Oregon's representation of 18 crack riflemen, selected in open competition from Oregon national guard troops, will leave tomorrow at 10 A. M. to compete in the national matches to be held at Camp Perry, Ohio, beginning August 1. Eight officers and ten enlisted men, representing the high point winners in the state rifle matches held July 9-15, compose the Oregon contingent.

The party will be routed directly through to Camp Perry in a special sleeper, according to A. C. Martin, assistant general passenger agent for the O. W. R. & N. company. The entire time scheduled for the trip is 32 days. Transportation has been provided for the officers and commutation of rail fares at the rate of $1.00 a day for the men.

ALBANY IS DISAPPOINTED

Census Total Held Far Short of City's Actual Population.

ALBANY, Or., July 24.—(Special.)—While census reports giving Albany's population as 1849 were received here with disappointment, it was realized that the figures would be low compared with the actual population. Albany failed to make the systematic effort made by several valley cities to assure a complete enumeration.

Albany suffered in the returns in comparison with other cities because of its restricted city limits. Many people reside in additions and suburbs which really are parts of the city, but without the city limits. Accepting the census figures as correct for the territory within the city limits, the population, including these additions, would be between 7000 and 7500. The last school census, always compiled more thoroughly than a government census, bears out this estimate for the city's population.

REMARKS HIS OWN VIEWS

Dairyman Denies That He Had Any Inside Information.

"I was speaking only for myself when I said that the Nestlé Food Products company, Swift & Co. and other big condensers were willing to back financially dairymen who would break with the Oregon Dairy men's league," said Harry West, one of the owners of the Red Rock dairy at Tigard yesterday. Mr. West made his original statement Wednesday night at a meeting at Tigard. "My remarks may have given the impression that I had some inside information as to the stand these companies would take. As a matter of fact I have had no conference with their representatives. Simply my own common-sense view of the situation led me to draw such a conclusion."

WAGE COMPACT EXTENDED

Wireless Operators of Shipping Board May Get Lift.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Extension for 90 days of the wage agreement between wireless operators and the shipping board, which expires August 1, was agreed upon today at a conference of a committee from the United Radio Telegraphers' association and Chairman Benson. The chairman refused the operators' demands for pay increases of from $50 to $75 a month and an eight-hour day, but told them he favored some pay increase. It was agreed that a system of graded licenses for the operators based on their years of service should be worked out.

State Fish Law Violated.

REND, Or., July 24.—(Special.)—Trout which have died of spear wounds inflicted in violation of the state law strayed the shores of Three Creeks lake, 40 miles from here, District Game Warden McDonald reported today. Beginning a campaign for law enforcement in that section, McDonald arrested Prentiss Vantassel, Sisters rancher, who entered a plea of guilty to justice court last night and paid a fine of $40, with costs. Vantassel admitted possession of a fish spear and the intention to violate the law, but had been unable to find trout that tempted him, he said.

Motorist Fined $50.

Because he passed a Mount Scott streetcar which was discharging passengers at First and Madison streets, Fred Jobb pleaded guilty to a violation of the traffic ordinance and was fined $50 by Judge Rossman in municipal court yesterday. He paid the fine. Speeders who were arrested and fined yesterday were: M. F. Brenner, $25; L. M. Shore, $7.50; S. W. West, $10; G. B. Steiger, $15; Roy Goodman, $7.50.

State Pays $27,264,123 Taxes.

STEEL TO COME BY CANAL

FIRM BUILDING 7 TANKERS WILL NOT USE RAILS.

Keels for Three Vessels Laid; Shortage of Material Delays Work at Northwest Bridge Co.'s Yard.

The Northwest Bridge & Iron company, building a fleet of seven 12,000-ton tankers, will save time and money by having steel for the big vessels brought to Portland by water and unloaded right at the plant, it was learned yesterday through arrangements made with the Port of Portland for dredging before the Northwest Bridge & Iron company's plant. The steel has been purchased from the United States Steel Products company and will be brought here from the east in vessels of the Isthmian line, which is owned by the steel company. Ward C. Bowles, one of the partners in the Northwest Bridge & Iron company, said last night that his company expects to secure quicker delivery of the steel by having it brought around through the canal instead of trying to route it through the present railroad tangle. Work at the shipyard is now being delayed by a shortage of steel, though keels for three of the tankers have been laid. Dredging before the shipbuilding plant and also before the Portland Lumber company's mill will be performed by the dredge Tualatin, now working before the Inman-Poulsen mill. The dredge Willamette will finish work at the Peninsula Lumber company's new mill site Monday and will relieve the Tualatin on the Inman-Poulsen cut.

MAN, 60, HIT BY AUTO

Unidentified Victim of Car Driven by Woman Near Death.

An unidentified man about 60 years old was seriously injured at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile driven by Miss Loretta Isackson, 1913 East Irving street, at Sixth and Washington streets. The man stepped from the sidewalk into the street before the woman driver could bring her machine to a halt. The man was believed to have a fractured skull. He was first taken to the police emergency hospital and then to St. Vincent's hospital. There was nothing about his person to indicate who he might be except for the initials "S. D." sewed to his coat.

Geologist Goes South.

EUGENE, Or., July 24.—(Special.)—Hubert Schenck, assistant in the department of geology at the University of Oregon this year, left last night for San Francisco, where he will meet Dr. Warren D. Smith, head of this department, who has accepted the position of chief of the bureau of mines for the Philippines government. Both will do some government geological work in the Hawaiian Islands before going to Manila. Mr. Schenck will visit a brother in Tokyo, Japan, and later will visit in Hongkong, China.

Destroyer and Solons Back.

The destroyer Waters, which ran into Portland two weeks ago to pick up naval reserves for their summer cruise, returned yesterday and docked at the Supple-Ballin dock at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Lieutenant-Commander C. E. Rosendahl, who commands the Waters, said that the Portland reservists made a fine showing on the cruise. The destroyer will be open to visitors from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. today and from 1 to 5 P. M. Monday.
