Speakers Scattered Far. In the democratic camp it is re-ported that the county organizations are laboring hard, spreading the league of nations propaganda, and in-structed from the state headquarters structed from the state headquarters to get out the vote. Speakers are being sent into all the counties and there is scarcely a town of note in Oregon which is not being supplied with at least one democratic speech. Straw votes, which point to a big republican victory, apparently have not convinced the democratic leaders that they have a hopeless fight, for they have steamed up more in the they have steamed up more in the past 48 hours than in all the previous weeks of the campaign. There is no Cex money available for betting purposes, however, while there is an unlimited amount of coin ready to bet that Harding will carry the state. As for the senatorial situation, supporters of Senator Chamberlain express absolute confidence in his success, notwithstanding the claims of the republican leaders that R.
