Peremptory Disposal of Dining Room Suites

Table Sets and Separate Pieces

Each Piece Freshly Reduced From Its Former Price

Dining-room furniture is taking up too much space in the Furniture Store. Splendid furniture of its kind, but much of it arrived unexpectedly after we had duplicated earlier orders. Anyone seeking dining tables, buffets, china closets or complete sets can congratulate himself because he will be able to save large sums of money on perfectly good examples of fine furniture making.

This Italian Renaissance Dining Suite Was $863, Now $694.75

It is veneered with fine walnut such as the Florentine cabinet makers used hundreds of years ago. The chairs are faithful reproductions of old Florentine models upholstered with tapestry. The enclosed china cupboard is in keeping with the latest ideas of the best decorators. The buffet is long and inlaid with marquetry. The table is oblong and has interestingly shaped supports a la Renaissance.

For One Week Beginning Tomorrow Factory Demonstration of the "HOOVER" Electric Suction Sweeper

OFFERING Seven Days' Free Trial In Your Own Home

Without Any Obligation to Purchase

More than 10,000 homes in Portland are equipped with the Hoover suction sweeper.

Why?

Because women are getting tired of sweeping floors without cleaning them—working harder than their neighbors without results—and husbands are saving them such unnecessary labor by seeing that their wives have Hoovers.

Why the Hoover?

Because the Hoover Suction Sweeper is different from every other electric sweeper in that it cleans thoroughly—with less effort—and actually prolongs the life of the carpet or rug.

Factory representatives this week at Meier & Frank's will explain the exclusive patented features of the Hoover, showing why it is the only electric sweeper which

Beats—as It Sweeps—as It Cleans

The air suction lifts the carpet from the floor bringing it into contact with an electrically driven brush which revolves more than a thousand times a minute and detaches even the most stubborn clinging hair, thread and lint.

Telephone or Write

for free trial or first come and talk it over with the demonstrator and then if you like request a free trial. Absolutely no obligation to purchase.

Meier & Frank's: Seventh Floor and Basement Balcony.
