Cottage Grove Man Catches Bob Cat Bared-handed.

Thrilling Exploit is Enacted by Frank McFarland While on a Fishing Jaunt Along Sharps Creek.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Aug. 7.—(Special).—Thrilling exploits and hair-breadth adventures aren't all enacted before movie cameras in carefully staged settings, for Frank McFarland enacted one that isn't in the book this week, when he captured a half-grown bobcat bared-handed after the animal had broken loose from his shepherd dog and obtained a good start up a tree.

Mr. McFarland was humming along the Sharps creek road in his automobile bent on a few hours' trout fishing along the upper stretches of the stream, when his wife spied something making its way through the underbrush.

The CHENEY Tone, Quality—and Technique

A virtuoso could scarcely display his art with an ordinary violin or piano. Perfect technique alone does not make a master. So with pronograph records. It is easy to play them—but the Cheney, like a Stradivarius violin, gives renditions new beauty. Its rich, majestic tones are unrivalled. Acoustic principles, never applied before to phonographs, have set The Cheney unquestionably in a class apart.

The Cheney costs no more than ordinary Phonographs. Priced $125, $150, $250, $290 and Up. G. F. JOHNSON PIANO Co. 147-149 Sixth Street—Portland
