3 WANT TO HEAD HOUSE

SPEAKERSHIP FIGHT LOOMS AMONG NORTHERN SOLONS.

E. H. Guie, Howard Lucas and Robert Grass Candidates for Honors in State Legislature.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Despite the fact that 65 members of the 1919 legislature formed a "round robin" and expressed their opposition to any effort to organize the lower body of the lawmakers before it convened, E. H. Guie, representative of Seattle, Wash., started today on a tour of the state to get enough pledges to insure his election as speaker of the next house.

Mr. Guie, who has been speaker of the house before, is looked upon as one of the most able parliamentarians in the state. Before he set out from Seattle it was reported that he had secured pledges of support from 15 of the 17 members of the King county delegation. He went to Spokane, Wash., and will visit all of the eastern part of the state before he returns home.

Representative Howard Lucas of Yakima, Wash., and Robert Grass of King county were both in Tacoma yesterday. Both are candidates for the speakership. Grass, however, if his first mode of campaign still obtains, will make a fight for an election at Olympia without a preliminary organization. But with Guie and Lucas already in the field, and both undoubtedly making every effort to organize the house in their own behalf, Grass will probably find considerable organized opposition to his candidacy the first week of the session.

phone company, with headquarters at Sutherlin, Or. Under the new order, individual business lines will cost $2.50 a month, while similar service in the residence districts will be charged for at the rate of $2 a month. Proportionate rates will prevail for other classifications of service. The order becomes effective November 15.

COLLEGE AFTER LOAFERS

Inattentive Students Will Be Weeded Out, Says Dean.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—This college is no place for students who do not make the best of their opportunities, and "every loafer will be weeded out," according to Dean Coveil, chairman of the scholarship committee, which is out to get results in a campaign for higher standards among students.

Every student who had unsatisfactory marks in midterm grades for two or more subjects will be interviewed personally by the committee, and worthy ones will be allowed to make up work before November 17. At the first of this term 41 students were placed on probation because of low grades for last year. If these same students are on probation at the end of this year it is probable that they will be asked to withdraw from the college, according to Dean Coveil.

It was gossiped about today, following the visit of Lucas and Grass to Tacoma, that suggestions were made to Lucas to get together with Guie and settle the matter of the campaign for speakership without unnecessary friction or contest. It was the opinion of Pierce county leaders that one or the other should agree to drop out of the race now. Both Lucas and Guie are acceptable to the house leadership, and both were declared to be excellent debaters and eminently fitted for the position.

BOY, 17, HELD FOR CRIME

CARL JOHNSON IS ANOTHER HUCKLEBERRY FINN.

Attempt to Kill Family of Five Declared by Prisoner to Have Been Made to Get $200.

NORTON, Kan., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Carl Johnson, 17 years old, shoved a grimy coffee pot back on a small stove in the county jail here Friday, parked a pair of over large feet encased in wool stockings in a ledge of the stove and recounted unemotionally his attempt to kill a family of five persons.

Johnson is held in default of a $1000 bond for attempting to exterminate the family of "Jack" Heiserman, a farmer near Almena, two weeks ago. He confessed to wounding a daughter and the grandmother. He said he had been hired by Elmer Heiserman, a son, to kill the entire family, a reward of $200 was promised if the latter's sister, father, mother, brother and grandmother were killed, Johnson says.

Heiserman was arrested following the shooting, but released on $1000 bond furnished by his father. Johnson gave the single suspender upon which the safety of his overalls depended a twitch, tightened the nail, acting as a support, and grinned through the bars.

"Don't see why they should keep me here when Elmer is out on bond," he said. "He's the one that suggested the shooting. He promised me $200, but I ain't seen none of it."

The boy's eyes shone bright as he contemplated the small fortune. The bullets which he fired through the window caused slight flesh wounds to Paye Heiserman and the grandmother. The bullet which struck them dropped from the wound when physicians bared the arm to dress it.

The youthful prisoner is a second

Huckleberry Finn made to order. His whole being savors of the outdoors; a sturdy body encased in overalls, a blue denim shirt opened at the collar exposing a neck unmarred by a hard collar, a large mouth with straight teeth set wide apart like rows of miniature tombstones and a tattered cap pulled at a rakish angle over his left eye surmounts a head of unkempt hair to which a comb has never been a stranger.

Suit for Taxes Authorized. SALEM, Or., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—The state treasurer's office today instructed Walter Evans, district attorney of Multnomah county, to file suit against the heirs of Anne Donovan, who died in Portland in 1909, to recover inheritance taxes on property valued at approximately $75,000. Under the law, according to the interpretation of the state treasurer, it is necessary to sue for inheritance taxes within five years after interest accrues, or the tax is presumed to have been paid. In case Mr. Evans is successful the state will recover between $1500 and $2000.

Columbia Grafonola No. A-2—Regardless of size, when a machine bears the name "Columbia" you know its merits as an instrument are unquestionable. For close quarters and easy handling this small Columbia Grafonola we especially recommend. $32.50

Columbia Grafonola No. C-2—This model Grafonola is similar to the above, except that it is slightly larger and has hinged cover, dust-proof and more ornamental in appearance. A full-toned instrument with quiet, easy-to-wind motor. $50

Columbia Grafonola No. D-2—This machine is, in all essentials, the "big" Grafonola reduced to stand table or portable use. Full size motor and sound chamber—a fine, very capable machine, the results of which are up to those of the very largest phonographs made. $75
