son was served and several numbers for entertainment completed the programme of the evening's business meeting. The next social evening will be October 28.

COMING EVENTS.

One of the events of the coming week looked forward to by the members of the Elks' lodge is the opening dancing party which is to be given Friday night at Christensen's ballroom, Eleventh and Yamhill streets. Arrangements have also been made for a few tables of cards as a diversion for those who do not wish to dance all evening. This affair, which will be informal, will be the first of a series of dancing parties that have been planned for the winter season. The grand march will be led by Mr. and Mrs. George L. Baker at 9 o'clock.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Piedmont Community Presbyterian church will give a Halloween social Friday evening, October 29, at 8 o'clock in the Sunday school rooms, to which all young people in the community and all Christian Endeavor members of the city are cordially invited. There will be games, ghosts, fortunes, refreshments and music.

The Kodans, the newly founded organization of the younger Jewish element of Portland, will hold its first social event of the season in the way of an informal dance at the Irvington clubhouse next Thursday evening, October 21. The affair will include several unique novelties which will be introduced by members of the club, inclusive of the usual prize dance. The Kodans are planning on giving a dance each month at the different clubhouses in the city in addition to its usual line of activities. All of the affairs are invitational, being limited to Kodans and their friends. The committee in charge are Jesse J. Rich, Dr. Alfred Skitt, Milton Margolis, Harry Gevurtz, Shep Hochfeld, Harry Weinstein and A. Louis Paul.

Halloween eve a gala affair is planned by the Rose City Park Community club at the clubhouse. Dancing will be the pastime of the evening. Each member is asked to bring a friend. The committee in charge has planned special features for the occasion.

Mrs. Robert N. Brewster will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Laidlaw, Mrs. Frank Tauscher, Mrs. E. H. Miller and Mrs. C. E. F. Russ.

Mrs. W. J. Vincent will entertain the past matrons of Corinthian chapter, Order of Easter Star, at a bridge luncheon Wednesday at 355 East Fifty-fifth street North.

Peter A. Porter circle No. 25, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will give an old-fashioned basket social next Wednesday at Baker's hall, Albina, and Killingsworth avenues. Women members are asked to dress in old-fashioned costume and take a lunch for two. Friends are invited.

The Laurelhurst club will dance on Thursday.

The Laurelhurst club women's afternoon card party will be held at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. George Wentworth and Mrs. Charles Irwin will be the hostesses.

Invitations have been issued for the annual convention of Royal Neighbors of America, which will convene at Lents October 28, at 1 P. M. Acceptances indicate that practically every city in this jurisdiction will be well represented. The present officers are: President, Mrs. Henrietta Ready; first vice-president, Mrs. Laura Fredrickson; second vice-president, Mrs. Ella Clark and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Nellie Redinger.

A tea will be given by the Will P. Dickenson Women's Relief corps and post at the home of Mrs. Zeller, 829 East Salmon street, Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The October dance of the Travelers' Protective association will be given at the Multnomah hotel on Saturday evening, Oct. 30.

This will be a Halloween party and elaborate arrangements are being made for Halloween decorations, including pumpkins, gobblins and other appropriate embellishments. Cider and doughnuts will be served for refreshments and, while it will not be a masquerade party, the committee is arranging a list of prizes to be given for those wearing the most unique Halloween costumes.

The dance will be informal and those attending can come garbed in whatever is appropriate. The committee on arrangements is: Clyde Evans, chairman; Lou F. Fuller, Roy C. Slocum, T. J. Tobin, Earl Bunting, R. H. Brown and W. G. Newell. The patronesses are: Mrs. Lou F. Fuller, Mrs. A. F. Burkhardt, Mrs. C. E. Bailey, Mrs. Stanhope Pier, Mrs. C. V. Weaver and Mrs. F. A. Snow.

The Laurelhurst club women's progressive unit will give a Halloween and hard-time party on October 30. This is for all club members.

Marguerite Coterie will meet at the home of Mrs. Adams, 196 East Seventy-sixth street North, Thursday, October 21, at 10 A. M. A potluck luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. All resident and sojourning Royal Neighbors and friends are welcome.

The women's organizations of Grace Lutheran church will give a "pink tea" on Thursday, October 21, in the church parlors at East Twenty-fourth street and Broadway. The hours are 2 to 5 P. M.

Rose City Park Community club will give a card party Friday, when bridge and "500" will be played. Mrs. George Carlson will be hostess. Mrs. Dale Campbell and Mrs. Frank Higby will assist.

The Ladies of Macabees meet on the first and second Thursdays of the month at W. W. hall, Eleventh and Alder streets. A special programme has been arranged for next Thursday night in honor of the visiting knights and their wives.

An informal dancing and card party will be given by the Camella Social club next Thursday night at the Pythian temple, West Park and Yamhill. The committee in charge includes Mrs. W. E. Burks, Mrs. Jessie Coggeshall and Misses Blanch Kleeb, Ruth Zanders and Julia Ruddle. Patronesses will be Madames Jennie Crawford, Mayne Howatson, J. C. Rowwell, Mary Toney, Ella Johnson, Catherine E. Stephens, Elizabeth Lomax, Flora Hopkins, Mae Mettler and Miss Nellie Lathrop.

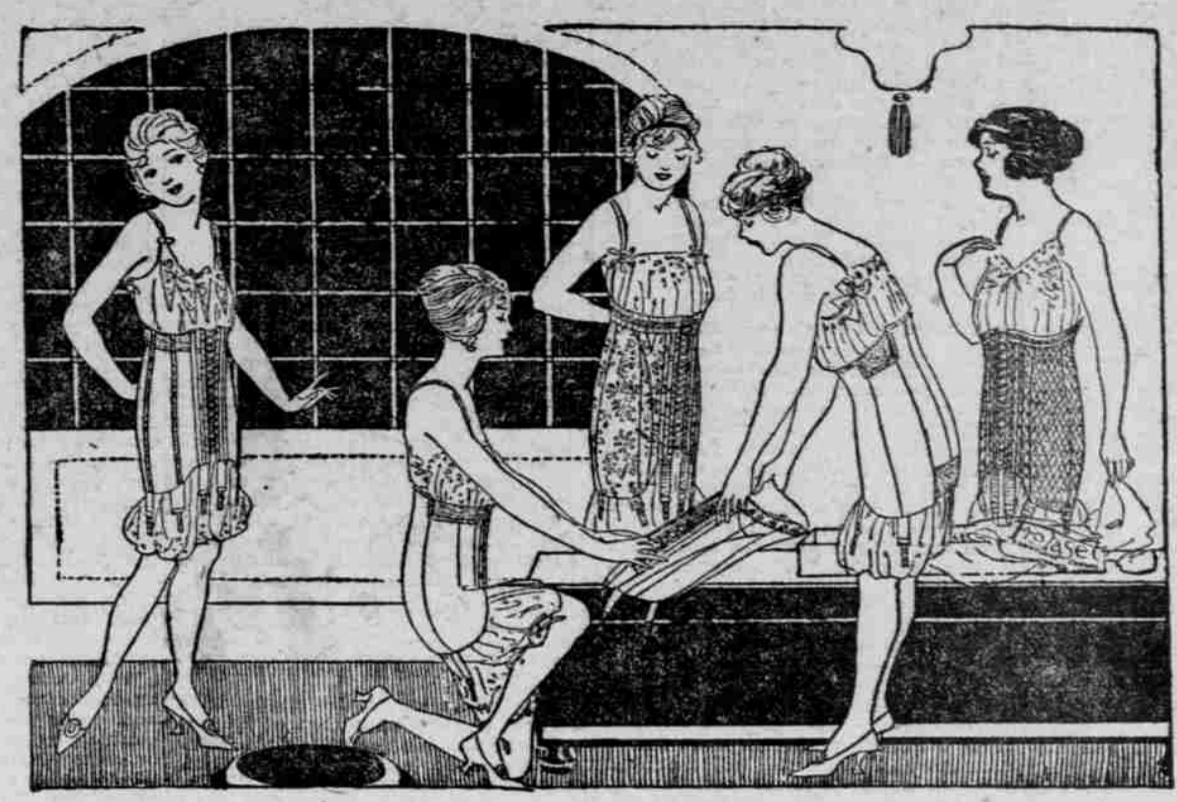

Myrtle Chapter Social club will give another of its very successful benefit card parties Tuesday afternoon, October 26, at Pythian temple. All Eastern Stars and their friends have been invited.

The Daughters of Isabella will take an active part in assisting at the Knights of Columbus bazaar. The entire second floor has been turned over to them and various booths will be arranged therein. By far the most prominent will be the fancy-work booth, to which each member of the

FROLASET CORSETS FRONT-LACE MODELS

FROLASET front-lace corsets have won for themselves an enviable reputation. Frolaset models are expertly designed so that they fit the figure of the small, medium or large woman.

They are fashioned of excellent materials prettily trimmed and give the appearance of far more expensive corsets than they really are.

having elastic tops to make them pleasantly comfortable.

This shipment introduces the new so-called "Vamp" model to wear with low-back gowns. It is made of brocade and has elastic gussets in front and back so that it is very comfortable for dancing.

Junior corsets are an important part of Frolaset planning; new styles will be presented Monday especially suitable for growing girls and debutantes.

Other models of brocade are devised for large women who tend to embonpoint under the arms and who need careful corseting at that point.

Frolaset corsets are to be had with medium and very low busts, with long or short hips and in plain or brocaded flesh pink materials.

Then there are models with large hip space and

They are made exceptionally well and the boning is of superior quality.
