Yesterday's Results.
At Portland, 1, San Francisco 7.
At Seattle, 7, Los Angeles, 11 innings.
At San Francisco, Oakland 7, Sacramento 8.
At Los Angeles, Salt Lake 2, Vernon 1.
Sam Lewis, the erstwhile spiculator, who couldn't get in shape for Walter McCredie last season, showed at the Beavers' expense yesterday that he is in shape this year. San Francisco is in shape this year. Lewis held Portland to four scattered bingles and but for the sixth and seventh innings, when he suffered a temporary relapse, worked like a big leaguer. Sam Ross twirled for the "home guards" and was nicked for 12 hits.
The Beavers' lone tally was registered in the sixth frame, and it was Lewis who presented us with the run, in atonement probably for the lacing he was handing Ross Walter's bingles. In this sextet count Samuel walked three little Beavers in a row.
Lewis Makes One-Run Gift.
To get back to the start of the inning, Art Koehler, the George Steller of the day for the Beavers, started the proceedings by unlimbering himself on the pellet for a double to left field. Sam Ross batted out, Koehler taking third. Patrick Siglin struck out, and then Lewis walked the three in sequence, forcing in Koehler. It was a thrills and painless run unless the fourth ball called on Blue, the third of the three that drove a base gave the fans and fanettes a trickle of excitement.
For the first time in some weeks Portland had something like its regular lineup in the game, Wes Kingdon being the only steady player that was not in the fray. Some fan hollered "Bring on the substitutes." Tex Wistler found his arm kind of rusty after his enforced lay-off of several days, and his peg was high to first at times, while Young Spranger and Lindsay Siglin, butters, singled to right and left, respectively, the ball on several occasions.
Seals Unlimber in Fifth.
The seals started lighting on Ross in the fifth inning, when they scored one run and opened up with a broadside in the stanza, when they hammered out four hits, which were good for three runs.
Walter led off in the sixth inning with a two-bagger to right. Fitzgerald aid beat out a bunt down the third base line. O'Connell rammed out a single to right, scoring Walter. Walsh sacrificed, Wistler to Blue, Fitzgerald reaching third and O'Connell drawing up on second. Caveney singled to left, Fitzgerald racing safe across the rubber. Kamm struck out and Caveney darted down toward second. After that, Lewis singled to left, and fourth several times. Blue made a bad throw to Siglin, or Siglin made a bad try for the ball. At racing safe missed it and in the meantime O'Connell was safe at home and Caveney was safe at second. Yelle batted out, ending the inning.
Third Barrage in Ninth.
Another barrage on Ross in the ninth to the tune of four hits and three runs batted in. Fitzgerald led off with a single. Kamm batted out. Yelle beat out a hit to Wistler and went on to second when Tex overthrew first yard. Lewis singled to left, scoring Yelle. Schick singled back of third, Lewis reaching the torrid corner safe. Walter flew out to Mausel and Lewis tallied after the catch. Fitzgerald doubled to right, bringing in Schick. O'Connell fouled out to Koehler, and the game was over.
Connolly, San Francisco left fielder, was put out of the game in the fourth inning after a dispute with Umpire "Lord" Byron over balls and strikes.
A double-header will be played this afternoon, the first game starting at 1:30 o'clock.

BETROTHAL OF NORMAN ROSS IS FEATURED WITH ROMANCE

World-Famous Swimmer Engaged to Honolulu Maiden and Member of Old Hawaiian Family, Whom He Taught Low, Easy Swimming Stroke.

Miss Beatrice Pe-aikalani Dowsett, fiancee of Norman Ross.

HONOLULU, T. H., July 31.—(Special.)—Cards announcing the engagement of Norman Ross to Beatrice Pe-aikalani Dowsett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cartwright Dowsett of Honolulu, have been received from Palo Alto, Cal., where the young woman is attending school. Norman Ross is the world middle distance swimming champion. He is at present a member of the Illinois Athletic club of Chicago, but hailed originally from the Multnomah club of Portland. He recently qualified in the trials for the American swimming team that will journey to Antwerp for the aquatic events there next month.

Romance Surrounds Couple.

Quite a romance surrounds Ross and Miss Dowsett. She is an small and slim as he is tall and husky. She is fair-haired, of exceedingly light complexion and weighs perhaps 100 pounds. She is quite a contrast to the big powerful swimming champion who, well earned the title of "Big Moose." Miss Dowsett comes of an old Hawaiian family, her father being a rancher on the island of Hawaii. She made a name for herself in the island swimming world as a middle distance swimmer. And for that Ross is to be blamed, for when he came here first five years ago he taught Miss Dowsett to swim, that long, easy, slow stroke of his that has made him middle distance champion. So well she learned the peculiarities of that stroke that swimming fans have commented on the similarity. When Ross came here on his way to Australia last year it was generally rumored that the engagement announcement might be expected soon. The Rosses are now in Honolulu, and Mrs. Dowsett and her two daughters, Beatrice and Marion "Babe" Dowsett, went to the coast, the two girls attending school at Palo Alto. It is to be mentioned that Ross did all his pre-Olympic training on the coast at the Stanford tank.

Ross to Live on Island.

It is understood that Ross intends to come and reside on the island after his honeymoon and he may live on the Dowsett ranch on a middle distance swimmer. In that event it is believed he will resign from the Illinois Athletic club to become affiliated with one of the island organizations. Ross holds more world records than any other living swimmer. During the war he served as a flight lieutenant in the army. After the war he went to the United States and mainly through his individual efforts the United States captured the majority of the swimming events. In his tour of Australia he was defeated but once in more than a score of races and broke 15 Australian records and four world records while there. The wedding is not expected to take place until Ross returns from the Olympic games in Antwerp. It is understood that Ross will not take part in the European tour, providing the American team is successful, as it no doubt will be, but will return to the United States immediately following the completion of the aquatic events.

Angels Drop Iced Game Because of Bating Rallies.

SEATTLE, July 31.—Two batting rallies carried the game into 11 innings, gave Seattle a 7-to-6 win over Los Angeles today, after the Angels had apparently won the contest in the ninth.

SENATOR HAD PROTEST

Acorn Win Rolls Sacramento Pilot. Who Calls Pitcher.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Oakland defeated Sacramento, 7 to 3, through the senators' inability to hit with men on base. In the sixth and seventh innings, the visitors filled the bases, but were unable to score. Rogers, manager of the Sacramento club, protested the game, claiming Koehling pitched illegally on account of not being in the box when he made a delivery. The score: Sacramento 7, Oakland 3.
