Where Breakers Crash off Tillamook Head.

ONG BEACH, Wash., July 16. (Special.) - Fishing rocks and the promontories along the coast were substituted for mountains last week-end by a party of Mazamas, who made merry around the Driftwood hotel. Hikes and bonfires were supplemented with a surprise party for Miss Alice Stearns in honor of her birthday.

The group staged an old-fashioned ice and masquerade in Driftwood ball and wound up with a midnight supper in the Bluebird confectionery. a cake with candles was provided for Miss Stearns. Mrs. M. E. Libby and Mrs. S. E. Bush chaperoned the party. Other Mazamas at the betel over Sunday and Monday were Gace Campbell, Bertha Watson, Margeerite Colpitta, H. A. Treed, Olga Hallingby, Olive Hallingby, Elsie F. Drack, Margaret Griffin, Louise Vial, Minet G. Sherman, Harry C. Libby Roy W. Ayer, Ethel Freeman of Chicago, Janette MacIntyre of Chicago, Arthur S.
