Speeches Show No Change.

This belief, sincerely held by many persons, had no real foundation, and the way it arose and spread like a legend is one of the most interesting stories of the campaign. Of course, the Des Moines speech and the August 28 speech are both on record for anyone to see and compare. It is the 38th legislative district, Tacoma, to come to his own conclusions. The fact is, however, that literally millions of persons come to a concluread the speeches. The legend was headlines, in turn, were based on de-
