

NEWS of WORLD

AS SEEN BY CAMERA

GENERAL PERSHING was compelled to capitulate to armies of kiddies who overwhelmed him on his recent trip to the Panama canal zone. On board the United States army transport Northern Pacific, formerly on the Flavel-San Francisco run as a coast liner, he was the center of a bevy of happy youngsters.

Miss Fanny Hurst, story writer, who started her friends and awakened the interest of the public with the announcement that she had been for five years the wife of Jacques S. Danielson, pianist and composer, declared that "after a five-year acid test, the dust is still on the butterfly wings of our adventure, the dew is on the rose." They entered into a marriage pact fixing certain rules that have been observed agreeably to both, living separately, maintaining two apartments and having two breakfasts together each week.

Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, recently enjoyed a visit with his parents in Oakland, Cal. His parents live at Salt Lake City, and it is claimed that the elder Dempsey is the only man who ever successfully "licked" Jack.

Considerable property damage was wrought in Los Angeles and vicinity by earthquake shocks June 27. Walls tumbled in some places but there were no fatalities as a result of the tremblers.

J. Bruce Kramer of Butte, Mont., as vice-chairman of the democratic national committee, called the convention to order at San Francisco.

"Tod" Sloan, famous jockey, is spending a honeymoon season at Coronado Beach, Cal. He recently married Betty Saxon Malone, an actress starring with the "Honey Moon Trail" company, after a ten-day courtship. He was divorced by Julia Sanderson, another famous actress, several years ago.

John Larsen, owner of the Larsen all-metal monoplane, in flying from Omaha, Neb., to Pine Valley, N. J., made a new non-stop record for the United States. The flight was made between 4 A. M. and 8:12 P. M. Bert Acosta piloted the plane. The journey to Central Park, L. I., destination of the plane, was made the following day.

During the Yale-Harvard baseball games at Cambridge there were some brilliant plays and thrilling incidents to satisfy the expectations of fans.

While American troops have long guarded the bridges across the Rio Grande, stopping Americans who have no business across the line and preventing the entry of undesirable citizens, thousands of Mexicans have taken refuge on United States soil along the border. Revolution-ridden Mexico held much cause for alarm on the part of citizens for their own safety, owing to the unsettled state of affairs and raiding of bandit bands.

Pershing Now Has Armies Of Kiddies
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

Miss Fanny Hurst And Jacques S. Danielson
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

Jack Dempsey With His Father And Mother.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

Falling Wall Wrecks Auto In Los Angeles Earthquake
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

J. Bruce Kramer,
Of Butte, Montana.
© CHAMBERS STUDIO, CHICAGO - FROM UNDERWOOD.

"Tod" Sloan, Famous Jockey,
Marries Again After Ten Day
Courtship. © UNDERWOOD &
UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

Larsen All-Metal Monoplane Which Made
Flight From Omaha To New York.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

Yale-Harvard Baseball Game - "Out."
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.

Mexican Refugees In huge Plaza.
© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, N. Y.