NO PROOF IS SUBMITTED

Democratic Candidate Raps Harding Again in Usual Characteristic Harangue.

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 18.—Sugar profiteers were arraigned here tonight by Governor Cox, who said that he reviewed the public value of milk goats and their products. The demand for goat milk here is increasing, it was explained yesterday, and will probably increase when the public learns the real merits of goat milk.

LABOR BODY TO MEET

DELEGATES FROM ALL OVER STATE ARRIVING. Pendleton Unionists Plan Entertainment for Hundreds of Visitors.

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Delegates from labor councils in all parts of the state arrived in Pendleton today to attend the Oregon State Federation of Labor convention which will open tomorrow and last until Thursday evening.

Over 50 delegates arrived today and each incoming train brings more. Sundry McLean, secretary of the local labor council, expects over 200 representatives to be here by tomorrow noon.

Among the officers of the state federation who arrived in Pendleton today were Otto Hartwig, president, and W. E. Kimsey, secretary.

Entertainment for the delegates has been planned by the local council, consisting of a banquet tomorrow night, a sightseeing tour of the city and immediate vicinity Tuesday and a dance Thursday evening.

Most of the delegates intend to remain over for the Round-up. Many important measures are to be taken up by the convention, according to McLean, one of the matters to be discussed being the closing of schools on labor day.

Schools have never closed on this day and efforts are being made to have the legislature make it a law that schools close then.

Federal prohibition enforcement officers will be tried in federal court on charges of manslaughter in connection with the death of Ernest E. Emley, United States District Judge, P. H. Rudkin decided today. He denied a petition to remand the case back to the superior court of Perry county, whence it was transferred to the federal court.

The officers are alleged to have shot and killed Emley near Keller, Wash., May 23, while attempting to arrest him.

work of this committee will be to make plans for the winter newspaper institute, which will be held at the state university in January, and for the press association, which will meet in July at Rationer park.

The club was formed to promote better acquaintance among men and women who own goats and to get before the public the value of milk goats and their products. The demand for goat milk here is increasing, it was explained yesterday, and will probably increase when the public learns the real merits of goat milk.

Miss Ethel Post was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer. President Mann appointed as a committee on forming a constitution and bylaws, A. C. Gage, editor of the Astorian and Milk Goat Journal, Albert Teal and M. N. Stratton.

NON-PARTISANS IN DRIVE

FUNDS RAISED TO SUPPORT BRIDGES FOR GOVERNOR. Candidate Upholds North Dakota League Laws in Opening Address at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—With statements upholding the non-partisan league laws of North Dakota, Robert Bridges opened his campaign for governor on the farmer-labor ticket with a speech here last night.

E. B. Ault, editor of the league paper in Seattle, made a plea for a campaign fund and started the list with a subscription of $65. At the close of Ault's address, in which he said the fund should be started with at least $5000, solicitors were sent through the audience and $1200 was collected.

He asked that each contributor give one day's pay, saying the amount contributed during a week's wages. Mr. Ault said that big campaign funds are not wrong in themselves but that it is the source from which they are drawn that counts in an election.

John C. Kennedy, former socialist councilman of Chicago, appealed to the audience to support the funds, and those present to sign "volunteer workers cards," which were distributed. The cards call for annual dues of $4 to be paid $1 quarterly. The cards do not state for what organization the money is to be used.

Mr. Ault in his address said the object of the party was to capture the state government for labor and that there will be no more unemployment.
