operatic fantasy, "The Forest Children" written by Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons. Seventy persons, many of whom will be children, will be in the cast.

Prominent society women will be patrons for the afternoon's entertainment, which will be held to erect a memorial tablet for the late Miss Camille Deach and her little nephew, Fleuret, in the woman's building of the University of Oregon.

Special music, written for the occasion by Wirt Dennison and Harold Barlow, will be a feature of the fantasy. A 25-piece orchestra under Mr. Barlow's direction will furnish the music.

The William Maxwell Wood residence at St. Helens court is being occupied for the summer by Mrs. Thomas G. Halley and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Halley. The latter arrived a few days ago, and Mrs. Halley is expected today. They have been in Berkeley, where Miss Halley has been attending the University of California.

Mrs. R. E. von Kleinsmid and daughter Elizabeth of Tucson, Ariz., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Filcher Linn for the summer.

President von Kleinsmid of the University of Arizona has been one of the speakers at the National Education association sessions at Salt Lake, and after a trip east will arrive in Portland August 1 for a short visit.

Miss Joan Rosendale has announced her engagement to George Jehlinger. The news of the betrothal was told at a tea given at the home of the Misses Rosenthal.

Assisting the hostess were Miss Helen and Miss Gladys Dunne, Miss Delphine Rosenfeld and Miss Elsie Feldman. Mrs. Lawrence Rosenthal and Mrs. Albert Stenger presided at the table. Lovely nosegays, with the names of the betrothed pair, were given at the door by Flora Jean Feldman.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the season was that given by Chi chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, Oregon Agricultural college, at the Portland

REBUILDING CLEARANCE

Store Opens 9:30 A. M. Shop Early in the Morning

Just yesterday came this order from our buyers, now in New York: "Speed up the clearance of all spring-summer stocks. We don't want to see a single coat, suit or dress on the racks nor a single hat on the stands when we get back." In answer we are cutting prices, already greatly reduced, down to the very minimum, in many cases more than half. The front of the store is in the hands of carpenters, but to offset any inconvenience because of their work, we are offering bargains that make the Emporium the logical place to buy. Let your dollars do double duty here!
