Farmer - Labor Candidate Makes Accusation.

HARDING URGED TO ACT

Republican Nominee Told to Enlighten People About Intrigue of Administration.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 24.—Parley P. Christensen, farmer-labor candidate for president, tonight disclosed what he said were "secret relations" between the United States and Poland, whereby many millions of dollars' worth of war material had been delivered to Poland. This material, he said, was delivered to Poland for use against the Russian soviet government, in exchange for long-term Polish notes bearing 6 per cent interest.

The statements were made by Mr. Christensen in a telegram to Senator Harding, republican presidential nominee, calling on him to "employ your powerful position to acquaint the country with the immensely grave possibilities to America of a continuation of the administration's Polish-Russian policy."

He was encouraged to make the request, he said, by a statement recently printed in a New York newspaper, quoting the senator as saying "it is no business of ours what form of government the Russian people choose."

Loans Held Concealed.

The telegram in part follows: "You are undoubtedly aware that the administration has concealed from the people the facts of the immense financial loans to Poland and knowledge of its delivery of huge war stores to the Polish armies. If you are not, I can inform you that the war department has provided the armies carrying on an offensive warfare against Russia with 4600 freight cars, 2,500,000 pounds of canned beef, 5,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine and $32,000,000 worth of miscellaneous equipment. The navy department has likewise delivered to Poland large quantities of materials for use in the Polish attack on Russia. Insolent refusal by Secretary Daniels to divulge a word or fact have greeted requests for information as to these transactions."

American Aid Sought.

"The Polish legation in Washington had audaciously demanded a statement of American moral support on the Polish position and the extension of further credits is imminent, according to the dispatches. In the event of a general European imperialist alliance behind Poland and against the Russian government this republic, involved as it already is and more deeply involved as the administration obviously intends it to be in the fate of the Polish imperialist adventure, must needs face the question of transporting America's armaments to be slaughtered in a merciless and insane eastern European conflict. "If you mean what you said about the right of the Russian people to choose their own government, I would ask you to exert your public influence as I will exert mine, to compel the administration to reveal the full extent of its financial relations with the government of Poland and to reply to that government's demand for an expression of American moral support with a statement inviting Poles and all other belligerents asking our sympathy to return to their proper boundaries and calling upon them to restore at once the peace of Europe."

DANIELS DENIES CHARGES

Secretary Says No War Material Was Sold to Poland.

YAKIMA, Wash., July 24.—Emphatic denial of charges by Parley P. Christensen, candidate for president on the farmer-labor ticket, that the navy department has delivered to Poland large quantities of materials for use in the Polish attack on Russia was made here tonight by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who is visiting in Yakima.

In answer to the charge by Mr. Christensen that the secretary of the navy had "insolently refused to divulge a word or fact in response to requests for information" as to the transactions, Secretary Daniels said: "I have received no such requests. Had I received them, they should have been granted. The department of the navy has sold quantities of clothing to Poland, but it was not war material, and the sales were made before Russia and Poland had any trouble between themselves."

GIRL, 12, LEAVES HOME

"I'll Come Back When I'm 18 Years Old," Says Note for Mother. "I'll come home when I'm 18 years old."

This was the brief note left by 12-year-old Martha Collins to her mother, Mrs. M. C. Collins, when she left home yesterday morning without the knowledge of the family. Mrs. Collins yesterday asked the police to assist in locating the child. The family lives at 54 1/2 Williams avenue.

The Collins family came to Portland from Colorado less than two weeks ago, and it is believed that the girl became homesick for her girl friends. She took a small sum of money with her. She is 5 feet 4 inches tall, has brown eyes, very black hair and was wearing a plaid gingham dress and big brown hat.

Police officers discovered late last night that the girl had secured a ticket and boarded a train for Elk City, Kan. Effort will be made to have her intercepted at Pendleton.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY PLANS FOR FOUR BIG DAYS.

Demand for Exhibit Space Greater Than Ever Before—Races Every Afternoon.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 24.—(Special.)—"From present indications," states David Long, secretary of the Clackamas county fair association, "there has never been a greater demand for space in the big pavilion for exhibits than for the coming fair, which will be held September 20, 21, 22 and 23."

There are more prizes offered for poultry this year than any year heretofore and already five trophy cups have been donated to be awarded in this department.

The livestock department is to be one of the big attractions this year. Among those to enter pure-blooded stock will be Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, who will show Guernseys from Red Wing farm at Redland, Clackamas county. Following the Clackamas county fair they will take their stock to the state fair.

Enslay Gribble is superintendent of the livestock department. Andrew Koehler is superintendent of the poultry department and Ben F. Keeny will be judge.

A. C. Newell will be superintendent of the horticultural department. Edythe Tozier Weathered, who had charge of the Oswego grange exhibit last year, has been engaged as superintendent of grange exhibits this year. Among the granges that have signified intention of exhibiting this year is the Oswego grange.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, a fact which has led to the development of a new product, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.—Adv.
