

IDAHO DEMOCRATS HEARTENED BY COX Optimism Thought Likely to Dull Better Judgment.

PRIMARY LAW BIG ISSUE

Republicans Declare Next Legislature Will Meet Situation and Solve It Satisfactorily.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 18.—(Special.)—The biggest comet in the democratic political horizon streaked across western and southern Idaho this week.

The democrats, however, should not permit their optimism to dull their better judgment. Idaho is a republican state. This is a presidential year.

Regarding the primary and the action the republican party will take with reference to it, in the event it is successful, State Chairman Thomas said.

The amendment of our present primary law is a matter that will claim the serious attention of the next legislature. It is conceded that certain defects have been developed that should be corrected.

The republican party will meet the situation fairly and honestly and the republican legislature, realizing that the amendment of the primary law is particularly our problem, will solve it so as to meet the approval of the people.

Congressman Addison T. Smith has taken a stand in favor of giving to Idaho the Colorado primary system, which provides that all parties shall hold state conventions and make nominations for congressional and state offices and choose their candidates therefrom.

The permanent organization for the campaign is announced by the republican state headquarters as follows: John W. Hart, member of the national committee and the national executive committee.

John Thomas Gooding, chairman for women under the national executive committee, Mrs. Margaret Roberts, Boise; first vice-president, E. G. Davis, Boise; vice-chairmen, Ezra Whitch, Coeur d'Alene; W. E. Lee, Moscow; George A. Day, Oakley; secretary, David Burrell, American Falls.

Strong representation is given on the general executive committee to the women of the state. Democrats Also Organized. The democratic state organization has been perfected through the appointment of B. H. Smith, secretary; W. T. Dougherty, former secretary of state, vice-chairman for the Boise district; N. D. Wernette of Coeur d'Alene and S. O. Tannerhill of Lewiston, vice-chairmen of the northern districts; and G. Y. Pugmire of Pocatello and M. J. Kerr of St. Anthony, vice-chairmen of the southeastern Idaho districts.

ONE VISITOR'S TESTIMONY Results of a Trip Over the Columbia River Highway.

While spending six weeks, recently, visiting the lumbermen, lumber and shingle mills of the Pacific coast, the editor of the Retail Lumberman, together with Dan E. Eshom, western manager of the publication, was enabled, through the courtesy of John W. Miller, president of the Coast Fir Lumber company of Portland, to view the beauties of the famous Columbia highway.

The above-named gentlemen, together with George E. Miller, vice-president of the company and brother of John W. Miller, left Portland about 5 o'clock one evening, drove to Crown Point, where the observatory is located, and after enjoying the view from that point, drove on up the highway to Waukeena falls, to Bridal veil falls, to Malinomat falls, and on to the Cascades. That was 46 miles out from Portland.

Returning to Crown Point, the party stopped for dinner, and this dinner is worthy of special mention. Crown Point chalet, the inn located near the observatory building, is owned and operated by Mrs. M. E. Henderson, who started in business there years ago, before there was any highway, and before the street leading out from Portland was paved. She started in a modest way, but her excellent meals soon won her a reputation and her business increased.

Space at Premium in Pavilion Today and Many Are Yet to Arrange Exhibits.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Great activity is now on at the Clackamas county fairgrounds, at Canby, with busy workers ready for the opening of the big fair tomorrow, and from present indications this will be the greatest fair that Clackamas county has ever had.

The Hazella and Canby communities will try to win the big prize. Hasella was first last year. Among the horses that Edward Portman has signed for the races are Hanlock, King Quolock, King Wave, Dey, Phias Wern, Oregonia, Ted Patch, Ashlock, Zena Boy, Tillamook Kid.

The livestock barns are to be taxed to their limit. David Beng, secretary of the fair, received a telegram from W. S. Cogwell of Chehalis, Wash., saying that he was on his way to the fair with a carload of Red Polled cattle. This was the first time that Cogwell has exhibited at the fair. The herds of W. H. Nelson, Jerryans, and H. H. and A. I. Hughes, Guernsey, of Redland, are on the grounds. One of the calves in the Hughes herd is but a week old and of the Guernsey breed.

The poultry barns also will be taxed. The poultry barns will be taxed to their limit. Many that will also be in the juvenile department. In the juvenile department the two sons, who are still in their teens, and Isella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, are showing some of the Guernsey, the lads having purchased several calves at $400 each, paying for them themselves. They expect to bring home some of the prizes, and are camped on the grounds with their parents and are assisting in caring for the 30 head of Guernseys in the big barn.

12 HANGINGS IN TWO DAYS

ALL RECORDS FOR LEGAL EXECUTIONS WILL BE BROKEN.

Most Notable of Wholesale Executions Previously in Illinois, That of Haymarket Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—All records for legal executions in Cook county and possibly in the state of Illinois, will be broken here October 14 and 15, county officials believe, when 12 men are sentenced to be hanged for murder.

Eight of the men are under sentence to die October 14 and four on the following day. In addition two other slayers who have been convicted are waiting sentence and it is possible that they also may hang on one of the other of the two days.

Chicago has had several wholesale executions in the past—the most notable on November 11, 1887, when four of the Haymarket anarchists were hanged—but nothing in the memory of jail officials approaches a death list of 12 in two days.

Hangings in the Cook county jail take place in the corridor of one of the main cell blocks. There is just room for a double gallows, so it is probable, according to George F. Lee, the jailer, that the men will be executed in pairs. The hangings will cost the state approximately $2000.

The October 15 list includes Arthur Haensel, Richard Wilson, Harry Andre and Frank Zager. Haensel, who killed his wife, was to have been executed last spring but was granted a reprieve five minutes before he was to have marched to the gallows.
