fall on the home stretch. But she bravely mounted again and finished the course.

College Judges at Work.

Student judging teams entered by the animal husbandry departments of Oregon Agricultural college, Washington State college, University of Idaho and Utah State college pitted their judgment against each other under the watchful eyes of judges selected from the premier stock men of the United States. The college teams passed in 11 classes of stock including senior yearling Shorthorn heifers, junior yearling Aberdeen-Angus heifers, junior yearling Hereford heifers; three classes of sheep, including one each of Shropshire, Hampshire and Lincoln; and two classes of horses, Shire aged mares and Percheron aged mares. Decision on the contest will be withheld until tomorrow. Students judging teams from University of Idaho, Washington State college and the University of California will compete tomorrow on dairy products, passing decision on milk, butter and cheese.

Concert Billed for Today.

Today's programme will be featured with a band concert. No stock judging or special exhibits will be made, but all stalls and pens are now full and much of the rush of the opening day will be over. The pavilion is open from 8 A. M. until midnight each day until the close. Parking space for 5000 cars has been provided adjacent to the buildings, while lunch counter service has been established in the exposition building.

Prize Awards Tomorrow.

One of the features of the race for awards is the contest in the grand championship Holstein sire class between Judge Segis, owned by the Hollywood farm, Seattle, coast champion for many years and Matador Segis Walker VI, grand champion of the Oregon State fair, owned by L. J. Simpson of North Bend. Judge Segis is the 11-year-old title holder, while the Oregon entry is a 3-year-old, just eligible to compete for the purple ribbon.

Tomorrow the regular programme of the exposition will begin with judging of entries, with prizes in the various classes from then till the end of the week. Horse show will also start tomorrow night, featuring fancy ring horses from the entire west, with hurdlings, high jumping, fancy riding and many thrilling features on each night's programme.

PUREBRED HERDS TO BE HERE

Two Louis County Breeders to Compete for Prizes.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Nov. 13.—(Special)—Lewis county will be represented at the Pacific International Livestock show at Portland by two purebred herds, J. A. Scollard of Chehalis, president of the United Dairyman's association, has entered eight head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, headed by his herd sire, Eltemmerr, This bull is half brother to the bull that won the international grand championship at Chicago in 1919.

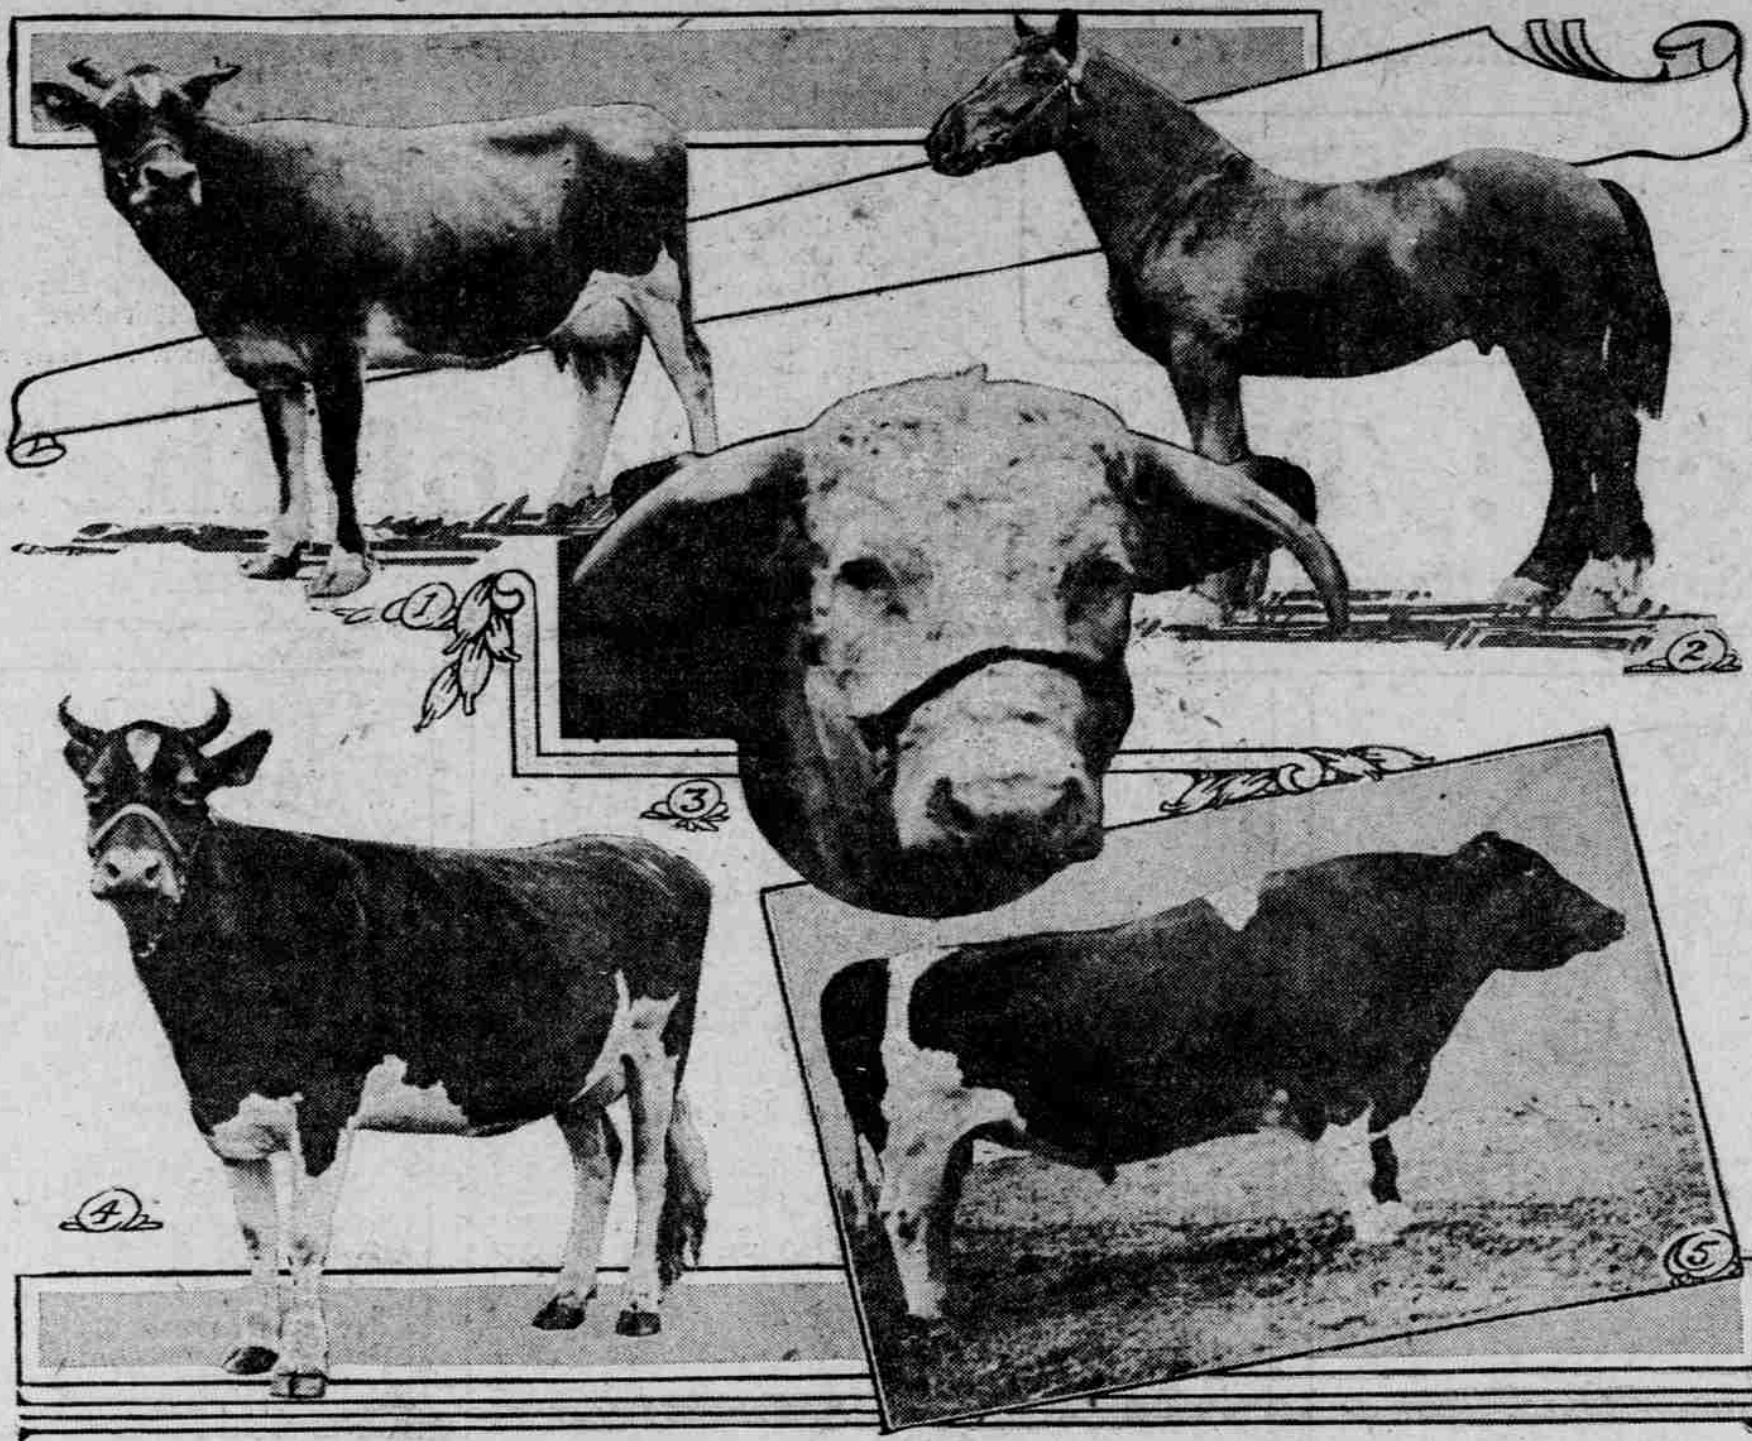

Another Lewis county herd entered at the Portland show was that of N. C. Sears, Jersey breeder of Winlock, Wash. St. Marver of Grammer, an almost direct descendant of the Northwest's most noted Jersey bull, heads Mr. Sears' entry, which includes six of the young of this bull and has in its number Diploma's Little Sweetheart, undefeated junior heifer calf at all fair exhibitions in Washington in 1920, including the fairs at Chehalis, Spokane, Walla Walla, Yakima and Puyallup.

Pastor Takes Town Census.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 13.—(Special)—Winlock, Wash., has a population of 871, according to a census just completed there by Rev. W. M. Dewes, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. When the government census figures were announced the belief was prevalent in Winlock that the town had been greatly cheated, but Rev. Dewes' figures are only $9 more than the federal count.

The Oregonian publishes practically all of the want ads printed in the other three Portland papers, in addition to thousands of exclusive advertisements not printed in any other local paper.

SOME OF THE ARISTOCRACY OF PUREBRED ANIMALS AGGREGATED AT PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL SHOW.

No. 1—Luckanute's Noble Lou, Jersey cow, from Monmouth, Or., which was grand champion at Oregon state fair. No. 2—Mountain King, 3-year-old Shire stallion, making debut. Owned by William Head, Arlington, Or. No. 3—Beau Blivell, 2-year-old Hereford bull, who won senior calf championship at last year's exposition, from Elk Run ranch, Highwood, Mont. No. 4—Merle of Chicoma, 4-year-old Guernsey cow, from herd of A. L. Gile, Chinook, Wash. No. 5—Greenback Str Ormsby Heangerveld, Holstein sire, Milky Way farm, Sumas, Wash., largest bull on exhibition, weighing 2700 pounds.

DREAMS OF 17 YEARS ARE NOW FACTS AT STOCK SHOW

Addison Bennett Says Some of the Finest Animals in Country Are to Be Seen in Exhibits.

BY ADDISON BENNETT.
THE dreams and visions of Uncle Mike, Wisdom have more than come true, for the great stock show that he visualized in his mind and worked for 17 years ago and on until the day of his death have borne fruit and today are a reality. But, Uncle Mike did not live to see his dreams and visions become reality. More is the pity. But some day, I hope very soon, there must be a bust or statue of Uncle Mike in front of the main entrance to the great exposition building at North Portland.

Great Bulls Are Present.

There is present perhaps the greatest Holstein sire living, the great Judge Segis, of the Hollywood farm, F. S. Stevenson owner, and Matador Segis Walker XL, from Louis Simpson's great Shore Acres estate, in Coos county, and Congressman Pat McArthur's 3-year-old Eogis 27th, of Hood farm.

That man Plummer, O. M. Plummer, is manager of the show, but Frank Brown, the president, is "also present" to keep O. M. down on solid ground. O. M. has a crazy quilt wrapped around his voice, saving it for the various banquets so he can act as toastmaster each evening during the week at the annual Jersey, Holstein, Guernsey and other banquets. O. M. is the star of all toastmasters—it usually takes him 15 minutes to introduce a speaker and explain to such speaker the fact that he, the introducer, not the introducer, 3500 Head of Cattle There.

Roundly speaking there will be on the ground when the great show formally opens tomorrow, Monday morning, 3500 head of cattle, and I do not know how many sheep and horses, besides nearly 200 head of the best-trained exhibition horses to be found in the west.

One of the great features of the show will be the night exhibitions of these horses and their trained lady and gentlemen riders and drivers, vying for a part of the $8000 prizes offered them, not mentioning the huzzas and acclamations of the 6000 visitors who will nightly attend. The Portland people will feel proud very proud, each night to see the members of the Portland Hunt club in their scarlet coats going through their drill.

Here in the northwest is the heaven of the dairy cow. This immediate section is to be the great center and circumference of all the great breeds of dairy stock. Here we will see single animals sell for more than $50,000. There will come here at our annual shows buyers for our Jerseys, Holsteins, Guernseys, Ayrshires and other fancy breeds will come from all over the United can talk but five minutes. And O. M. gets away with it and makes friends by it, for he never opens his mouth without saying something.

There is a good street-car service direct to the ground without change of cars by the Mississippi line from Salmon street and Broadway every eight minutes. For 7 cents to the city limits, then 5 cents more to the door of the main exposition building. President Griffith of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company promises to put on as many cars as are needed to handle the crowds during the week, and to have cars enough parked at the grounds to handle those attending the evening horse shows.

THIEF ROBS POLICEMAN

W. Jennings Held in Jail Pending Investigation of Burglary.

Harry Stanton, patrolman in the traffic bureau, believes that the way to get a thief in to go out and catch him. Stanton's room was robbed Friday night, the thief getting away with a pearl-handled revolver, a watch and flashlight.

Stanton did his own sleuthing yesterday, and during the afternoon walked into the police detective bureau with W. Jennings in custody. Stanton said he found his watch and flashlight on Jennings when he picked him up at Sixth and Everett streets. He was not able to find the gun and Jennings refused to say what became of it. Jennings was booked for further investigation.

$5000 Asked for Fall.

M. C. Ripelle is suing the Standifer shipyard in the federal court for $5000 damages. Ripelle alleges he fell through an open hatch on a ship being built at the Standifer yard and that the company failed to have a light near the hatch.

Alleged Robber Asks New Trial.

A new trial is being asked for by attorneys for Vincenzo Mattio, convicted in Circuit Judge Tucker's court of robbing the safe in the store of Joe

Being Beautiful

"Many women prefer being beautiful to being smart."
—Painless Parker.

But beautiful women and handsome men are smart enough to know that good teeth are the biggest part of good looks. It is hard to love anybody whose teeth are discolored or decayed.

Your teeth ought to last as long as you do. The reason they don't is because you sidestep the dentist and fail to exercise the toothbrush. A little attention to the teeth saves a lot of pain.

When you think of TEETH, think of PARKER.

Old Herbal Remedy

Used for 40 Years in Relieving Diabetes

The most satisfactory results have been obtained in combating Diabetes by observing certain dietary rules and the judicious use of Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy, an herbal preparation used with marked success for more than forty years.

Following is a letter from a grateful user:

"This letter is the best proof that I am still alive. Your medicine is a miracle to me. My weight was reduced from 157 to 114 pounds when I left the hospital. I left there August 6th in despair. Hundreds of people that knew me said I would never live to return to my studio. After leaving the hospital I saw your 'Ad' in the paper. I began its use and at once commenced to improve, and now everybody is saying to me that I look better than ever before. I tip the scales at 132 pounds and I am back working again to the astonishment of all. I feel splendid and people say I am looking better every day. I must tell you that every word I have written is true, and I can prove it by hundreds that knew of my condition. Jules Fricquet, 511 West First street, Los Angeles, Cal."

Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy is made from herbs and other beneficial ingredients and has been on the market for 40 years, a true indication of its value. Get a bottle today.
