

IDAHO PRIMARY LAW CAUSES ANNOYANCE

Amendment by Last Legislature Proves Unsatisfactory

MANY EXPRESS DISGUST

Women Propose to Take Active Interest in Politics This Year as They Have Served Notice.

BOISE, Idaho, July 3.—(Special.)—Idaho political leaders and politicians have just gone through a week of worry and trouble in an effort to comply with the provisions of the amended election law to place delegates to county conventions, candidates for county office and the legislature, in nomination, and it is putting it mildly to say they are thoroughly disgusted with the act passed by the last legislature. It seems certain that one of the main issues in the coming state campaign is to be the primary election law.

In an attempt to remedy some of the defects of that law the last legislature repealed it as to the nomination of congressional and state candidates, leaving that to a convention. The result is just what was feared—a drifting back to the political machine and its domination over party political affairs.

Horah to Sound Keynote.
Senator Horah will within a short time deliver an address in which he will express and make clear his attitude to the electors of Idaho. That address is to be somewhat of a keynote on state issues and will probably be delivered in Boise. He will therein discuss the present law and point out the defects in it and at the same time will appeal to electors to insist on a remedy which will give back to the people the greater direct voting powers that were taken from them through the passage of the new act. As he expects to remain here most of the summer his influence will be very likely felt in the campaign.

Democrats "Wait Watchfully."
The fight in the state promises to become intensified now that the democratic national convention has been held. There is much speculation over the state ticket and especially the governorship for that reason. In this county, Ada, the largest in the state, Governor Davis, who is a candidate for re-nomination and State Treasurer John W. Eagleston, who is running in opposition to him, are active in attempting to get control of the county's 15 delegates.

Democrats are "waitfully watching" and will likely remain patient in that attitude while the republicans are deciding who their candidate for governor will be. They will thereafter pick the strongest man they can to run. In that connection the name of another man has been linked with the governorship, Judge Ed L. Bryan of Caldwell. While not a candidate in any sense of the word, the friends of Judge Bryan are quietly working in his behalf and hope to be able to induce him to come out for the democratic nomination.

Women Propose Activity.
Women of Idaho propose to take a more active interest in politics. This is the notice that the Idaho Council of Women Voters has served on the leaders of political parties. Because the state nominating law has been changed, the women propose to get into the race for position of delegates to the state conventions and there take an active part in the nomination of candidates for the several offices.

INDIANS HOLD COUNCIL
LOVE FEAST CELEBRATED BY THREE TRIBES.

Full War Regalia to Be Worn Tomorrow and Parade Will Be One of Features.

PENDELTON, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—More than 500 Indians assembled in Umatilla county, across the river from Cayuse for the annual reunion and celebration of the Walla Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla tribes. The ancient council grounds are dotted prominently with mounds bearing the tribal insignia of these three once powerful clans.

9-CENT MILK POSSIBLE
War at Grays Harbor Results in Price Reductions.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 3.—(Special.)—Milk on Grays Harbor is now selling for 12 cents a quart, with indications of it going down to 9 cents as a result of a milk war declared by the Grays Harbor Dairyman's association against a group of independent farmers of the Satsop district who have been operating through the Satsop farmers dairy here.

FAIRGROUNDS IS GIFT
William Pollman Makes Present of Site to Baker.

BAKER, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—William Pollman, well-known Baker capitalist, has presented to the city of Baker the 20-acre site of the county fair grounds lying northwest of this city, to be used as a race course, athletic field and park. The only condition included with the presentation of the valuable gift is that the city of Baker spend at least $500 a year for maintenance of the grounds.

HEALTH GOOD 80 YEARS
Oregon Pioneer Calls Doctor First Time Past Week.

LA GRANDE, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—Over 80 years of life, and never a doctor's prescription, is the record of Wilse Deal, one of the early pioneers of La Grande, which was broken this week. Mr. Deal settled in La Grande in the early days when this place contained only a few homes, banded together for protection from the Indians.

Crater Lake to Be Photographed.
EUGENE, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—P. H. Kiser, scenic photographer, of Portland, arrived here last night and will leave today in company with Will G. Steel, secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce, for Crater lake. They will accompany the members of the congressional committee on appropriations to the lake from Klamath Falls. Mr. Kiser will take a number of photographs of the lake to be included in a book to be printed by the committee to make the public acquainted with the reclamation projects and the national parks throughout the country.

$400 Worth of Clothes Stolen.
EUGENE, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—Five suits of clothing valued at $400, one of them costing the owner $125, were stolen from O. A. Foust's cleaning establishment in the basement of the Hotel Osburn some time Thursday night.

MR. PAUL NOBLE
Manager, Liberty Theater
Portland, Oregon

Dear Mr. Noble:—
The show business is booming at this time and we are glad, for that means good plays, and an evening at the play—a good play, is our favorite indoor sport.

A good play has a heart and a soul and means something; it's not only entertainment, it teaches a lesson in a way that counts.

And coming to the show, and after the show, and every day in every year people use automobiles, and these automobiles have tires, many of them are Lee Tires—we think all ought to be Lee Tires.

Because the Lee, like a good show, has a way that counts with discriminating people.

In the first place Lee Tires are made of the best rubber we can buy, and Egyptian long staple cotton; from this cotton is produced fabrics of great textile strength.

In the second place the carcass is partly cured, the tread is partly cured, then tread and carcass are united in the finished product—a different idea which eliminates overcuring and consequent weakness.

In the third place there's an extra cushion, a matter of considerable importance, between the cords.

These are technical features, but in plain words the result of this process in manufacturing Lee Tires means more mileage, diminished expense, less trouble—dividends.

And we're all looking for dividends on the investment; in other words results. Lee Tires give results.

Another thing: Lee Inner Tubes are the only tubes still made in accordance with government specifications of pure gum.

These are some reasons why Lee Tires, like good shows, grow in popularity and enjoy long runs—they satisfy; they "mean something."

Yours very true-LEE,
Chancellor & Lyon Company,
Pacific Coast Distributors.
