Mrs. Sidney Rasmussen and Sidney, Jr. and Jean.

Miss Irene Daly, to Assist Benefit Ball, Multnomah Hotel, October 26.

Mrs. Stephen Sidney Wilcox (Helen Woodcock), Married Thursday to Prominent Business Man.

 Powell, Mrs. Harold Watson, Mrs. Frank Barnes, Mrs. E. C. Latourrette, Mrs. Edgar Keithley, Mrs. Walter Davison, Mrs. C. C. Pugin, Mrs. R. B. Runyon, Mrs. A. F. Gannon, Miss Edna Stewart, Miss Leonore McGowan and Miss Marjorie Cameron.

Mrs. John L. Etheridge, who has been ill at a hospital at the University of California for some time, will return the coming week to her home here. Mr. Etheridge has been with her for the last two weeks and will accompany her home.

The junior party at Portland Heights clubhouse was an attractive event of Friday. The social committee for the club includes Mrs. Homer D. Angell, Mrs. G. R. Tully, Mrs. J. A. Givens, Mrs. H. V. Carpenter, Mrs. M. L. Kline and Mrs. H. J. Strawbridge.

One of the loveliest brides of the week was Helen Woodcock, whose marriage to Stephen Sidney Wilcox was solemnized on Thursday. The bridegroom is a young business man, one of the proprietors of the Fernwood dairy. The bride is popular among the college and social sets. The ceremony was performed before an altar of palms and white chrysanthemums, the Rev. Francis J. Morgan officiating. Miss Woodcock was attended by her sister, Mrs. F. J. Whitelsey, as matron of honor, and Lawrence Brown acted as best man. Many attractive affairs have been given recently for the popular bride and her husband.

Many of the women of the Harding and Coolidge Campaign club are arranging to attend, with their friends, the republican rally at the auditorium Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Raymond Robbins of Chicago, who has many personal friends in this city, taken by the president for rest and recreation after the strenuous work of the last six years, during which time he has had no vacation at all. With the rapidly growing institution and the multiplication of new university interests, it has been impossible to find relief for vacation among the increased burdens falling upon the administration. However, in the light of the great opportunities opening in the Latin-American countries for increased commercial and social intercourse, Dr. von Kleinsmid has decided to spend his two months in a trip to Panama and down the west coast of South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund V. Ottenheimer entertained with an informal dinner party Monday evening at the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for 11 guests.

President von Kleinsmid of the University of Arizona, with Mrs. von Kleinsmid, sailed from New Orleans on October 13 to visit in South America. They visited here last summer and have many friends in Portland. Mrs. von Kleinsmid is a sister of Mrs. Fletcher Linn.

The board of regents of the university has voted President von Kleinsmid a leave of absence for 60 days. It was the idea of the board that at is not completed and cannot be used

Mrs. William George Tucker entertained recently at Lucretia Court for Mrs. B. Clifford Ireland of San Francisco.

While preparations for smart events are going on apace, there is a steady interest still in the Alberlina Kerr nursery home, East Twenty-second and Sandy boulevard. But the sad part of the story is that the building is not completed and cannot be used and by all means know the store where you buy them

Fifty-six Years in the Fur Industry on the Pacific Coast, "ALWAYS GIVING SUPERIOR QUALITY AND VALUES," is a reputation to be proud of. That is the Liebes reputation.

Liebes Furs are Made in Our Own Shops—where science, skill, efficiency and economy in their making produce highest quality at lowest cost of production.

Liebes Facilities Are Almost Unlimited—Our own trading stations in the northern fur-bearing regions. Our own ships making annual fur-collecting cruises. Our own modern shops where our furs are made. A chain of retail stores, creating probably the greatest retail volume of fur sales in the United States.

Liebes Prices—year after year—have been lower than other sale prices. Yet the Liebes quality remains pre-eminent in Furs. We "guarantee" our prices—that they will not be undersold.
