the past few years. Dr. Young formerly was pastor of First and of Grace Methodist churches of Portland.

Among recent weddings was that of Miss Frances Louise Young and Frederick D. Henry, which took place July 17 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oglethorpe Young, Rev. L. K. Grimes officiating. Only relatives and a few of the bride's friends were present. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of pink roses and trailing clematis.

Dr. W. O. Henry of Waskada, Canada, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and Miss Florence Gordon was maid of honor. The wedding march was played by Miss Cecil McKeen. Seated at the refreshment table were Mrs. William Calvin Hamock and Mrs. Sidney H. Bennett and assisting them in serving were a bevy of pretty girls.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Inez Fairchild. Mr. and Mrs. Henry are making their home in Pendleton, Or.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
HOOD RIVER, Or., July 31.—Evening picnic parties and gypsy teas seem the appealing form of local entertaining and recreation for the warm summer season. The Columbia beaches and cool retreats of nearby forests attract pleasure parties. The following parties participated in a gypsy tea near Sonny: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Poland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. McNary, Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Miss Elida Jackson and Corbett Alexander. Mrs. Anderson is here from Fort Lee, Va., where her husband, Captain Anderson, is stationed, visiting Mrs. Earl Frank, her sister.

In honor of the birthday of Mrs. E. H. Niemeyer, 180 Laurelhurst avenue, a supper was given Sunday as a surprise. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Duvall, Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Niemeyer, and the Misses Edith Duvall, Gladys Duvall and Louise Niemeyer.

Mrs. A. F. Nemiro of Chicago and Mrs. D. Nemirosky have returned to Portland after a two-weeks' stay at Seaside. Mrs. Nemirosky was the house guest of Mrs. D. A. Pepp and the incentive for several social events. Friday Mrs. Pepp entertained with a bridge tea at the Ann Davenport tea house for Mrs. Nemiro.

Mrs. Nemiro was honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Sam Nemiro at the Seaside hotel. Covers being laid for seven. Mrs. Mischa Peis was hostess for a dinner party for Mrs. Nemiro at the Hotel Seaside when eight friends enjoyed her hospitality.

Mrs. Joe Kurka of 378 East Forty-first street entertained at tea Tuesday in honor of Mrs. W. A. Meletio and son of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. William Armstrong of Fayette, Mo., and Mrs. Mumma of Roslyn, Wash.

COMING EVENTS.
The presidents' association of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet Tuesday at 2 P. M. in Wall's hall, on Lexington avenue.

The auxiliary to Over the Top post, Veteran of Foreign Wars, will hold a meeting Monday evening in room 525 courthouse. All members are urged to be present.

Peter A. Porter circle, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will give a "500" party Thursday evening in the home of John W. Welch, 157 Farragut street (Kenton car). All who are interested may attend.

Peter A. Porter circle, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will hold their regular card party Wednesday afternoon at Baker's hall, Killingsworth and Albina avenues.

WEDDINGS.

Baker, O., July 31.—(Special).—The wedding of Miss Frances Gardiner, one of the leaders in Baker's social set, and Dr. Wilbur W. Hiseley of Hermiston took place at the home of the bride's parents in Baker on Wednesday evening.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardiner and is prominent socially and in church circles. She attended the Oregon Agricultural college, where she was a member of Beta Tau Beta, later established as Gamma Phi Beta. She also graduated from the state normal school at Monmouth. Since then she has been a very successful teacher in the Baker and Hermiston schools.

Dr. Hiseley is a graduate of the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons of Los Angeles and was stationed at the base hospital at Camp Lewis during the war. At present he is a practicing physician at Hermiston.

The bride, who is an attractive brunette, was lovely in a gown of ivory satin and georgette, trimmed with real lace. Her veil was arranged in a becoming cap effect, adorned with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Following Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," which was played by Mrs. Norvin Coulty, the ring service was performed by Rev. E. T. Starkey of the Calvary Baptist church. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present.

Freeding the ceremony Mrs. E. Romig of Kallispel, Mont., and Miss Estel A. Guerber of Portland sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Helen Dougherty of Baker.

The Gardiner home was artistically decorated in amilax and roses.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Pink and white prevailed in the dining room decorations. Miss Helen Gardiner, sister of the bride, and Miss Anna Gyllenberg assisted in serving.

Dr. and Mrs. Hiseley left on the night train for Denver, where Dr. Hiseley will take a post graduate course. They will later return to Hermiston, where they will take up their residence.

Eddy-Palm.

The marriage of Benjamin L. Eddy, son of Senator and Mrs. Eddy of Roseburg, and Miss Gladys Palm, was held July 21 at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Bowman officiating. Miss Wanda Paulbach, Miss Dorothy Eddy and Miss Ruth Zanders attended the bride. Jean Louise Etchebel was the dainty flower girl. A. R. Fairbanks was best man. The ushers were Robert Masters and Martin Paulbach. Katherine Vigors played and Ruth Zanders sang. The couple went to Newport for their honeymoon. They will reside in Portland where Mr. Eddy is a city engineer. The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin, shadowed in georgette. She wore a veil and carried a shower of roses and sweet peas. The attendants wore pale yellow, green and pink and carried sweet peas and pond lilies. Mr. and Mrs. Eddy will have an attractive home at Rose City Park. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Palm. She was feted at several showers and teas before her marriage.

McHale-Pollard.

A beautiful marriage ceremony of July 25 was that of Miss Mabel Pollard and Frank J. McHale, solemnized at St. Patrick's church, Rev. Father Smith officiating. Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held and a supper served. The bride was gowned in white and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Goldie Pitcher, also wore white. Oren Car-
