LUTHER LEAGUE CONVENTION HELD IN PORTLAND CLOSES TODAY

Rev. T. A. Jansen of Astoria, Rev. T. W. Kretschmann of Seattle and Rev. A. V. Anderson Will Deliver Addresses.

will speak at 11 o'clock on "A Young Man's Vision." There will be a special musical number of the will be a special musical number of the will be a special musical number of the will be a special number of the will be a sp cial musical number by the boys' choir, and solo numbers by Mrs. Robert Francis Clark and Halfred Young. The evening service will begin at 7:45 and will be a rally of all the young people of the Lutheran churches of Portland. The speakers for the evening are Rev. A. V. Anderson of Portland, who will speak on "The Bible in Education," and Rev. T. W. Kretschmann of Seattle, Wash. The president-elect will also give a short address.

On this work and Haired Touns.

Dr. Hinson Returns to East Side Baptist Pulpit.

DR. W. B. HINSON will preach both morning and evening at the East Side Baptist church, corner of East Twentieth and Salmon streets. At 11 address.

solo by Haifred Young and a duet by the Bible," and at 7:30 his theme will be "A Haunting Ghost."

Brace-Seymour.

Dr. Hinson visited Vancouver.

For the young men of Portland who will vote for the first time at the general election November 2. Dr. William T. McElveen, pastor of the First Congregational church, has a message. He will deliver it Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Portland Y. M. C. A. J. W. Palmer, who is directing arrangements for the meeting, has provided seating room for the large attendance of young men who have indicated they will come for assistance. "How Are You Going to Vote?" is the way the pastor's topic is worded.

Nursery Funds to Be Raised.

B. C. last week, where he addressed the Baptist young people of British Columbia every night, the meetings being marked by unusual power and dedication of many lives to the service of God.

This coming Thursday Dr. Hinson will continue his lectures on "The Facts of the Faith." A large number gather every Thursday afternoon from 3 to 4 in the East Side Baptist church to hear these expositions from the Bible.

Nursery Funds to Be Raised.

A whirlwind campaign for funds to complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in Portland from now until November 6, and to start this campaign in every church in the city today an appeal will be made for workers who will give of their time, talents or money to help the cause. Five-minute speeches will be given to present the cause. The clergy of the city will give their co-operation. The building is a challenge to the humanity of residents of the city. The community chest, the child weifare commission and various other bodies have given their indorsement of the enterprise. The outer walls and roof are completed and the building now stands, at East Twenty-second and Sandy, awaiting funds for its fitting and furnishing.

Every church man and woman of Porthald is asked to assist in finish-

Temple during November.

Temple during November.

Temple during November.

Rally day services will be held today at Calvary Baptist church, East ling this work. Scores of babies are needing skelter and the building should be completed, W. G. MacLaren, the superintendent, states. Headquartor the drive are at 402 Artisans building. Frank H. Hilton is mansubuilding. Frank H. Hilton is mansubuctor to the vouch, assistant.

Mrs. R. L. Russell and Mrs. W. D. McWaters are in charge of placing speakers. Meantline the churches are to the cry of a homeless babe." It is the Artist Baptist church. East the Artist Baptist church. Eact the Artist Baptist church. Rev. Owen T. Day will speak on "The Face of churches at offer the pulpit for the churches to offer the pulpit for the chu

All Christians Selected the search of the several selected the service of the several selected the service of the several selected the service of the selected th sity of Oregon students, with Chris-number 291 expressed no preference. Hal B. Donnelly, local Y. M. C. A. secretary, says this number is comparatively small, as this group usually includes 50 per cent of the student body in universities and nonctarian schools.

This list does not account for the entire membership of the student body, as Mr. Donnelly says he failed to get about 70 cards.

From these figures the conclusion students registered in the university but the registrar's office as not determined the exact num-

The list, which follows, does not differentiate between membership and Presbyterian, 275; Methodist, 235; Christian, 153; Epistopal, 29; Catholic, 88; Baptist, 79; Congregational, 68; Christian Science, 53; Lutheran, 20; Unitarian, 12; Jewish, 8; Church of God, 2; Friends, 2; Seventh Day Advent, 2; Evangelical, 1; Universalist, 1; Protestant, 32; no preference, 291.

Methodists to Have Banquet.

church will be given over to it.

At a special meeting of the association called by the legislative committee Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy was indorsed as a candidate for representation of the reason, as given in congress for the reason, as stated at the meeting, she is pledged to fright against any attempts to to fight against any attempts to weaken the Voistead prohibition act.

Mrs. Ellimbo, Messrs. Jacobson, Wallin and Carlson and the Misses of the Ladies' Aid society. Vocal selections will be given by Mrs. Murray and Mrs. Stevenson.

Grace Lutheran church, corner East

Grace Lutheran church, corner East

Grace Lutheran church, corner East

Grace Lutheran church, street, will be given by Mrs. Murray and Mrs. Stevenson.

Next Thursday night Miss Woodberry of New York is to speak at this berry of New York is to speak at this

Today, the last day of the Luther League convention, held in St.

James' English Lutheran church, promises to be one of inspiration and profit to those who attend.

At 9:45 A M, there will be a special Bible class for the visiting delegates.
This class will be conducted by one of the visiting pastors.

Rev. T. A. Jansen of Astoria, Or.

Will speak at 11 o'clock on "A Young Life."

Iterian church, St. Louis, Mo., in the membership contest, the maximum attendance being 521. The educational department of the church is organizing a school for the study of missions in the near east and of other world problems. The school will convene about November 1, and continue once cluer's morning subject is, "The Shepherd's Hire." In the evening, "The First Element in a Well-Poised Life."

"Christ and the Bible" to Be Sermon Topic.

cial musical numbers will be a o'clock he will speak on "Christ and

Young Men Voters to Hear Message. B. C., last week, where he addressed

Nursery Funds to Be Raised.

A whiriwind campaign for funds to complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in Portland for the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will be waged in the complete the complete the complete the new Albertina Kerr Nursery building will pastor of the Norwegian Danish M. E. church, corner of Eighteenth and Hoyt street, will preach at 11 A. M. on "The Value of a Child in the Twentieth Century." At 8 P. M. the subject will be: "Three Interviews with Jesus." Wednesday evening the ladies of the Epworth league will have a basket social.

THE DALLES, Or., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—George H. Young, D.D., of Portland, director of religious educadehe and Utah, delivered two addresses last Sunday in Calvary Bap-tist church of this city. Monday tist church of this city. Monday morning he spoke at the high school assembly to the student body on "The Heritage of the Pilgrim Fathers."

"Back to God," Theme of Lutheran Pastor.

Rev. A. Krause to Speak on "Civil Government" Today

A T ST PAUL'S LUTHERAN church, East Twelfth and Clinton streets, A big get-together meeting of all the pastor, Rev. A. Krause, will preach ortland Methodism will be held at another catechetical sermon at 10:30 lirst Methodist church Friday eve-ing, October 29, at 6:30 o'clock, when "Civil Government." The subject for the Methodist descenses because the control of the c ning, October 29, at 6:30 o'clock, when "Civil Government." The subject for the Methodist deaconess banquet will the evening sermon at 7:30 P. M., will be given by the auxiliaries of the city.

berg, secretary to the resident bishop:
Martha Warrington of Centenary church: Martha Buck, director of religious education for Central church, and Marguerite Hewson, juvenile court worker for Wilbur church, Flates will be laid for 350 persons and must be reserved by Thursday noon, October 28. The public is invited.

Prohibition Sunday Observed.

This is prohibition Sunday in all of the churches affiliated with the Portland General Ministerial association.

It will be generally observed and a part of at least one service in each church will be given over to it.

At a special meeting of the association called by the legislative committee Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy was in-weaken the Volstead prohibition act, if elected to congress. It was purely on the moral ground that the ministers indorsed her at the special session and still later at a regular meeting.

The Sunday school of Rose City Park Presbyterian church has for the past two Sunday school of Central Presby
The Sunday school of Central Presby
Wednesday, October 27.

Parker, Case and Verdun.

Grace Lutheran church, corner East Broad Mrs. Stevenson, Next Thursday, night Miss Woodberry of New York is to speak at this church. She will have something to say about Portland and other problems of the day.

About Children. Evening service at 7.30. Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. There will be a sacred concert Wednesday, October 27.

Shepard appoints Methodist district superintendents for Oregon, 1-Dr. E. E. Gilbert, superintendent for the district center around Salem, where he makes his headquarters. 2—Dr. William Wallace Youngson, district superintendent of the Portland area. 3—Rev. S. A. Danford, superintendent of the southern Oregon district, with hendquarters in Ashland. 4-Bishop W. O. Shepard of Oregon, who for the first time presided at the recent Oregon Methodist annual convention and who made the appointments for the coming year.

Dr. McElveen Will Preach on Definite Religion.

First Congregational Services to Feature Special Music,

DR. W. T. McELVEEN preaches at both the services at the First Congregational church today. This evening his topic will be, "Bringing Religion Down From the Clouds." His point is that to many religion is vague, impractical and over mystical; he will show how religion can be made definite, clear-cut and effective. The evening service will be preceded by a 15-minute organ recital. Ethel Lynn Ross, the organist, is becoming increasingly popular; so are her recitals. This evening, beginning at

"Pastorale" ... Whiting
"In Nomine Domine" ... McDowell
"The Swan" ... Stebbins
"Chant de Bonheur" ... Lemare Nina Dressel, the contraito, will sing "Deep River," by the distinguished negro vocalist, Burleigh. The chorus will sing "Thou, O God. Art Praised," by Hall, and the quartet will sing Allen's arrangement of "He Shall Come Down Like Rain." Miss

Dr. McElveen is giving a series of talks at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. He is a member of the faculty of the training school that is held Wednesday evening at the First Methodist church. He delivers the methodist church. He delivers the convocation address at Corvallis, November 2. He is to be Dr. Shaler Mathews' colleague in two real fundamental conferences to be held in Tacoma and Seattle, November 7, 8 day night services for the promotion devening. The Knew Jesus Chist.

are produced by a first-class equip-ment and with the songs from the screen are proving very attractive. This is, perhaps, the largest experi-ment in the city of the use of moving auuress of the evening. Mrs. Mountain of Centenary church will sing.

Four new workers will be introduced at this time—Cora M. Stukenberg, secretary to the resident bishop;

Martha Warrington of Centenary church: Martha Warrington of Centenary church: Martha Description of Centenary church church: Martha Description of Centenary church church: Martha Description of Centenary church church

he will take for his subject, "The Lasting Impression of a Great Vision."
In the evening he will speak on "The Bible and a League of Nations."
Miss Miriam L. Woodberry of New York, a speaker of national fame, will speak in the parlor of the church next Wednesday at 7:45 P. M. The public is cordially invited. New Confirmation Class Is Being Lynn Ross, the organist, is becoming increasingly popular; so are her relicitals. This evening, beginning at citals. This evening, beginning at morning service at 10:15 in German, while Rev. W. Biel of Vancouver, Wash, will occupy the pulpit in the English service at 7:30 in the evening.

of Biblical holiness are proving very To the long list of clubs whose are especially in the interests of the numbers enjoy a luncheon together Sunday school. Services will continue

To the long list of clubs whose members enjoy a luncheon together once a week must be added a new club. It is called the "Congo." It is made up of the men of the First Congregational church and meets every Wednesday in its club room at the Y. M. C. A from 12 to 1:30 o'clock. George Colton is the founder of the Congo club.

Rev. Elbert E. Flint of the Atkinson Memorial Center (Congregational) church is to preach this morning at 11 o'clock on "A World Champion." He will trace in this the history of an offspring of God. Tonight at 7:30 P. M. At 3:30 P. M. Miss Otelia Hendrickson, who for years has been will be shown. One of these is the "Bird Seriai" picture. This is a very popular film. The other belongs to the "Forest Service." These pictures are produced by a first-class equipment and with the songs from the seventh and Summer streets, will speak this morning on the subject, "Be Faithful Unto Death." In the evening, "He Knew Jesus Christ and Him Crucified." Under the direction of Professor Arthur Peek, the chorus choir of this church will meet and organize for a Christmas musical can-tata Saturday evening.

"Promising Outlook," Sermon at St. Stephen's.

At Third United Brethren church Sixty-seventh street and Thirty-sec and avenue Southeast, the pastor, Rev. E. O Shepherd, will speak on "The Temple Beautiful." His evening sub-ject will be "From the World's Foun-dation." Rev. Mr. Shepherd is making dation. special study of the Book of Acts and is preaching a series of sermons "The God-Planned Life" is the sub-

The members and friends of the First United Brethren church, East Fifteenth and East Morrison streets, LUTHER LEAGUE CONVENTION MEETS IN PORTLAND CHURCH.

Formed.

The Divine Truth church has services in room 412. Central building, every Sunday at 11 A. M., by Nettie Taylor Kloh, at 8 P. M. by Mrs. Anne Smith. and the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The regular weekly meeting of the former society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. In the parish house at the corner of Thirteenth and Clay streets. The meeting will be in charge of Miss Myla Chambers, with the Rev. R. T. T. Hicks, dean, as the principal speaker. His subject will be "The Value and Importance of Bible Study." There will be other business of importance and a good attendance is desired.

ect Rev. Lella Luckey, who is pas-or of the Fourth United Brethren hurch, Tremont station, has chosen

"Some Fool Propositions" Will Be Sermon Topic.

Dr. Stansfield to Discuss Fads at First Methodist Church.

son joined the American forces in Se-attle and was killed in France two days before the armistee was signed. The Rabbi will tell his remarkable story. A big male chorus, under the leadership of Professor Wilder, will furnish special music.

The Sunnyside Methodist church. corner East Thirty-fifth and Yamhill, was the scene of a most enthusiastic reception last evening when more than 300 of the friends and members of the church gathered to welcome the new pastor, Dr. T H Gallaher, and family to Sunnyside. A dinner was served by the women intendent, spoke words of welcome on behalf of all Methodist churches of tor of the Fourth United Brethren church, Tremont station, has chosen for the Sunday morning discourse. The sermon in the evening will be on the theme of "Repentance."

Badley, E. R. Welch, Ethel Penwell and Mrs. Hardman welcomed the new pastor on behalf of the heads of departments of the church, after which Dr. Gallaher responded.

A programme was enjoyed, consisting of readings by Mrs. June Jones and musical numbers by J. Erwin Mutch, head of the vocal department of the Ellison-White conservatory of music. O. V. Badley climaxed his remained in the second has been growing the reading a poem which was sisting of readings by Mrs. June Jones declared by unanimous vote to ex-press the feelings of all toward Dr. T. H. Gallaher. At the Rose City Park Methodist Episcopal church the paster, Dr. C.

W. Huett, will speak in the morning at regular service, on "The Beauty of Human Life," and in the evening the subject will be "Skeptics and Specters." The Sunday school meets at 9:45 A. M. and the Epworth league at 6:30 P. M. "The Evolution of Prohibition" is the morning theme at the Woodlawn Methodist church. "Prohibition day" will be celebrated in the evening by speakers of city-wide repute and worth hearing on their favorite theme will be celebrated in the evening by speakers of city-wide repute and worth hearing on their favorite theme Rev. W S. Gordon of the Sellwood dethodist church will speak at 11 Methodist church will speak at 11 A. M. Sunday on "The Normal Relig- Rev. John H. Gardner pastor, holds. lous Awakening of Childhood," and services at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. The at 7:30 P. M. on "Raising the Flag in speaker for today is Rev. William Oregon"—an address on Jason Lee and the early Methodist missions on this coast. An original poem by the pastor will be read which was written by request of the Methodist Historiast few Sundays is noticeable, and colvey, Mrs. William Ormandy, Mrs. appreciated.

The church is located at East Fifteenth and Tacoma avenue, one In Mount Tabor Presbyterian church

ing worship and sermon at 11; sermon theme, "The Everlasting Word"; Epworth league at 6:30; evening worship and sermon at 7:30; sermon
theme, "Homage to Caesar and God."

theme, "Homage to Caesar and God."

Dr. Bowman Continues His Sermons on Business.

The Jeweler of Judea" Topic of Talk Tenight.

The First Presbyterian church.
Twelfth and Alder streets, will have its pastor, Rev. Harold Leonard Bowman, D. D., in the pulpit both morning and evening. At the evening service at 7:30 br. Bowman will give the fifth of a series on "Modern Business Men of the Bible." The subject wind the Temple Service.

Piedmont community Presbyterian church, Cleveland avenue at Jarrett street, J. Francis Morgan, pastor, holds morning service at 1:0 clock. The subject will be "Dying to Live," and in the evening at 7:30. "Samson's Riddle." Sunday school, 9:45; Endeavor meeting, 7:30.

This church challenges the attention and support of the community. It promises on its part helpful and stimulating service. The new men's club is preparing for a lively and interesting meeting next month. The Christian meeting next month. ness Men of the Bible." The subject ing meeting next month will be "The Jeweler of Judea." dealing with the man who was seek-ing goodly pearls and when he found one of great value, he sold all that he had to purchase it. These evening welcome Dr. and Mrs. Byron J. Clark on their return to the church for an-other year. After a social time all were seated around the banquet table and served a splendid lunch. Dr. G. E. McDonald, superintendent of the sermons are arousing a great deal of , interest as Dr. Bowman treats of age , long questions of business and social life from the standpoint of Christian Oregon conference, acted as toastmaster and gave a few well-chosen remarks in welcoming Dr. and Mrs. Clark. Mrs. A. E. Peek, in behalf of the Ladles' Circle, responded to a toast on "The Past, the Future," after which she presented Dr. and Mrs.

Marks in welcoming Dr. and Mrs. Clark. Mrs. A. E. Peek, in behalf of the Ladles' Circle, responded to a toast on "The Past, the Future," after the faith. As a prelude to the evening sormon will be "Forward March." The dean will preach at both services. Time of services: 11 A. M. and 7.45
P. M. Those desiring to enter the confirmation class now being formed are requested to hand their names to the dean as soon as possible.

The Young People's society of St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral will meet at the main entrance to the Good Salmartin hospital at 3 o'clock sharp to sing to the sick in the various wards and Rev. E. O. Shepherd, secretary markin hospital at 3 o'clock sharp to sing to the sick in the various wards of the institution. They will be assisted by the Young People's societies of St. Michael and All Angels, and the Church of the Good Shepherd. The regular weekly meeting of the former society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more society will be held as usual at 6:30 P. M. in the parish house at the more socie glous education. There are classes for all sizes and ages from the begin-ners' class to the Bible classes. The Warren Bible class for young women of the First Presbyterian church has increased the attendance morning service begins at 10:45, when the paster, Jacob Stocker, will speak on the theme "The Proper Freparation for a Christian Death "The Beginning of Beginnings" is the Will be a Christian Life." The Young People's alliance will hold its meeting at 6:20, and at 7:30 the pastor speaks on "The Value of Prayer."

The attendance and interest in connection with the special meetings at special meetings at special meetings at special meetings at the First United Brethren church, at the First

The parlors of the First Presbyterian church are to be thrown open Tuesday evening for a union of the large Bible classes in the enjoyment of a Halloween party. Nearly 300 young people composing the membership of the Warren Bible and vesper classes, will entertain their friends. introducing some spooky features that will partake of the secrecy and won-derment which is usual in celebrating this time of special merriment for young people. The management of this social gathering will be under the supervision of Miss Jessie McLaughlin. of the church, after which J. R. Ellison, acting as toastmaster, introduced supervision of Miss Jessie McLaughlin, a number of after dinner speakers. Dr. W. W. Youngson, district superton, Miss Marie Lessing, Miss Helen ton, Miss Marie Lessing, Miss Helen Baughman, George Morgan, Frank A. Helber and Earl Shrader, Mrs. Angela L. Ford Warren and Miss Jennie Lee Simmons will be the hostesses of the evening.

The congregation of Westminster church, East Seventeenth and Schuyler streets, will hear the Rev. John Gard-ner of Detroit at both morning and evening services. His themes will be:

marks by reading a poem which was steadily since the first Sunday in September, numbering 630 in all departments last Sunday; this is the largest regular attendance in the history of the church. Already the officials of the church have made plans to proceed with part erection of a primary building. At the Sunday school session Sunday east relief.

The men's club which meets at 12:10 will continue its discussion of the "In-iustrial Problems." Due to the Illness of Dr. Pence the consideration of the topic, "The Origin of Our Bible," has a short talk will be given on the near

Last Sunday Rev. Gardner received

The church is located at East Fifteenth and Tacoma avenue, one block east of the Sellwood car line.

Services at the Lincoln Methodist Episcopal church, corner of East Linguister and Fifty-second streets, today will be: Sunday school at 16; morning will be: Sunday school at 16; morning the services and visions of young people leading to a choice of life's young people and services at the control of the services of the services are services as the control of service.

The evening lecture sermon is "The Law of Hammurabi, the Law of Moses and the Temple Service."

tian Endeavor social Friday evening promises to be of unusual interest. The fall and winter work in all lines is full of hopeful achievement.

"What We Believe and Why We Believe It" will be the topic of a series of nine sermons discussing the great fundamentals of faith to be delivered by Rev. Monroe G. Everett, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian (the Community) church, corner First and Gibbs streets, at 10:30 each Sunday morning from October 24 to December 19.

These sermons, the pastor believes, will be especially helpful to young people and to those who have doubts.

Music of the Kenilworth Presbyterian church will be directed by Joseph Berry, who has had extended musical experience, having studied with Oscar Seagle, Taglieri and W. H. Boyer. Boyer. Plans are being made for enlarging the present choir next Sunday evening. Walter Jenkins, community singing leader, will conduct special song service in the church. All Science Churches Hold Wednesday Night Services.

Testimony of Healing Part of Meetings. "P ROBATION After Death" will be the subject of the lesson sermon in Christian Science churches

All Christian Science churches hold inner meanings of the Cl gospel on Friday nights at 8 The public is invited to attend any or all of these lectures.

"Heaven-Its Hope, Its Inhabitants, "Heaven—Its Hope, Its Inhabitants, Its Riches, Its Happiness, the Certainty of Its Rewards and How to Get There," is the subject of the Sunday night sermon by Louis K. Dickson, evangelist, in Women of Woodcraft hall, corner Tenth and Taylor streets. He will gave tangible facts on this much-discussed theme. The music will be in charge of Professor I. C. Colcord and will include a congregational sing, male quartet. a congregational sing, male quartet, instrumental and vocal solos. The public is invited and seats are free.

Comforter Center will meet in Hotel Portland assembly room, at 11 A. M. "The World's Great Need" will be the subject of the address by Florence A. Sullenberg, lately returned from Los Angeles and San Francisco "Home of Truth." She is spending the winter with her sister. spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Crum C. Haynes of Forest Grove.

"Family Affection" Topic for Evening Sermon.

Mr. Ellot Will Give Scripture Read-

"F Mr. Ellors will be Mr Eliot's subject this evening at 7:45 o'clock, evening worship hour, Church of Our Father, Broadway, at Yamhill, with a group of appropriate scripture readings similar to read last Sunday evening.

Are Open.' The Young People's fraternity, meeting at 6:30 P. M., will study church architecture. The special subject this evening will be "Gothic Architecture," led by Leila Rogers. The fraternity also will read a letter received from Frank C. Flint, Rhodes scholar, Oxford.

Bishop William H. Washinger, of he Church of the United Brethren in the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, recently returned from Beach, N. D., where he held Montana con-ference, the last of the conferences of the Pacific district. He reports that during the last year the Pacific district raised in the united ment drive $90,485.05. Of this Last Sunday Nev. Gardner received district raised in the united enlistnto this church 16 new members, the rite of baptism was administered, and the service was concluded with the sacrament of the Lord's supper. As affertory number, George Colvey sang
"I Come to Thee" (Caro Roma). The decorations were attractive, autumn
decorations were attractive, autumn in the sum of $77,000. Of this amount in the sum of $77,000. Of this amount in the united enlistment drive $90,485.05. Of this amount which will not close until next, May, in the sum of $77,000. Of this amount by request of the Methodist Historical seciety for the Jason Lee celebration, which is to be held next Tuesday at the statehouse, Salem.

The choir has been enlarged, and supplied with new anthem books. The Sunday school session is held at 3:45, the Junior league at 2:30 and the Eptworth league at 6:30. The increased attendance at all the services for the in addition to this, the denomina-tional college at Philomath, Or., was endowed during the quadrennium, which will not close until next, May, in the sum of $77,000. Of this amount $59,000 was raised during the past year, and Oregon alone raised $26,000 of that. Bishon Washinger reports

St. James' English Lutheran church, at which the Luther league