Mrs. Frank V. DuMond and three children are guests of Mrs. Henry E.

Miss Marguerite Bergh and Raymond Edward Nicholson were married on Wednesday at Trinity Episcopal church. The service was read by Dr. A. A. Morrison at 5 P. M. in the presence of the relatives and a few close friends. The bride's gown was of ivory satin with a train and long veil. A coronet of orange blossoms encir-cled her head and the veil depended in graceful folds.

J. C. Hume of Roseburg, an uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage. Edward Vannette of Hood River was best man. The maid of honor, Miss Gretchen Colton, was attired in blue tulle over white and her hat was a becoming model of georgette. Miss Sue Eastman and Miss Elsie Walker, in make companies.

The Good Work Goes On!

This store is a busy place these days—the remodeling of the front is being rushed so rapidly that we hope to have at least a portion of the new entrance and windows completed by next week. However, this work does not interfere with your comfort and convenience in shopping, for the interior is orderly as usual, and this remodeling is the reason for the host of purse-pleasing reductions that greet the thrifty shopper on every hand. The clearance of all spring-summer stocks is in full swing-get your share of the "bargains" now while range of choice is complete.
