A charming wedding of the past week was that of Miss Mary Swails and Harold F. Hanks, solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Swails, at 2:30 P. M. Sunday. The bride was beautifully gowned in a wedding dress of white crepe meteor and veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and orchids. Miss Hazel Wieden was maid of honor and was attired in a dainty gown of royal blue organza and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Miss D. Felt attended as best man and Miss Eileen Sprague played the wedding march. Miss Dorothy Hanks, Miss Ruby Marwin and Miss Eileen Sprague assisted at the reception. After their honeymoon the young couple expect to reside in Portland.

An event of interest was the wedding of Virginia Lee Nottingham and William H. Burton, which took place on Wednesday evening, August 4, at the home of the bride's mother on Hancock street. The bride, wearing a girlish frock of embroidered white net over satin, was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Nottingham, and dainty Frances Gernsey, who was flower girl. Rev. F. T. Bowen of St. Michael's church read the service in the presence of immediate relatives and a few close friends.

After an extended stay in Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Burton will be at home in Pullman, Wash., where the former is a member of the faculty of Washington State college.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Richards gave a dinner last Sunday for Judge Will R. King of Washington, D. C., at their Fairmont home on St. Helens boulevard. Judge King and Mrs. Richards were both delegates to the recent convention in San Francisco.

One of the interesting features of the week was a picnic supper, complementing Mrs. Bessie M. Richards at Laurelhurst park Saturday last at 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Richards gave an interesting resume of her work as delegate at the democratic national convention, speaking of the constructive work by the democratic women of the nation. She was the only person from Oregon who was recognized by the chair and had the honor to second the nomination of Franklin D. Roosevelt as vice-president of the United States and concluded her remarks by referring to Mr. Roosevelt as a "real man."

Mrs. Richards was selected by delegates from all over the United States who were instructed to vote for William Gibbs McAdoo as chief speaker from Oregon. Several social functions were held by prominent democrats, at one of these Mrs. Richards was guest of honor at a luncheon held by supporters of John W. Davis, ambassador to Great Britain, and a luncheon by Mrs. Percy Magill at the Palace.

Grazer-Farmer. SILVERTON, Or., Aug. 7.—(Special.)—A marriage ceremony of July 31 was that of Miss Edna Mildred Farmer, formerly of Portland, and Guy Richard Grazer, which was solemnized at a nuptial high mass at St. Paul's Catholic church, Rev. Father Scherbring officiating. Mrs. John Howard McCullough, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mr. McCullough acted as best man. Mendelstein's wedding march was played by Miss Marie Hyatt.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nellie Farmer Endner of Portland. She is a former student of Mt. Angel academy and also St. Mary's academy of Portland.

Mr. Grazer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grazer of this city. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McCullough. The dining room was daintily decorated for the occasion, sweet peas and maidenhair fern being the principal decoration. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Grazer will make their home in this city.
