It is likely that he will eventually resign his pastorate here and return to England, which is the center of this movement. Rev. Mr. Sawyer addressed the Portsmouth brotherhood on July 4 and in response to an unanimous request from his audience gave a patriotic address suitable for an American audience on the Fourth of July, which they cheered loud and long.

Rev. Mr. Sawyer's daughter, Miss Jessle Lynne Sawyer, accompanied her father on the trip to England and she was in constant demand at social functions and musicales on account of her beautiful voice. She sang at several sessions of the congress as well as at concerts on the steamers.

She was chosen to present a magnificent bouquet to Princess Alice and she quite won the heart of the mayor of London by telling him with typical frankness of the American girl, that she liked his red coat very much. Miss Sawyer was the recipient of many gifts, including a beautiful lavalliere and a bracelet of interesting history and workmanship.
