select, also for girls home from college and for others who are planning trips abroad and to the east.

Miss Eilyn Anne Newbegin told of her engagement to Ernest Wyland Crichton at a luncheon at Forest hall on Wednesday. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newbegin and a granddaughter of the late R. M. Wade. Mr. Crichton is the son of Mrs. Anna Crichton and a brother of Mrs. James Ambrose. At the luncheon covers were placed for Mrs. Charles Neighbors, Mrs. Hans Lemcke, Mrs. G. C. Kelleher, Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Pithian, Mrs. Charles T. Prehn, Mrs. Ambrose, Mrs. Edward Valentine, Mrs. James T. Johnson, Mrs. Brooks Haworth, Mrs. Edward Newbegin, Mrs. L. G. Patten, Mrs. Crichton, Miss Jean Buswell, Miss Louise Corbin, Miss Jeanette Wiggins and Miss Marjorie Patten.

Miss Anna Munly and Vance Ferguson were married on Wednesday at a quiet ceremony at Holy Rosary church. The bride is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. M. G. Munly.

Another event of Wednesday was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Joan Rosendale and George Jehlner, the news being told at a tea given for Miss Miriam Ehrlich of Spokane.

Miss Genevieve Thompson entertained on Monday at a motor party and picnic for Mrs. W. G. Houghwout (Marian Brodie) who is visiting here from Shanghai.

Entertaining for charming visitors was the official duty and pleasure of several of Portland's society matrons during the past week. On Monday the entertaining took the form of country outings, motor trips and highway suppers.

On Tuesday Mrs. Alfred A. Hampson was hostess at a bridge luncheon at the University club, honoring her guests, Miss Winifred Dollard of Napa, Cal. and Miss Miriam Williamson, another charming Californian, whose home is in Vallejo. Invited for the occasion were Mrs. Victor Johnson, Mrs. George McPherson, Mrs. E. L. Devereaux, Mrs. Donald Green, Mrs. Mary Scarborough, Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, Mrs. C. Edward Grellie, Mrs. John Latta, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. George Wentworth, Miss Dollard, Miss Williamson, Miss Anna Hitchcock and Miss Helen Follett.

Portland society had an opportunity to extend hospitalities during the past week to representatives of prominent New York families. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Pratt, who were at the head of the party of distinguished visitors, arrived on Wednesday with Miss Isabelle Rockefeller, the Misses Harriet and Florence Pratt, Herbert A. Pratt Jr., F. R. Pratt, William Hester Jr., and Miss Baird. Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett gave a garden supper and dance for the visitors on Wednesday evening and the next day they were taken on the highway trip to Mount Hood lodge and had dinner on the return trip at Forest hall.

On Friday the John D. Rockefeller arrived and on Saturday the Frederick Pratts and their children came and were entertained by Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett.

It was interesting to meet Miss Rockefeller and the Misses Pratt, all of whom are charming and who seemed delighted with the west. Mrs. Frederick Pratt, formerly was Miss Caroline Ladd. She is Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett's sister.

Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Clark III, are visiting William Dolph at his country place near Newberg, while Edward Clark, with some of the officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, is on a trip to the Cascade mountains.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett has invited a few friends to tea on Monday to meet her sister, Mrs. Frederick Pratt.

Mrs. Arthur M. Sherwood will entertain at tea on Wednesday for her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Sherwood.

Interest in the tennis tournament at Irvington club will hold the attention of many society folk this week. Mrs. Joseph P. Mulder is general chairman for the social affairs at the clubhouse and there will be a tea served each afternoon with an attractive hostess and some pretty girls assisting. Mrs. Charles Chamberlain is hostess for the week, and for the various days the following clubs, represented by chairmen as noted, will be in charge: Monday, Portland Heights, Mrs. Homer D. Angell; Tuesday, Laurelhurst, Mrs. N. B. Jacobson; Wednesday, Alameda, Mrs. J. Weston Hall; Thursday, Waverley Country club, Mrs. F. A. Nitchy; Friday, Multnomah, Mrs. William Clark; Saturday, Irvington club, Mrs. Everett Johnson and Miss Sara Patrick. Committees appointed included: Luncheon for visiting players, Mrs. W. I. Northrup; grounds, Miss Agnes McBride; house, Mrs. Walter Goss; dance, Mrs. J. P. Mulder. The dance will be the last night, when the trophies will be awarded.

Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner and Mrs. Sumner have left for a visit with Mrs. Sumner's mother in Michigan. The bishop will also be in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York. During their absence, Professor and Mrs. J. Stanley Brode of Whitman college will be staying at Bishopcroft.

Mrs. Robert F. Randolph, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Thoman of New York gave a delightful picnic supper at Argencraig, Grants Pass, the evening of July 4. The house and tables were effectively decorated with the national colors and Shasta daisies. The soft light from many gaily colored Japanese lanterns made a fairyland of the grounds. Little Miss Betty Randolph's spirited rendition of "Freedom's Flag" added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Irving Livingston and Miss Gene Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Streets, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coutant,

Mr. and Mrs. Will Scovell, Miss Cora Bartholomew, Mrs. Josephine Liesher of Portland, Mrs. Benjamin Coutant of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Louise Whitney and Miss Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Crosby, Robert F. Randolph and the Misses Theodate and Betty Randolph.

Miss Anna Munly and Vance T. Ferguson were married Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Holy Rosary church, Rev. E. B. Kenny officiating. The bride is the daughter of Judge M. G. Munly and Mrs. Munly of this city and Mr. Ferguson is the son of Mrs. E. Z. Ferguson. The young couple will make their home in Astoria, where Mr. Ferguson is in the lumber business. The bride is socially popular and both Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson are members of prominent and old families of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence Jr. and family, spent the early part of the week at their country place, Pine Cone Lodge, at Hood River.

Mrs. John F. Logan and daughter, Miss Dorothy Logan, who have been in San Francisco for some time, will visit the Yosemite valley before returning to Portland. The trip into the valley will be made as an opportunity for sightseeing and an outing for Miss Dorothy's health. Mr. Logan returned from California during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake C. O'Reilly are at Paul Smith's resort in New York state, and plan to be in Portland in the late summer or early fall.

Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, who went to San Francisco for a visit, returned during the last week.

A number of Portland girls are interested in the attractive "Camp Willapa" that will be directed by Miss Dorothy Elliott of Reed college. It is interesting to note that Florence Fowler and Ann Shepard, two quite young girls, and two who are possessed of unusual poise, will be among the associate instructors.

One of the largest outdoor performances ever staged in Portland at a private house will be given Tuesday after noon, July 27, in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wortman, 245 Vista avenue. The affair will be an the loveliness of a summer day spent among blooming flowers, green ferns, splashing, dashing streams and waterfalls and the shade of the great evergreen trees of Oregon is appealing more and more to society. Country homes are being enjoyed and appreciated to a greater degree each season for motor trips with picnic lunches and suppers are forming a place of popularity in the smart set schedule of entertaining. There are beautiful places along the Willametta river, in the Hood river valley, near the Columbia river and in many parts of the state. For those who possess such a home the hottest day has no unpleasant features.

The garden bordered by blooming hedges of roses and with tall fir or pine trees erecting it from the rays of the sun and yet allowing just enough of the radiance to filter through is an ideal spot for a luncheon, afternoon tea, a supper or a wedding ceremony. Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett's garden at Rivers proved a delightful setting for the Corbett's party on Wednesday when there was entertained a number of the younger set in compliment to Miss Rockefeller and the Herbert Pratts. The highway drive, the luncheon at Mount Hood lodge, Parkdale, the supper at Forest hall, afforded entertainment for the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Montague have a fairyland garden at their country place where the marriage of Miss Margaret Montague, their niece, will be solemnized next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Fowler entertained on Thursday for Miss Montague. A luncheon, with pink and cream colored sweet peas as nosegay place favors and with a centerpiece of the same flowers adorning the table, was the entertainment. Covers were arranged for Mrs. S. S. Montague, Miss Montague, Miss Carl Montague, Mrs. Hicks Penton, Miss Florence Flynn, Mrs. Frederick Kiehl, Miss Elizabeth Boyd, Miss Adele Dyott, Miss Marie Howell, Miss Genevieve Howell and a few others.

Mrs. Hicks Penton was hostess yesterday at Forest hall at a luncheon for the bride-elect.

An attractive visitor from Denver is Miss Isabelle Nichols, who is the guest of Miss Mabel Lawrence. Mrs. Will Lawrence entertained on Friday at luncheon for Miss Nichols, with the following additional guests: Miss Lois Nitchy, Miss Jane O'Reilly, Miss Elizabeth Penock, Mrs. Edward Thompson, Miss Mabel Lawrence and Miss Jean Sikens.

Several engagements were announced this last week and there was considerable entertaining for brides-
