Miss Frances Haseltine until her marriage the latter part of June. Most of the parties for her will be after the beach season closes. Mrs. Krebs attended Oregon Agricultural college for about two years and is popular among the college set.

A wedding of interest to many Portland people was held in Trinity church, New York city, June 26, when Miss Gertrude Wylie of Portland was married to William D. Clark of Stamford, Conn. Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, vicar of Trinity chapel, read the full Episcopal marriage service. The bride wore an Eton suit of white baronette satin, with large white hat trimmed with flowers. She had a corsage bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. She was given away by her aunt, Mrs. Edwin B. Wadsworth, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and attended by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Stamford, Conn.

The bride was at one time a resident of Brooklyn, N. Y., but for the last 14 years had made her home in Portland with her mother, Mrs. Mary G. Wylie, of 365 East Franklin street. Miss Wylie met Mr. Clark in Portland in 1913 while Mr. Clark was stationed at Vancouver barracks on war duty. He is a graduate of Columbia university.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Wadsworth, Miss Lydia Wylie, Mrs. W. S. Wylie, Miss Alice Wylie, Mrs. Louise Stanley, Miss Lillian Stanley, Mrs. Harry Stanley, Miss Ruth Stanley, Mrs. Frank Holmes, Mrs. Frank Bracken, Mrs. William Bracken, Mrs. Emma Conrad and Miss Jessie Conrad, of Brooklyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Stamford, Conn., and Miss Carin H. Degermark, Portland.

Just as the wedding service began a party of eight-seeing Rotarian delegates representing almost every state in the union entered the church and remained during the ceremony. The young people will soon be at home to their many friends in Stamford, Conn., where Mr. Clark is in business.

An engagement of interest in Portland is that of Miss Atlanta Rollfing of Galveston, Tex., to Harold R. Demmon of Portland. The marriage will be in the early part of August in Galveston. The couple will make their home in Portland.

A motor party composed of William T. Foster and family and Miss Florence M. Reed of Reed college left Portland Friday and returning to Mount Rainier. The trip is a fare-well-to-western scenery, the Foster family and Miss Reed leaving for Boston and New York shortly after returning to Portland. Mr. Foster, who resigned as president at Reed last January, will become head of a commission for the investigation of industrial relations and Miss Reed, who has been secretary to the president at Reed for several years, will join the Rockefeller institute. The party will return home Tuesday.

Miss Marjorie Hesseltine entertained the members of Alpha Chi Omega sorority at her home in Vancouver Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guests, the Misses Clara and Mae Beaver of Kansas, who are spending the summer with her.

Thirty Alpha Chis from various chapters motored over and were surprised by the announcement in a novel manner of the engagement of Miss Emma Craft of Chi chapter, Corvallis, to Vinton Robinson. The wedding will take place July 31.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Yeon and family are motoring through the state of Washington, stopping at the principal cities and lakes in the eastern part of the state and crossing the border into Idaho. From there they are directing their course to Selkirk, Rainier Park and other places of interest.

ings was one as delightful as it was unique, when a truck party left Portland at 2 o'clock Saturday and reached Mount Hood lodge, camping there over night and hiking to Cloud Cap Inn the Fourth, coming back through the Hood River valley and stopping at places of interest along the Columbia river highway. A hike of unusual interest through the Oneonta gorge finished the outing. Those taking the trip were Lydia Gitzell, Hilda Gitzell, Henry Gitzell, Glenn Livingston, Marie Wright, Lou Wheeler, Miss Effinger, Miss Hopper, Anna Anderson, Mabel Brathwaite, Hilda Marty, Rose Westbrook, Elna Michaelson, Lucile Lamorden, Martha Lehman, Hattie Glenke, Emily Cereghino, Mary Elsie, Alice Reed, Elizabeth Spooner, Elsie Wible, Ann Beck and Lena Beck, who chaperoned the party.

The hall was handsomely decorated with flowers and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Low were attended at the altar by a grand-daughter and grandson, Miss Vera Howe and Nolan Page, as the vows taken half a century ago were repeated.

Mr. and Mrs. Low were married at Newark, Ill., June 21, 1870. Soon thereafter they came to Oregon and have made their home in Lone, where they have large property interests, for a number of years. Here also reside their only children, Mrs. Laxton McMurray and Mrs. C. H. Howe.

Mr. Low is a native of New York state, was a member of the 123rd regiment of that state in the civil war, in which he served for three years. He is a member of the Grand Army and has been a Master Mason for 52 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Harnack entertained recently with a surprise party for their aunt, Mrs. Henry J. Grimm of Los Angeles, who is visiting them. Charles Harnack, who returned from Canada recently, was another honor guest. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harnack, Mr. and Mrs. H. Peters, Mrs. Thiele and son Ernest, Miss Lena Eiling of Chicago, Miss Ella Grimm of Chicago, Arthur Brackett and others.

Mrs. Henry Ross entertained at luncheon at her home, 1153 Laurelhurst avenue, in honor of her sister, Mrs. A. Benek, visiting her from Newark, N. J. Mrs. Clive Ross, from Boise, Idaho. Those present were: Mrs. J. T. Kannoit and Mrs. D. D. Wendlich.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Solomon celebrated their 25th anniversary at their summer home at Seaside, Or., July 14. The house was a mass of beautiful ferns and roses handsomely decorated. Many beautiful gifts of silver were received from all corners of the globe. At midnight the guests were seated at the table. Many out-of-town guests were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robison of Astoria, Mrs. Beas Friedman and Mrs. B. Kapstein of Portland, Miss Lillian Kapstein of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wolf of Portland, Miss Rose Lindenbaum of Portland.

The annual picnic of the Lyle society was held last Sunday at Peninsula park. An elaborate lunch was served and the afternoon was spent in games and races. The day was enjoyed by all, old and young taking part. The winners of the sports were as follows: Children's race, Eugene Plummer; single women's race, Miss Laverna Spitzberger; married women's race, Mrs. Roy Lyle; men's race, Jess Lantry; women's three-legged race, Miss Laverna Spitzberger and Dolly McNaughton; boys' three-legged race, Eugene and Johnnie Plummer; men's three-legged race, John Dunkin and Joe Bockman.

The society will hold a winter meeting during January or February. Next year's annual picnic will be held the second Sunday in July.

An enjoyable dinner was given in honor of Dr. Albert Bushnell Baker, head of the history department of Harvard university, and John J. Lentz, representative in congress from Ohio, at the Hotel Portland Tuesday evening, the hosts being the officers of the local Moose lodge. Covers were placed for 30 and the dinner was followed by informal speeches by the distinguished visitors, who are governors of the national lodge of Moose.

The annual meeting of the Daniel Lewis clan was held at the home of A. H. Bell, 387 San Rafael street, on Monday, July 12. Mrs. Bell is a daughter of the late Daniel and Rachel Lewis, founders of the clan, who settled at East Mount Tabor July 12, 1872. Sixty members answered roll call and messages of greeting were sent by others unable to be present. Mrs. Fred Davis and family of Centralia, motored over for the occasion. Lauder Lewis is chief of the clan. An interesting programme was given and refreshments were served.

Among the items of interest noted by the family historian, four births were recorded during the year. The residence of J. W. Mills will be the scene of the next social gathering of the Lewis clan.

COMING EVENTS.
Iowa State society will hold its annual picnic Wednesday afternoon and evening at Laurelhurst park. All former Iowans and their friends are invited. Coffee will be served by the society and those attending will take picnic suppers.

Peter A. Porter circle ladies of the G. A. R. will give a 500 party next Wednesday afternoon in Baker hall, Killingsworth and Albion avenues. Attractive prizes will be awarded.

Mrs. Matthew Steele, president of the Sons and Daughters of the Indian War Veterans, has called a meeting at the Central library on Wednesday, July 21, at 2:30 P. M., for the purpose of auditing the bills and closing the year's business. Members are asked to attend.

Mrs. G. J. Kendall and Miss Alice Kendall of St. Louis, have taken the James Malarky house for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall are the parents of Harry Kendall, who with Mrs. Kendall entertained recently for the visitors.

The Past Matrons' club of Corinthian chapter will meet with Mrs. F. H. Shaw, 1220 East Salmon street, Wednesday, July 21.

WEDDINGS.
Moore-Harris.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harris of 514 West Tenth street, Vancouver, have announced the marriage of their daughter Gertrude Louise to Billie Moore, formerly of Bellingham, now of the Standifer Construction company at Vancouver. The marriage took place on June 27 in the presence of the family and a few friends. Miss Eby attended the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside in Vancouver.

Van Wyk-Norris.
A recent wedding was that of Miss Sima Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Norris, to Paul Van Wyk, at the home of the bride's parents, July 7. The rooms were decorated in green and white, with a touch of pink. The bride wore a gown of lace and silver cloth and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, sweet peas and orchids.

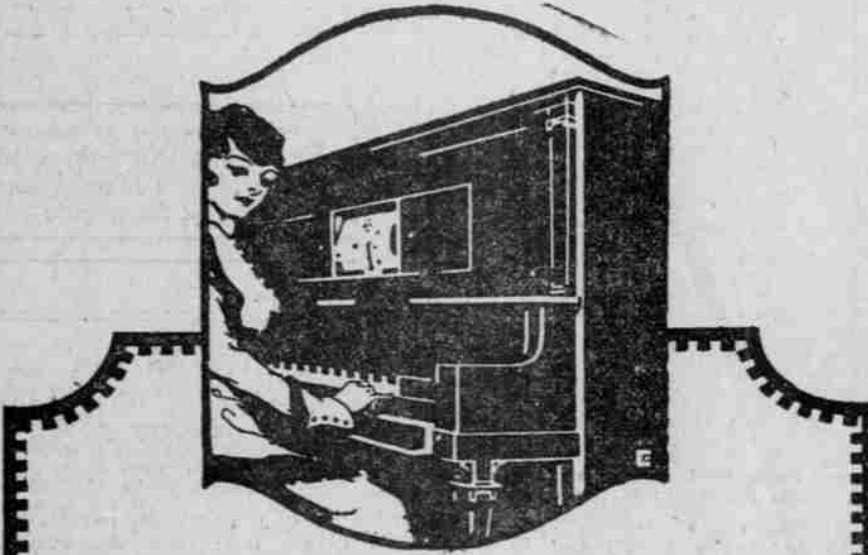

Dr. H. H. Griffiths of the First Christian church read the service. C. R. Hunt was best man. Miss Una Davies was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of pale blue chiffon and georgette, carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Preceding the ceremony a violin quintet of bride's roses, sweet peas and orchids.

Beautiful Women of Society, during the past seventy years have relied upon it for their distinguished appearance. The soft, refined, pearly white complexion it renders instantly, it always is the source of flattering comment.
