 have its bazaar on November 30 from 10 to 10 o'clock, with a special luncheon at 12:30, with Mrs. H. R. Wake-man as chairman.
 St. Stephens is to have a most attractive Christmas sale on December 2, in the assembly room of the Portland hotel. The famous Dinah dolls will be among the articles that will be sold.
 Trinity has set December 3 for its bazaar at the parish house on Nine-teenth street. Mrs. George Sterling will be in charge of the apron booth; Mrs. H. Beverley, baby booth; Mrs. R. M. C. Whitaker, dolls; Mrs. Warren Keller, delicatessen; Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, bags and fancy work; Mrs. W. C. Alvord, general utility booth; the altar guild, candy, and the mission guild will serve tea.
 Miss Virginia Huntington gave a luncheon Saturday at the Portland hotel. Those present were the Misses Josephine Horrey, Penelope Gehr, Pauline Bondurant, Ernestine King, Mary Clerin, Dorothy Todd, Katherine Short, Temple Ashby, Freda Runes, Solana Clay, Josephine Evans, Ruth Blandford, Mabel Parrish, Evelyn Lawrence, Sarah Nadeau and Helena Pittelkau.
 Mrs. Charles Rosenfeld and her daughter, Delphine, have recently returned from a six weeks' trip to New York City. Many beautiful things were added to the trousseau of Miss Rosenfeld whose marriage to Robert Koshland of San Francisco will be solemnized in December. The wedding will be a brilliant event, many of the bridegroom's friends and relatives coming from California for the occasion. Delphine Rosenfeld is one of Portland's most charming society girls. Mr. Koshland is the son of Marcus Koshland and is prominent in business affairs as well as socially.
 Miss Frances Hare will entertain on Saturday, November 20, at the Laurel-hurst clubhouse. This will be a festive event for members of the younger set.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Phillips of Condon are being congratulated on the birth of a son last Sunday morn-ing. He will be christened Frederick Marion Jr.
 Armistice day events were num-erous, but most of them were of a patriotic nature. The tree planting at St. Helens hall at 11 o'clock was one of the most notable. Bishop Sum-ner was master of ceremonies and the alumnae was well represented. It is planned that each class be repre-sented in the gardens of the school.

 Mr. and Mrs. George W. Black (Florence Kohn) are being congrat-ulated on the arrival of a daughter, born last Tuesday at the Portland Maternity hospital.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Le Doux, who are now on their wedding trip, will return soon to make their home in Portland. The marriage of Miss Edith Carver and Mr. Le Doux was an event of last Wednesday. The bride for-merly lived in Liverpool, England, and was greatly admired for her beauty, her sweet voice and her charming personality.
 The Y. W. C. A. Christmas bazaar, under the auspices of the member-ship committee, will be held at the association building, beginning Wednesday, December 1. Many charming "novelties" will be displayed and the "parcel post booth" is expected to cause a gale of merril-ment.
 The Monday Musical club will fur-nish the programme for an entertain-ment at the Y. W. C. A. Friday, No-vember 19, at 8 o'clock. The orchestra is composed of 21 pieces and a rare musical treat is anticipated. You are cordially invited to be the guest of the association at that time.

 On Friday evening, November 19, a social and musical event of interest will be an entertainment to be given in the Couch school auditorium for the benefit of the Maternity hospital.

the benefit of the milk fund. Mrs. George L. Williams is president of the Parent-Teacher association and Mrs. W. D. McWaters is chairman of the milk recesses. About 450 chil-dren are served daily with half-pint bottles of milk in Couch school. The association does a large amount of social service work and for this and to help the milk station the benefit is to be given.
 Among the attractions will be the Mignon chorus of 35 voices directed by Miss Ella Hobery Tripp, George C. Graham attired in kilts, will sing Scotch songs, and for his and will play the accompaniments.
 The police quartet will sing: George Hotchkiss Street will present Lavoff, soprano; Paul Gelvin, tenor; accom-ppanied by Miss I. Bottom. Walter Jenkins will lead the community singing. A small admission will be charged and a good attendance is anticipated.
 At a recent meeting of all former American Red Cross canteen workers of Portland it was decided to form a social and philanthropic club com-posed of these women. Since the canteen was closed many of these women have visited the various hos-pitals and sanatoriums, where ex-serve men are patients, regularly. Their interest in the soldier is, with them, a religion. For the purpose of creating a fund to provide for a few special cases that they are interested in they have decided to give a benefit dance Monday night, November 22. The Pythian hall at Park and Yam-hill has been obtained.
 By unanimous vote Mrs. Minnie Briggs Monroe was chosen chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. George Gill as joint chairman. All former workers who wish to join in this benefit are asked to get in touch with these committee women.
 One of the most attractive parties of the year was that given Saturday by Beta Nu chapter of the Nu Sigma Nu fraternity, University of Oregon medical school. The dance was well attended both by members of the active chapter, the alumni, and their friends. The Portland Heights club-house was tastefully decorated in au-tumn foliage.
 A list of those present is appended:
 Dr. and Mrs. Frank R. Menne, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Sears, Dr. and Mrs. George Burget, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Millett, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Watkins, Dr. and Mrs. Ray-mond Staub, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newcombe Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Barendrick, Mr. and Mrs. D. B.  LA GRANDE, Or., Nov. 13.—(Spe-cial).—Salt Lake will in the future become the meeting place for a happy pair whose romance started during the war. When E. L. Wright of La Grande visited London in October, 1918, with an aero squadron on his way to France he met Miss Edith Papworth.
 As Corporal Wright years before had been an L. D. S. missionary in Holland, he went to headquarters and there attended the English social, where he met Miss Papworth.
 The wedding will take place in Salt Lake City, after which the couple will make La Grande their future home.
