ELKS NAME C. SCOTT begun among various national Olympic committees to abolish the marathon race as the feature of future Olympiads. It is claimed this race is not humane, and a petition to this effect will be presented to the international committee tonight. Sponsors for the movement would substitute a 25,000 meter (about 15 miles) race. Arrangements have been completed for the marathon classic temorrow. Members of the Beiglan Olympic com-

Six Men in Marathon.

Six Men in Marathon.

Six American runners and an immense field of athletes of other nations are entered in the marathon tomorrow. The Americans are Arthur V. Ross of Dorchester, Mass.; Carl W. A. Linder, Quiney, Mass.; J. L. Organ, Pittsburg, Pa.; Charles L. Mellor, Logan Square Athletic club, Chicago; Frank Zuna, Newark, N. J., and J. P. Weber, Pittsburg.

The other nations represented are England, South Africa, Holland, Canada, Italy, Chile, Denmark, Czecho-Slovakia, Finland, Sweden, India and Belgium.

A determined movement has been for the marathon classic temorrow. Members of the Beigian Olympic committee sought to secure a change in the rules so as to permit runners to obtain refreshments, such as light soup, but the committee has ruled that the men will be permitted to receive only water. The route will be guarded by Beigian soldiers.

The American team, consisting of H. H. Brown. Boston A. A.; Ivan C. Dresser, New York A. C.; A. A. Schardt, Chicago A. A.; Michael A. Devanney. Millrose A. A., and M. L. Shields.
