TOLEDO, O .--- The so-called "modern woman," with advanced ideas, was scored by Mgr. T. J. O'Connell, when he addressed the graduating class of St. Ursuia's academy.

"Woman was poser when she was Eve," he said, "and she is a poser when she is Fannie Hurst, more concerned about what she wants than what she is; ready to run in the wake of her traditional betrayers. "We have but to scan, shamefaced-

Salem, Oregon, June 12, 1920. Dr. Wheeler. Wheeler Optical Co., Portland, Oregon. Dear Sir: I had the misfortune to break my glasses and am sending them to you by registered mail to have it replaced. As I am very dependent on them, will you please send them to me at the earliest date together with the amount due, and I will send check by return mail. I am thankful to tell you that I scarcely ever have a headache since you fitted me with these glasses more than a year ago.

ROCKAWAY, Or.; July 10.-(Spe-cial.)-The first Independence day relebration on any Tillamook beach n years was held at Rockaway. An elaborate programme, beginning at 10 o'clock, kept the huge crowd amused until a fate hour at night, and many visitors remained over for a more extended outing. The car of R. B. Rector of Portland, decorated in patriotic streamers and bunting, with little Marcia Rector arrayed as a diminutive goddess of lib-erty in red, white and blue, won first prize in the parade which began the programme. Wide-awake business man to identify himself with a big proposition recently perfected and now in successful operation on a proven paying basis. Article is patented, sells for $1500 to Department Stores, Restaurants, wholesale and retail Bakeries, etc.; also being used in connection with Jarvis Specialty Eat Shops, which are very profitable.

Contract will cover rights to Pacific Coast territory with no limit as to possibilities-this dependent on the amount of capital and energy put into the proposition.

From $10,000 to $25,000 required according to the extent of territory handled.

We can show you Jarvis Specialty Shops in operation that show a profit in excess of $1500 a month on an investment of less than $5000.

In reply state qualifications fully, or better still, come to Chicago and make complete investigation.
