MEIER & FRANK COMPANY

INTRODUCE FURTHER PLEASING INTERPRETATIONS OF

La Mode Chez Paris

Novelties of the moment personally chosen in Paris by a member of the firm and his staff—hurried six thousand miles to Portland—and the Meier & Frank constant search for new and better merchandise still goes on all over the world.

"This Bead Bag Would Have Cost

Le Golliwogg

The new parfum de luxe which has taken the smart set of Paris by storm. Gay, philosophical Golliwogg with up-standing black hair; tiny black feet and hands clasping his little labeled "corporation." A surprise gift; first the dull black and gold box; take off the lid and four sides of the box fall apart—and in a richly upholstered interior of cerise satin Golliwogg smiles at one. The perfume is penetratingly sweet but with a tang that pleases immensely. Originated by Vigny, Paris. Exclusively at Meier & Frank's in Portland. Priced $7.50.

a hundred dollars in my home town," said a southern visitor delightedly as she paid $37.50 for the one she liked most in our stocks. By direct importation of Paris bags we are saving customers as much as one hundred per cent.

The Petticoat Bead Bag sketched at the top is of black satin with triangles and concentric designs done with steel beads; it is finished with a charming border and short fringe; the frame is of cut steel. Priced $50.

Next Comes the Lantern Bag done of gaily colored beads which blend into a sombre oriental composition with jade-colored top. $50.

Oval Pouch Bags with loop handles are in black or colors with jet or steel beads; the black one pictured is $20.

That Tiny Bag shown at the end of the picture is of blue silk covered with a mesh of steel beads finished with tassel and ball; these little bags are le dernier cri in Paris. Priced $10.

The Round Box in the picture is a diverting study of yellow and blue with rose-covered top surmounted by a cherry button; it contains Vigny face powder in latest Paris tints. Exclusively at Meier & Frank's in Portland. Priced $2.

"Plein Soleil" is another intriguing perfume—surely of the "open sunshine," in such a richly simple bottle that it makes one think of a jewel. Priced $6.

Many other original bottles and odors at prices less than are often asked for less interesting varieties. —Main Floor.

Have You a Jeweled Dagger in Your Hat?

No? Then if you wish to be in harmony with the rue de la Paix tie yourself to the Jewelry Shop to acquire one of the latest arrivals from the land of French nouveautes. These daggers are of silver with hilt and point richly jeweled with rhinestones. Exclusively at Meier & Frank's. Priced $5. —Main Floor.

China Reverences Precious Jade and makes jewelry which captures the admiration of the world; Paris does more, however, it reproduces jade so perfectly that it is nearly impossible to tell the French composition from the Chinese stone.

New double-length French composition jade necklaces are the best we have seen at $10. Exclusively at Meier & Frank's. —Main Floor.

Ombrelles! Truly Parisian.

Short ones to use with short dresses. Not too slender because the silhouette of the moment is for more bouffancy. Paris considers the umbrella as a frame for its owner and changes its shape and decoration from season to season just as though it were a hat.

Because of the trend to things oriental these newest Paris umbrellas have handles made of the old carved ivory hilts of Samurai swords—and they are wonderfully beautiful. Such things are hardly duplicatable these days. For sport Paris makes doggy umbrellas—often you will see a smartly dressed woman supposedly carrying a dog at her shoulder—but it is an umbrella.

Paris dog umbrellas are $16.50; the Paris ivory sword top umbrellas are $40 to $50.

Paris golf club canes for men are $2.50. —Main Floor.

Reve de Laine

is a new knitted wool which Paris uses in sports skirts. Our representative brought some of the first of them to Portland for you. Already they are the fad of Paris. They are so different. Everybody wears sweater blouses, but who has thought of sweater skirts? They are wonderfully good looking because they fit so well. These knitted white wool sweater skirts are $25; knitted pure white silk sweater skirts are $45.

—Fourth Floor.

Blouses de Paris!

A very reasonably priced group of hand-made models newly opened. Crepe de chine chiefly—in charming cascade and hipline styles at $12.50, $14 and $16. Not often do hand-made silk blouses come for so little as those prices! The Ruffle Peplum Blouse pictured is of orchid crepe with hand feather-stitching in place of hemstitching. The tiny collar is a new Paris idea and the short sleeves, narrow belt and picot ruffles have much charm at $14. The Second Blouse illustrated is one of the many new styles which fasten in the back, this also is hand made and hand embroidered, the deep peplum is accordion pleated. $16. Exclusively at Meier & Frank's. —Fourth Floor.

New Paris veils, gloves, handkerchiefs, stationery and other novelties are to be found in many parts of the store.
