Neah-Kah-Nie Lures Big Crowds of Vacationists Over July 4.

NEAH-KAH-NIE, Or., July 10.— (Special.)—Two holidays coming to-gether, warm weather in the valley and ocean breezes and sunshine proved a combination which lured pleasure-seekers to the beach in big crowds over July 4. Ferry and auto stages, making the round trips as rapidly as possible, tried to accom-modate the vacationists arriving by Portland trains and beach specials, while private machines in a steady procession arrived with their merry parties from all parts of wester Brisk automobile drives or the smooth sand, driftwood bonfires hikes to Short Sand beach and to the top of Neah-Kah-Nie mountain were a few of the diversions which repaid all who sought this resort for their

Its close proximity to the extensive flats of Tillamook bay where several varieties of delicious clams may be obtained, its crabbing grounds, the jetty from which sea fish can be caught with hook and line and its mearness to the Miami river, famous for its trout fishing, comprise a combination of attractions which are luring great numbers of vacationists this season. The Orchard, favorite camping spot of tenters and auto tourists, is already well filled with tents and is daily the scene of merry campfires and picnics.
