

Mrs. Clayton H. Hiestand, who was Miss Grace Brewer until her wedding recently.

Mrs. Kenneth's Kodjmar, (Anne Vannell)

Mrs. Edward K. Prohn, (Kildred Walck)

Mrs. Earl Hutchinson, (Evangelist Dye)

son, matron of honor, who was gowned in pink Georgette crepe. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of bridal satin trimmed in Irish lace and wore a bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. William Grier, (Audrey Fay Spencer)

Rev. C. C. Curtis of the First Christian church officiating. The bride wore white crepe de chine trimmed with pearls and carried a shower of roses.

After a luncheon, the couple left for Los Angeles, where they will spend their honeymoon. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Mary E. Stephenson of North Yakima, mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Prater and son of Seattle, Mrs. E. Stier and Miss Clara Stier of Spokane.

attired in a gown of white crepe de chine, with veil caught in place with orange blossoms. Miss Opal Bricknell was the bride's only attendant. Mr. Carroll, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride and bridegroom were accompanied by Mrs. Fred Piggett, mother of the bride, and the Misses Bernice Piggett and Agnes Dickson of Brazil, Ind. A reception was held at the Piggett home on Pettygrove street in honor of the newlyweds, who received many beautiful gifts consisting of cut glass, silver, china and linens.

Miss Edna H. Venator and William S. Holmes were married on June 26 in the bride's home, Rev. M. A. Babestra officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will reside in Grass Valley.

Miss Gladys Piggett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piggett of Portland, and Charles W. Lonergan, son of Charles Lonergan of Portland, were married June 18 at Vancouver, the young couple, after a week's visit at Gearhart and other beaches, expect to motor to Canada and northern Washington. They will reside in Portland.

Following the ceremony light refreshments were served and later the young couple left for Portland, where they will make their home at 547 Everett street.

Workman-Harison. Miss Mary Alice Harison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harison of Hillsboro, and Wilbur L. Workman of Beaverton were married at the bride's home on June 22.

After spending two enjoyable weeks in Portland Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hirsch left Sunday morning and motored to Seattle. From there they will motor on to Yakima to spend the summer, where Mr. Hirsch has business interests.

The bridegroom is connected with the firm of McEnter & Eilers, Portland.

By cleansing with a neutral soap and the frequent application of MARINELLO Rose Leaf Jelly followed by soothing the surface with Phantom Powder. Full explanation and booklet free.

After a brief honeymoon to coast points Mr. and Mrs. Weaver will return to make Portland their home.

Miss Gladys Piggett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piggett of Portland, and Charles W. Lonergan, son of Charles Lonergan of Portland, were married June 18 at Vancouver, the

IMPORTED Pompeian Olive Oil has for years been the world's recognized standard table oil

Wells-Matches. Miss Matilda A. Matches and James G. Wells were married recently at 187 East Thirty-seventh street. Mrs. James Shearer played the wedding march and Evelyn Lawrence sang. The bride was lovely in white satin and a long fluffy veil. The couple will make their home at 1247 East Main street.

Sharp-Althaus. Marlan H. Althaus left Portland June 25 for Denver, Colo., where he was married to Leslie H. Sharp on June 30. Mr. Sharp is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward M. Sharp of Red Bluff, Cal. Dr. Sharp was formerly pastor of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian church of Portland. The groom is a graduate of Lake Forest university and of Stanford university. Since his return from France last November he has been in the government service work in the bureau of mines at the University of Colorado.

The young couple will pass their honeymoon on a tour of inspection among the mines of western Colorado and upon their return will make their home at Boulder, Col. The marriage is the culmination of a romance begun at Stanford university.

Grier-Spencer. Miss Audrey Fay Spencer and William Grier were married on Friday at the East Side church. Rev. H. T. Cash officiating. The bride is an attractive and accomplished girl of Escalante, Utah. Her father is the owner of an old and esteemed family, formerly of Scotland. He is connected with the Portland Flouring mills. A breakfast was served at the Benson hotel after the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white satin and a veil of tulle and real lace.

Hiestand-Brewer. The marriage of Miss Grace Brewer and Clayton H. Hiestand took place at 4:30 o'clock on Saturday at the Methodist Episcopal church, Union avenue and Multnomah streets, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Rev. John W. Byrd performed the ring ceremony.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Glenna Jones, Little Dorothy Mulholland, as flower girl, and Marjorie Oetken, as ring bearer, were dainty little maids in fluffy white dresses. Miss Brewer's gown was of tulle and lace and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and delicate ferns.

Miss V. Brewer, as maid of honor, wore a blue chiffon gown with pink picture hat and carried Ophelia roses. Miss Helen King and Mrs. Howard R. Woodbury (Doris Wray) were bridesmaids. They wore pink and white chiffon gowns, with pink picture hats, and carried spring flowers in pink shades.

Mr. Hiestand was attended by Jerry Nowlan as best man, instructor and Earl Farney were ushers. Preceding the ceremony Miss Golder sang "O Promise Me". Immediately after the wedding ceremony the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Brewer, gave a reception at their home on Alberta street for the many friends of the bridal party. Miss Brewer is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority, and for the past two years has been a member of the James John high school faculty.

Mr. Hiestand is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hiestand of Tigard, Or., and is also a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college. He is a member of Kappa Psi fraternity. The young couple, after a week's visit at Gearhart and other beaches, expect to motor to Canada and northern Washington. They will reside in Portland.

SOCIETY PERSONALS. Mrs. D. C. Burns has as her house guests Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Greer of Vancouver, B. C. A baby girl arrived Sunday, June 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Perry, 307 Grand street. Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Montgomery of Portland are registered at the Hotel Alexandria in Los Angeles. Games, music and dancing will be play afternoon and evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Worth (Gertrude Steinbach) were among the passengers sailing for Europe on the White Star liner Baltic June 26. Mrs. E. Weinstein, who has been in New York for the past three months visiting her daughter Sylvia, who is studying music, has returned to Portland. After spending two enjoyable weeks in Portland Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hirsch left Sunday morning and motored to Seattle.

LOVE OVERCOMES FAITH. PASTOR GIVES UP MINISTRY TO WED GILL. Presbyterian Preacher Will Be Married to Miss Miller by Catholic Priest.

DENVER, Colo.—Announcement of his retirement from the ministry was made by the Rev. Dr. William Leonard Spiegel, prominent pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Cincinnati, upon his arrival in Denver preparatory to his marriage to Miss Marie J. Miller, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Miller, which will take place Thursday morning in the sacristy of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, the Rev. Father Edward J. Mannix officiating.

"I am resigning from my position as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Cincinnati, where I have been for the past 14 years," Dr. Spiegel said. "I am also arranging my affairs as president of the Spiegel-McIlvain Steel and Tank foundries so that I will be free from all business cares as well." He added that unless he will fill a short vacancy once in a while he did not expect to occupy the pulpit again.

When questioned concerning the attitude of his church and congregation in regard to his coming marriage by a Catholic priest, Dr. Spiegel said: "My parishioners know nothing of my marriage or my plans and I do not care what they think or say, it is purely a personal matter. Of course I would not recommend the marriage of every one of opposite faith, as a great deal of trouble often results, but I believe that ours is an unusual case.

"Our marriage will be church unity worked out in a practical plan and there is nothing in either denomination to prevent such an arrangement. As to the ceremony being performed by a Catholic priest, has not the bride always the choice of who shall marry her?" Dr. Spiegel declares that he is evidently unique in two things, his marriage and the fact that he is a boiler-maker-preacher. "Boiler-maker-preachers are not unusual, but I have never heard of a boiler-maker-preacher before and I have no doubt that many would be interested in that fact," Dr. Spiegel said. "There is bound to be some criticism of my matrimonial plans, no doubt," he continued, "but it will be from those who have not figured out the proposition in a practical manner. Religion is a matter of personal choice and we each respect the other's faith and in that way keep the things that are dearest to us both."

Following their wedding Dr. Spiegel and Miss Miller will tour the east and will stop in Cincinnati for a short stay. A part of their journey will be by motor and their return to Denver will be indefinite. Dr. Spiegel upon his return to Cincinnati will officially resign his pastorate, having at the present time a few weeks leave of absence.

CINCINNATI, O.—Only members of his immediate family in Cincinnati knew of the approaching marriage in Denver by a Catholic priest, of the Rev. Dr. William L. Spiegel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Cincinnati, when he left Cincinnati for Denver to meet Miss Marie J. Miller of that city, his bride-to-be.

While church friends of the pastor in Cincinnati were greatly surprised over the unusualness of the marriage arrangements, they knew of nothing in the ritual of the Presbyterian church which would forbid the marriage of a pastor of that faith by a priest of the Catholic faith.

"I talked with him but Mr. Spiegel said nothing to me about the marriage," said the Rev. David McKinney, associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church. "In fact I asked one of the official board members where Mr. Spiegel was again, and was informed he had gone west again. Mr. Spiegel went to Denver about the first of March to assist Miss Miller, who is his cousin by marriage, in settling up the estate of her father, who had just died. We expected him home shortly, but he remained there two months or more before returning here.

not surprising. Miss Miller is our cousin and is an exceptionally fine woman. Her father was of the Catholic faith." Dr. William McKibbin, president of the Lane Theological seminary, and Dr. F. C. Monfort, editor of the Herald and Presbyterian, both declared that there is nothing in the Presbyterian church law which would cause any necessary change in Dr. Spiegel's official relations with the Presbyterian church as the result of his marriage by the Catholic clergyman.

Dr. Spiegel is identified with a Cincinnati boiler-making company, in addition to being pastor of his church. The Misses Striker have been keeping house for him since the death of his first wife.

LOS ANGELES.—Mrs. Elizabeth Lottie Marquet, who sought annulment of her marriage to Dale Marquet, told Judge Taft she met him at a dance, that he told her he was an army captain, and fired her fancy by a thrilling tale of his bravery at the battle of the Marne. After a courtship of three weeks, they were married and started on a honeymoon trip. The bride was dressed as a boy so that she could ride freight trains. The couple landed in a Salt Lake City jail. Mrs. Marquet sought an annulment on the ground that her husband was mentally incompetent when she married him.

Said the court in taking the case under submission: "You cannot release the marital ties because the man tells his bride fairly tales before he is married. It is a silly girl who walks into foolish marriage. Many a husband is an artistic liar. The girl must reap what she sows."

Baths Added to H. C. L. PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia.—The tariffs for the famous baths of Carlsbad, Marienbad and Franzensbad are to be greatly increased, according to a plan now under consideration. The tax for the cure will range from 20 to 300 Czech crowns. Nationals of countries on a crown basis may pay in crowns, but foreigners such as British, French and others on a higher currency basis will pay in proportion.

LOVE'S TIES ARE UPHELD. Many Husbands "Artistic" Deceivers. Court Tells Wife.

LOS ANGELES.—Mrs. Elizabeth Lottie Marquet, who sought annulment of her marriage to Dale Marquet, told Judge Taft she met him at a dance, that he told her he was an army captain, and fired her fancy by a thrilling tale of his bravery at the battle of the Marne. After a courtship of three weeks, they were married and started on a honeymoon trip. The bride was dressed as a boy so that she could ride freight trains. The couple landed in a Salt Lake City jail. Mrs. Marquet sought an annulment on the ground that her husband was mentally incompetent when she married him.

Said the court in taking the case under submission: "You cannot release the marital ties because the man tells his bride fairly tales before he is married. It is a silly girl who walks into foolish marriage. Many a husband is an artistic liar. The girl must reap what she sows."

Baths Added to H. C. L. PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia.—The tariffs for the famous baths of Carlsbad, Marienbad and Franzensbad are to be greatly increased, according to a plan now under consideration. The tax for the cure will range from 20 to 300 Czech crowns. Nationals of countries on a crown basis may pay in crowns, but foreigners such as British, French and others on a higher currency basis will pay in proportion.

Advertisement for Q-R-S Player Rolls for July. Includes text: 'Why does your player piano pedal easier with a Q-R-S Roll? The square cut perforations are responsible. Make the comparison yourself.' and a list of 14 songs with prices. Also includes 'STORY ROLLS' and 'MAY SPECIALS' sections. At the bottom, it says 'The Q-R-S Music Company' with locations: New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Toronto, London, Buenos Aires.

Advertisement for Sherman, Clay & Co. Perfect Player Roll Service. Text: 'In line with our policy to give the very best Player Roll Service in this city, we carry all the Q. R. S. ROLLS. We cordially invite you to come in and hear any Player Rolls without any obligation to purchase.' Includes an illustration of a player piano and the company name 'Sherman, Clay & Co.' with address: Sixth and Morrison Streets, Portland, (Opposite Postoffice), Seattle-Tacoma-Spokane.

Advertisement for 'HAIR AS AN EGG FOR 20 YEARS' and 'RESULT!' with contact information for 'THE ERDIE CO.' at 408 Union Ave. N. and 435 N. James Place, Portland, Or.

Advertisement for 'IMPORTED Pompeian Olive Oil' with text: 'has for years been the world's recognized standard table oil'.