Miss Alice Temple of Lexington, Neb., visiting in Portland.

Miss Irene Campbell, who have been visiting in Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. and Seattle, Wash., returned to their home in Portland this week.

Flowers and messages of congratulation are finding their way to Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Carlstrom (Florence Hoesch) of Oak Point, Wash., upon the arrival of a baby daughter, who will be known as Pauline Sophia. The little girl arrived on Sunday, August 18.

Harold Hurlburt, accompanied by Mrs. Hurlburt and baby, sailed August 13 from New York for Europe. Mr. Hurlburt recently presented in New York a vocal course based on a book he wrote in this city which was endorsed by music critics and grand opera singers. He intends to present this course in Paris, Milan and other music centers. The Hurlburts will pass several months in Italy. Miss Annie Blanche Shelby, who has been spending the summer in Victoria, B. C., is planning to return in time to be present in Albany, September 6, at the sacerdotal silver jubilee and investiture as premonitory apostolic ad instar of her cousin, Rev. Arthur Lane.

son, Harold E. Reed, while there and will return to Portland about September 10.

Miss Helen Louise Lamar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Walter Lamar, and Mrs. Francis Berkey were married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Fourth Presbyterian church. The church was artistically decorated with autumn leaves, golden red and golden glow. Sylvester Wilhelm sang "Until" and Miss Alice Johnson played the wedding march.

The bride was attractive in a gown of white crepe satin with pearl trimming. Her veil of net was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and white sweet peas. Miss Helen Von Cleft was maid of honor and the Misses Elizabeth Weir, of Portland, and Mildred Rose Conn, of Butte, Mont., were bridesmaids. They wore pink net over white silk and carried pink asters. Little Dahlia Lamar was ring bearer and Jean Lamar was flower girl. Edward Humphrey of Corvallis was best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Paul Lamar, Esther Rodman and Margaret Kubli.

After a trip to the beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Berkey will make their home in Portland.

Miss Esther Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Merrill of Portland, and Sheldon R. Coons were married Wednesday afternoon. Their wedding was a surprise to their many friends. Mrs. Coons is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall. Mr. Coons, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Coons of Wilkesbarre, Pa., was in Portland a year ago as an advertising manager. After a trip through California and the east Mr. and Mrs. Coons will make their home in New York City.

Mrs. Lawrence A. Lambert and two children, who have been spending the summer in Calgary, Canada, the guests of Mrs. Lambert's mother, Mrs.

Maxwell Bliton, have returned to Portland. They were joined at Vancouver by Mr. Lambert and the family passed some time at English Bay, Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Robert D. Inman and daughter Alta are spending a few weeks at the St. Francis hotel, San Francisco, before leaving for New York, where Miss Alta will resume her studies.

Miss Katherine S. Arnold, a former Portland girl, is the house guest of Mrs. H. H. Northrup. She is a graduate of Mount Holyoke and has been a member of the faculty for several years at Downer college, Milwaukee, Wis.

She has been the inspiration for much informal entertaining during her visit here. Mrs. Northrup was hostess for a tea in her honor on Tuesday afternoon. About 60 of Miss Arnold's friends called during the afternoon. Mrs. Will Northrup and Mrs. Harry Northrup presided at the tea table. Miss Arnold probably will leave Portland the last of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Stanton of Morenci, Ariz., are spending a few weeks with Dr. Stanton's mother, Mrs. John W. Stanton.

Harry E. Morton of Shanghai, China, Mrs. Charles A. Radell and Mrs. George H. Bechill were hostesses at luncheon on Tuesday at Mrs. Radell's home, 1138 Taggart street.

Mrs. Morton will be here for some time visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Free. A number of delightful affairs are being given in her honor. Mrs. Seitz has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dant. She left for California Wednesday and will sail for China soon.

Dr. and Mrs. Sanford Whiting, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Webster and Mrs. B. L. Gates of Seattle, left the first of the week for New York, contemplating sailing on the Imperator for Europe September 9. While away Dr. Whiting will attend surgical clinics in the east and Europe.

Mrs. John Claure Monteith, who is spending the summer in southern California with her parents, will return to Portland early in September, at which time she and Mr. Monteith will make a short motor trip to the sound cities.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Sigrid Elizabeth Olsen of Providence, R. I. to Pierre M. Baldwin of Portland.

Miss Lucile M. Broderick has returned to Portland after a year's visit in the east.

Mrs. Harry King Smith (Ida Ramsey) left last week for Plymouth, N. H., where she will join her husband. She will stop for a short visit with relatives in Wichita, Kan. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Aline Davis, who will make her home with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Crissel have returned to Portland after a month's trip to New York and other eastern cities.

Miss Margaret Williamson, daughter of J. A. Williamson, has left for California to visit friends and relatives in Los Angeles, San Bernardino and San Diego.

Mrs. Eugene Anderson and her two daughters of Kankakee, Ill., are the guests of Mrs. Anderson's sister, Mrs. J. S. Hammack. They are now at Gearhart for a two weeks' visit.

The Misses Madeleine and Gladys Barretto have returned from a trip to Seattle, Victoria and the San Juan islands. A number of teas and luncheons were given in their honor while they were on their trip. Mrs. Frank L. Maynard and Mrs. J. T. Quigley entertained with a farewell dancing party at Mrs. Quigley's home at Seaside, near Seattle, in their honor.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Freed upon the birth of a son, born Wednesday afternoon. He will be named Frederick A. Freed. Mrs. Freed will be remembered as Miss Elise Oberdorfer.

Mrs. Max Friedenthal and her two daughters, the Misses Hanita and Maxine Friedenthal, will leave shortly for California, where they will spend the winter. They will be at home to their friends this afternoon and evening.

Your Player Piano: Be Fair to It

Your Player-Piano should give you joy for a lifetime. Be fair to it, therefore, at the very outset.

Give it a chance to have good materials and good workmanship built into it at the factory. Give it a chance to start life as a thoroughbred. Give it the right to be backed by a sterling guarantee.

Under present conditions, a Player-Piano cannot be had under $695 and receive the usual Sherman, Clay & Co. guarantee.

But a very satisfactory instrument can be had for $695. Others, $725 and $785 and up. Not "bargains," these companions of your lifetime, but worthy instruments, reliably guaranteed. Each one is a sound investment, and not a hazardous speculation.

Convenient payment terms gladly arranged.
