plenty of stories from his friends.
But the next time I hunt big game in his own town I will stalk him the was perhaps more sympathetic in her way Whisperfoot does and pounce from some thicket of conversation and pretended friendliness. For Marshall is big game. He is strong, versatile, writing as easily as you or I reeak. His magazine stories prove this, One of his railroad characters in a story from the American Magazine neighbors with the heroes of the best 100 stories for 1917. "The Missing Seventeen," from the Post, had the same teen," from the Post, had the same at war and din't feel like writing and write war and war a
