over satin. Her flowers were bride's roses and white sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a beautiful gown of gold cloth over salmon-colored charmeuse, combined with black lace embroidered in heavy metal thread and carried shaded deep pink sweet peas. The ceremony was performed in a bower of palms and ferns combined with pink roses. Preceding the wedding march Mrs. Paul E. Legler, sister of Mr. Minsinger, sang "Because," after which Mrs. Matilda McKnight, sister of the bride, sang "Beloved, It Is Morn'g." Following the ceremony the wedding collation was served in the dining room. Assisting in serving the guests were the Misses Ada Reed and Fay Barnes. Mr. and Mrs. Minsinger left for the beach for a brief wedding trip.

Stier-Blackwell. Florence Jessie Blackwell and Edward Stier were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Iveson Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the presence of 40 guests at their new bungalow, 1201 East Ankeny street, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Before the ceremony the bridal march was played by Miss Zulah Agross and Mrs. Fred Aasen sang "Dawning." The bride was attended by Mrs. O. (Continued on Page 5.)

STANFORD TEACHER BECOMES REED INSTRUCTOR.

Miss Ina P. Baughman. Miss Ina P. Baughman of Palo Alto, Cal., has been elected instructor in chemistry at Reed college, according to an announcement of the board of regents. She comes to Reed highly recommended by associates at Stanford university, where she received her bachelor's and master's degrees and where during the past year she held a teaching fellowship with a Ph. D. in prospect.

Miss Baughman was prominent in Stanford athletics, having won letters and numerals in hockey, baseball and rowing, and was a leader in the Iota Sigma Pi, the women's national honorary chemical fraternity, in which she was recognized as a chemist of rare ability. She will arrive in Portland early in September and will reside in the college dormitory.

—SEE—

Monday Journal, Tuesday Oregonian and Telegram for opening announcement of our big July

Rebuilding Clearance
A Storeful of Bargains—Read Every Item Carefully

Store Closed Monday, July 5th

EMPORIUM
Z. SWETT CO.
124 to 128 SIXTH ST., JUST OFF WASHINGTON

Store Your Furs

in a place where they will be safe from moth, theft and fire, in our

Modern Cold Storage Vaults

20 degrees below freezing is the continuous temperature

Phone Marshall 785 for Rates

Furs Remodeled

Now is the time to prepare for winter by having your furs made into up-to-date styles.

Store Closed Monday

H. Liebes & Co.
ESTABLISHED 1864 FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

Baby's first clothes

This Is Our Baby's Boudoir 76-Piece Complete Layette $43.45

62 pieces, ready for use, include:

- 3 Vanta Knit Binders
- 3 Vanta Shirts
- 3 pairs Stockings
- 1 Receiving Blanket
- 1 Double Blanket
- 2 Cards Safety Pins
- 1 Cake Soap
- 1 Pkg. Boric Acid
- 1 Pkg. Absorbent Cotton
- 1 Bottle Vaseline
- 1 Bottle Sweet Oil
- 1 Can Talcum Powder

14 pieces cut or stamped ready to make:

- 4 Nainsook Slips
- 1 Nainsook Dress
- 2 Daisy Cloth Wrappers
- 2 Nainsook Gertrudes
- 2 Flannel Gertrudes
- 3 Daisy Cloth Nighties

This Layette Will Be Held at This Price Upon Receipt of a Small Deposit.

Baby's Boudoir

388 Morrison, Below Tenth