SCOUTS TO COMPLETE WITH SPOKANE.—The Boy Scouts of Portland have been challenged by the Spokane Scouts to secure more members than they do during the week of November 28 to December 4. The challenge has been accepted in this reply: "Challenge accepted. Step on the gas if you don't want to get run over. It is in compliance with a request from the national Scout organization all Scout councils are holding recruiting campaigns. Already many new Scouts have been secured in Portland, but special effort will be made during Spokane week. A special prize of a week at summer camp at Wahatun lake is offered to the boy who brings in the largest number of members."

BLIND MUSICIANS APPEAR TODAY.—Francis Richter, blind organist and pianist; Miss Marguerite Carney, blind soprano and the quartet of the Portland Opera association will furnish today's popular concert programme at the public auditorium. This is expected to be one of the best programmes of the season. It will start at 3 P. M. Mr. Richter is one of the most noted organists in the northwest and Miss Carney is known as one of Portland's best sopranos. The Portland Opera association quartet is comprised of Eloise Hall Cook, Katharine Corruccini, John Treharne and Mark Daniels. They will sing the quartet from the opera "Rigoletto" (Verdi).

READ BOYS VISIT EUGENE.—Thomas Brockway, editor of the Reed college Quest; William Stone, news editor, and James Hamilton, advertising manager, left last evening for Eugene where a conference of editors and staff members of student body newspapers representing almost every college and university in the northwest will discuss the problems of college publications. The conference began last Thursday, but the Reed representatives were unable to get away because of the game between Albany and Reed. Mr. Hamilton will be discussion leader on the "Attitude of the Advertiser Toward College Publications."

ANTI-ZONING LEAGUE SPENDS $1798.—The campaign against the zoning measure defeated at the recent election cost the Anti-Zoning league $1798.55, according to a statement of expenses, and disbursements filed with the city auditor yesterday by Webster L. Kneal, secretary. The donations for the contest came from 49 individuals, the Report shows. The largest item of expense was $915 for the obtaining of signatures on referendum petitions.

BISHOP SUMNER WILL BE SPEAKER.—Oregon City will pay tribute to the man who fought and fell in the cause of freedom today at a gathering of all the churches at the Methodist Episcopal church at 3 P. M. The Grand Army of the Republic, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Women's Relief corps and the American Legion will attend in a body. Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner of Portland will deliver the principal address of the day.

CHURCH CLUB CELEBRATED.—The Congregational club of St. Johns celebrated Armistice day by giving an interesting programme in Congregational church on Thursday evening. The club has sprung into existence with a membership of 58 live wire people and is promoting the social life of the Peninsula district.
