TERCENTENARY OF PILGRIMS' LANDING TO BE OBSERVED BY CHURCH

Congregationalists of Portland Vicinity to Begin Celebration of Historical Event With Illustrated Stereopticon Lecture by Rev. O. P. Avery Tuesday Night.

THE CONGREGATIONAL churches aided represent every state and more of Portland and vicinity begin than two-thirds of the cities and this week their celebration of the tercentenary of the landing of the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, Mass. Rev. O. P. Avery of the Waverley Heights church fires the first gun Tuesday night at the First Congregational church, when he delivers an illustrated stereopticon fecture on the forefathers of liberty.

The grand total, a considerable portion of which is now available for scholarships, has been apportioned as follows: Scholarship, $5,050,000; Americanization work, $500,000; considerable portion of which is now available for scholarships, has been apportioned as follows: Scholarship, $5,050,000; considerable portion of which is now available for scholarships, has been apportioned as follows: Scholarships, $50,050,000; constitutional lecture service, $125,000; educational lecture service, chiefly in rural communities, $100,000; publicity, supervision and deministration, $325,000.

Rev. Mr. Avery has read widely and Daughters of the American Revolu-This lecture will be given the following week in other Congregational churches of Fortland. Rev. E. E. Flint of the Atkinson Memorial church is preparing a pageant and the Y. M. C. A. in educating them-Hev. Edward Constant of the High- selves. land church is getting up an exhibit, while Dr. McElveen is giving a series of lectures before various bedies on "The Pilgrim." Monday morning he followed by the control of university students are followed by the control of the con "The Pilgrim." Monday morning he addresses the Methodist ministers at the meeting at the First Methodist church. He is to address the Daughters of the American Revolution on the same subject November 23, and is to speak in The Dalles on "The Pilgrim Foremothers," November 18. He has been invited to address the disgrim Foremothers," November 19. He has been invited to address the district Kiwanis convention in Tacoma, Friday, November 26.

Services Are Historical.

The united congregations of Centenary and Wilbur churches, to be known as the Centenary-Wilbur church, will worship together for the first time. The two Sunday schools will meet in joint session at 9:45 A. M. Dr. E. C. Hickman, pastor of Wilbur church, who becomes temporarily associate pastor of the united church. will preach in the morning. Dr. Frank L. Wemett. pastor of Centenary, will bining and enlarging the special feat-ures which have been carried forward by the separate organizations to date. the juvenile court and public welfare bureau, the hospitals and kindred organizations. This staff is taken over nto the new organization and the ork will be carried forward on a larger scale than was possible before. Plans will be completed in the near future for the erection of a commun-ity building and Sunday school temple, which will adequately house the varlous activities of the church.

Churches Merge Work.

The Rodney avenue and Woodlawn Christian churches have recently merged their work, effecting a new church organization, for the purpose of erecting a new building on a lot on the corner of Mallory avenue and affair.

Alberta street. In order to secure centralization of effort and efficiency The new house of worship is completed. A special street car, which will run on Union avenue between, Woodlawn that coddled the new organization and Albina, has been chartered for the purpose of transporting Bible endeavorers, together with the direct-the ministry at the University of Ore-gon and Eugene Bible university. He speak about this celebration at the has served the Woodlawn church as pastor for the past three years.

Sunday School Convention Friday.

innual convention at the First Christian church, Park and Columbia streets. A full programme for the entire day from 9:30 A. M. until 10 P. M., is announced, the final number ing an informal reception to the new state general secretary, Norman Ernest W. Peterson, county president, will preside at all ses-

A feature of the convention will be the exhibit of handwork from all de-partments, collected by Mrs. S. Ears superintendent of the chil-mence at 1:45 P. M., with an inspira-tional address by Dr. Lewis S. Chafer of New York, an instructor in the Moody Bible institute. Dr. Harold 14.45 P. M. There will be reports from Bible class for young women of the Moody Bible institute. Dr. Harold Leonard Bowman, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will then give a special address on "The Lamb, the Lion and the Child." The programme of the Sunday school association outlined to the delegates by Mr. Johnson. The actual business session and election of officers will conclude the afternoon's programme.

and church people will be served in parlors of the church at 6 15 ernoon. Harley K. Hallgren, county vicepresident, will act as toastmaster. The evening programme will start 7:30 P. M. with an address by Mrs. W. F. Wright, who, for five years beher marriage, was a member of y Sunday's evangelistic team. Dr. E. C. Hickman, associate paster of will close the convention | freas, "The Teacher and with an address. Personal Evangelism." Following the adjournment the reception for Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be given in the president include: Nominating, Eliton Shaw and Harley K. Hallgren; res-olutions, H. R. Scheurman and C. C.

Men's Christian association for free lent work of a chorus choir with able scholarships and educational service soloists furnishes a valuable and infor former service men. The latest spiring factor in these services. The appropriation, of $1.960, 10 just announced, brings the total to $6,100, 000.

Free scholarship awards have been given to 38,582 former service men, reels of moving pictures on educational service secretary, and C. R. Peake, treasurer.

The music of the Soul. The excel-vice-president; Rex Morse, secretary, and C. R. Peake, treasurer.

The men of Mount Tabor Presby-appropriation, of $1.960, 10 just announced, brings the total to $6,100, 000.

The Music of the Soul. The excel-vice-president; Rex Morse, secretary, and C. R. Peake, treasurer.

The men of Mount Tabor Presby-appropriation, of $1.960, 10 just announced, brings the total to $6,100, 000.

The Music of the Soul. The excel-vice-president; Rex Morse, secretary, and C. R. Peake, treasurer.

The men of Mount Tabor Presby-appropriation, of $1.960, 10 just announced, brings the total to $6,100 total to counties of the union, the committe

Seven thousand volunteers, serving has spent considerable effort in gath-ering the hundred choice views that will be shown. Members of several The large number of applications remaining on file will be considered tion organizations will be present. In apportioning the latest appropriawas discussed.

As an example of what some people think of the religious life of the university, an incident was related where Services of historic interest to the church life of Portland will be held at Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, East Ninth and Pine streets. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The united congregations of Canaday and Canaday an co-operate more closely with the downtown churches and help arouse interest in the Bible study courses.

Community Work Will Aid Church Efforts.

Closer Relations Are Planned by First Congregationalists.

DR. H. D. HASKINS, director of the The united church will launch immediately an intensive community and social-service programme. comnounces a programme by which the church will serve the community and the community will express itself so sisting of boys' work director and grains visitor, will be continued. The Wilbur church staff has been specializing in work in co-operation with the invanil. cially and recreationally through the men from her class will be at home at the church Sunday afternoons. There will be a brief musical programme, a reading, and a cup of tea to add to the sociability. Friday evening, December 3, there will be a community party. There will be moving pictures, opportunities for neighborliness, and some light refreshments. Dr. Hasking, committee is inviting the people who are making the people. kins' committee is inviting the people of the immediate neighborhood of the church to attend the forefathers' lecture next Tuesday night, and the hard times sociable Tuesday, November 23. Dr. McElveen's current event lectures Thursday evenings, at which he inter-prets the significance of recent happenings, have become a community

The public welfare bureau of Portin administration, both congregations land was born 32 years ago in the will meet at Rodney avenue until the parlors of the First Congregational church. The Christian Endeavor soschool pupils and church goers to and ors of the public welfare bureau, are from the services.

Rev. Joseph D. Boyd, city missionary for the Christian churches, is pastor of the merged church. Rev. spending more than $100,000 a year Boyd received his preparation for in deeds of mercy. Carol McEwen, ministry at the University of Ore-meeting tonight at 6:30 o'clock. The Rodney avenue church was organized in 1899 and the Woodlawn Christian church in 1903. The history cate With the Dead?" will be Dr. of each church is gratifying as a rec- W. T. McElveen's topic at the Firs ord of service rendered in their respective communities. In their combined strength the two churches will render more adequate service in northeast Portland.

W. I. McElveen's topic at morning.

Congregational church this morning.

Mr. Edison is not a very firm believer in the supernatural, yet he thinks that by a mechanical device he may relate himself to the spiritual It is this aspect of the The Sunday schools of Multnomah tion that the Congregational minister will meet next Friday for their will discuss. Dr. McElveen spent two days last week in Tacoma lecturing an church, Park and Columbia to the ministerial all'ance of that city. The evening audiences crowded arranged and refreshments will be the First Methodist church. The doctor spoke before the Kiwanis club and the Commercial association at the Puget Sound college and at the Lincoln High school, in addition to giv-at the ministerial conference. morning sermon at Atkinson Memo-rial Congregational church today at The morning session will open at $3.0 o'clock with a short devotional session, followed by 25-minute talks by Miss Georgia Parker, Willard Rouse and William F. Daut. At 11 o'clock Mr. Johnson will direct an hour's conference on adult work. Potlack luncheon will be served at noon. Mrs. L. C. Wilkinson will preside at the luncheon.

The morning session will open at $3.0 o'clock. During the months of November and December, certain Sunday, and the Schubert club, also directed by Mr. Belcher, will render a musical programme at St. Helens, Or., Wednesday night. This entertainment will be given in the interests of the luncheon.

Making and will be llustrated by a special reel of moving pictures. The community church aims to give services. During the months of 11 o'clock.

all committees and light refresh-organized with the patrols. The contest between the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts has resulted in completing the full membership of both. No. 4 will entertain the women's association at the home of Mrs. Flint, 68% East Flanders street, Wednesday afternoon. There will be a business meeting at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Hale Bliss will speak to the women at 3 o'clock toward going "Over the Top. and Mrs. Palmer will follow with a Otto Wedemeyer, director and bari-report of the work done in Japan. A tone of the quartet choir, will be the sliver offering will be accepted.

There will be Armistice day servlees today at Highland Congregation-al church. This morning the pastor, heartly into this contest. Meetings Rev. Edward Constant, will preach on are at 12 and 4 o'clock in room E of al church. This morning are at 1.

Rev. Edward Constant, will preach on "Meeting the World's Cry for Peace." There will be a special programme for the evening, including the presentation of a flag to a department of the Bible school and exercises by a class from the school. There also will be choruses by a young ladles' choir, an original poem by Mr. Taylor and an address by the pastor on "Our Fallen Heroes."

The Secret of Jacob's Business Success" will be the subject of Rev. Donald W. M. MacCluer's Sunday morning sermon at Rose City Park Presbyterian church. At night "The Return of the Mayflower" will be made the subject of a patriotic service in honor of Armistice day and the 300th anniversary of the arrival of shaw and Harley K. Hailgren; resplictions, H. R. Scheurman and C. C. Hessemer; ushers, George Porter; music, J. F. Faust. The Sunday school of the entertaining church will furnish all special music.

Y. M. C. A. Appropriates 86,100,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—More than $5,000,000 has been appropriated by the war work council of the Young. Men's Christian association for free Men's Christian day and the free in honor of Armistice day and the fr educational service committee has tional and industrial subjects in the Wells, secretary, and G. C. Blohm, lecture room of the church Friday treasurer. ing an outlay of $2,367,895. The men evening, November 19.

Presbyterians to Entertain Distinguished Visitors.

Banquet Will Be Given Friday for Rev. Messrs, Palmer and Vance.

THE congregation of the First Pres L byterian church, Twelfth and Alder streets, will hear two sermons today from their pastor, Rev. Harold Leonard Bowman, D. D. The morning subject will be "The Unseen Guest," with a text from St. Luke's account of Jesus' walk to Emmaus with two of the believers after the resurrection. This will be a plea for the recognition of the presence of Jesus in our homes as the unseen street at all homes as the unseen guest at all times. In the evening Dr. Bowman will preach on "Soul Architecture," using as a text the words of St. Paul in which he urges men to take heed as to the building of their characters, inasmuch as they are the temples of

As a prelude to the evening service, Mr. Coursen will give an organ recital, beginning at 7:15, with the following programme: "Offertory in E Fiat" (Wely). "March From Maaman" (Costa) and "Intermezzo" (Bizet).

The Sunday school, which meets at

The Sunday school, which meets at noon, had a record-breaking attendance of 1016 last Sunday. The school is carefully graded, with departments and classes for all ages, and a cor-dial welcome will be extended to those who are not engaged in this

Friday night will be an important event in the history of Presbyterianism in the city, the vist of two well-known ministers from eastern cities, who are making a tour of the country in the interests of the world-wide work of this church. The visitors will known ministers from eastern cities, who are making a tour of the country in the Interests of the world-wide work of this church. The visitors will be Rev. S. S. Palmer, D. D., from Columbus, O., who is moderator of the general assembly, and Rev. Joseph Vance, from Detroit, Mich., who was the successor of Rev. John H. Boyd in that city, and is one of the best known men of his denomination. These men will be heard at a suppergiven by the Presbyterian of the city at the First Church Friday night.

At Central Presbyterian church. East Thirteenth and East Pine streets, the morning sermon will be delivered by Per Lewis Sparry Chaffer of New Le

East Thirteenth and East Pine streets, the morning sermon will be delivered by Rev. Lewis Sperry Chafer of New render a selection and Mrs. Arthur G. Harbaugh will sing, "God Be Merciful" by Bartlett.

man of the First Presbyterian church gave the principal address.

The monthly tea will be given by the Women's society of the church next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Watt, 775 Wasco A good programme has been served.

The Men's club of Central Presbyterian church will hold its monthly dinner at 6:30 P. M. Wednesday in the club rooms of the church.

ommunity church aims to give serv-ce for the entire community. the International Adult Bible class contest. A telegram from Chicago ice for the entire community. | contest. A telegram from Chicago
The junior Endeavor society will headquarters was received Saturday First Presbyterian church was second in position, while the Warren Vesper class was holding third place.

There was a spirited manifestaton of enthusiasm when the announce-ment was made. The atendance in Circle 307 in the classes last Sunday, with many new names enrolled. One of the points of contest is a half-hour reading of the Bible through each week and all members answered in the af-firmative, which will give an advance soloist for today. The full orchestra

Divine Science church, 11 A. M. this morning on the subje The club will have full charge

o prominent figures in the winter activities of Portland churches and one of the attractive church buildings of the city: I—Rev. Byron J. Clark, pastor of First United Breth ren church. 2—First Norwegian-Danlsh Methodist church, Eighteenth and Hoyt atreets. 3—Rev. Harold L.

will preside. A. E. Larimer, new ex-ecutive secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will give the main address on men's will give the main address on men's work in the community. Harold L. Graham will be the soloist, and the men's chorus will sing "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Members of the club will take other parts of the service. The pastor, Ward W. Machenry, preaches in the moraling on "Think on These Things."

The 28th anniversary of the organ-tertained 55 mothers and small total of the beginners' department of the Sunday school in the church Tuesday afternoon with a delightful programme and light refreshments. The fall meeting of Portland Pres-duct today's services of Piedmont Presbyterian church, Cleveland av-enue and Jarret street. The morning The annual praise and thank offering meeting held by the women of the church Wednesday was well atended and a large offering made. Dr. Bowwill be held at $1.50 P.

will be held at $1.50 P. will be held at 6:30 P. M.

Services at Unity Presbyterian church, East Seventy-first street and Sandy boulevard, will be conducted today by the pastor, Rev. S. W. Se. mann. The morning subject will be "God's Ability" and the evening sermon "The Conversion of a Great General."

Westminster Presbyterian church ing an afternoon and evening address at the ministerial conference.

"Christ Our Creditor" will be the topic of Rev. Elbert E. Flint in his in the club rooms of the church. The the church and sendyler streets, is fortunate to have two strong speakers today. Rev. Mr. Nugent, D. D., of the church and the men of the men of the men of the Moody Bible Institute, now in borhood are invited to jon the men of Central Presbyterian church.

The chorus, which sings each Sunday, and the Schubert club, also directed by Mr. Beicher, will render a musical programme at St. Helens, Or.

The Bible school is the largest in the history of the organization. Last Sunday the attendance record was again broken with 637 present, and the average for the past six weeks has been over 600. The primary and beginners' department, we believe, is the largest in the city; the attendance last week was 22%. We fear our plans for a special department building will have to be still more enlarged.
At 12:10 in the chapel room the Men's club has arranged an interesting programme. R. W. Neighbor is to speak on the "Trial and Crucifixion of Jesus."

of Jesus."
At 5.30 the Young People's society will have a novel campfire meeting, with the topic of "Forward." This society has grown 100 per cent in interest and numbers. Woman's association has occasion when the mite boxes are to speaker at the Men's Resort meeting today at 4 P. M. Ray McAuley will sing "The Holy City" with the Men's Resort orchestra. The men will sing another special song. At 7:30 P. M. Rev. Levi Johnson will continue his programme is in honor of Dr. Episcopal church. The Sundar This programme is in honor of Dr.

KELSO, Wash., Nov. 13 .- (Special.) The ladies of the Presbyterian church of Kelso will hold their annual bazsar in the church basement rady, December 3. Dinner fill be served. This is the first in the series

Rev. T. M. Minard, pastor of the

"The Homeland" Is Topic of Morning Sermon.

Side Baptist Church Also Will Have Baptism.

Think on These Things."

The 28th anniversary of the organization of the church will be celebrated thurch. East Twentieth and Salmon streets. At 11 o'clock he will preach on "The Homeland," and at 7:30 or chestra and Mrs. Jean Warren Carlick and Miss Amy Warren will give a short talk.

Will preach today, morning and evening, at the East Side Baptist church, East Twentieth and Salmon streets. At 11 o'clock he will preach on "The Homeland," and at 7:30 or chestra and Mrs. Jean Warren Carlick and Miss Amy Warren will give a short talk.

Will preach today, morning and evening, at the East Side Baptist church, East Twentieth and Salmon streets. At 11 o'clock he will preach on "The Homeland," and at 7:30 or chestra and Mrs. Jean Warren Carlick and Miss Amy Warren will give a sacred concert in the Mann home some soundary at 3 P. M. The pastor will give his regular tental proposed in the morning service.

Mrs. Daut and Mrs. R. C. Long entertained 55 mothers and small tots the Faith." Last week he spoke on the will visit several theological semi-like tion of the church stalem.

Dr. Youngson will return to Portland Wednesday night, stopping at Salem.

Wednesday afternoon at kimball School of Theology in memory of H. J. Talbot, late president of the school. Dr. Youngson will return to Portland Wednesday night, stopping at Salem.

Wednesday afternoon at kimball School of Theology in memory of H. J. Talbot, late president of the school. Dr. Youngson will return to Portland Wednesday night, stopping at Salem.

Wednesday afternoon at kimball School of Theology in memory of H. J. Talbot, late president of the school. Dr. Youngson will return to Portland Wednesday night, stopping at Salem.

Wednesday afternoon at kimball School of Theology in memory of H. J. Talbot, late president of the school of Theology in memory of H. J. Talbot, late president of the school of Theology in memory of H. J. Talbot, late president of the school of Theology in memory of H. J. Talbot, late president of the school of Theology in memory of H. J. Ta associational m'ssionary in pastorate avenue, one block east of the Sellwood charge of Cove, North Powder and carline. Enterprise churches, will assist.

day. Dr. Lewis S. Chafer will con-tinue his teaching this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and also will preach in Epworth league Tuesday. Wednesday sing at morning and evening services and Friday at Central church. urgent invitation is extended to Congregational Women to Meet Wednesday.

Mothers to Sew While Babes Enjoy Kindergarten.

THE Congregational women are to enjoy a doube-header on Wednesday. In the morning the Women's association will meet for sociability and Bible talks and Wednesday night at 8 o'clock the young people from the First Unite.—sthren church will hold their monthly meeting.

This programme is in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Kellogg, the mission aries of the First church, who are serving in Foothow, China. Last week the women sent to Dr. and Mrs. Kellog women sent to Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Kellog women sent to Br. and Br. the women sent to Dr. and Mrs. Kel-the devotionals. Mr. Little will give a map talk on that district in China.

Dr. Youngson Visits South Section of State.

Methodist District Superintendent Lays Cornerstone of Church.

R. WILLIAM W. YOUNGSON, district superintendent of Methodist churches of Portland, left here Thursday night on a trip to southern Oregon. He spoke at a public meeting at Klamath Falls. Or., Friday evening at Klamath Falls. Or., Friday evening under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of that city.

Dr. Youngson will speak at both services today at Lakeview. Or., Methodist church, and at 3 o'clock this afternoon will lay the cornerstone of the new Methodist church of Lakeview. In this ceremony he will be the personal representative of W. J. Kerr, president of Oregon Agri-THE REV. W. B. HINSON, D. D. will preach today, morning and evening, at the East Side Baptist Eakeview. In this ceremony he will be the personal representative of W. J. Kerr, president of Oregon Agricultural college, who is grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon Masons, Dr. Youngson will return to Portland Wednesday night, stopping at Salem. Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 4 o'clock, Dr. Hinson will give his regular weekly lecture on "The Facts of the Faith." Last week he spoke on "What Constitutes Peace With God."

These Thursday lectures are scriptural and non-sectarian.

—Last Sunday 36 new members received the hand of fellowship. The monthly reports read at the midweek service last Wednesday showed a spiendid condition in all departments.

Where he will attend the annual meeting of the board of home missions and church extension. While in the east he will visit several theological seminaries, including Drew. in Madison. N. J., Boston, and Garrett, in Evanstice the Young People's society will celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian celebrate its first anniversary. On of the Young celebrate its first anniversary. On of the New Christian cese, the Right Rev. Walter T. Sumnaries, Including Drew. in Madison. N. J., Boston, and Garrett, in Evanstice the Young people's society will preach. At this service the Young people's society will preach and will confirm a class of adults at the morning service.

Bishop Sumner announces that the Rev. John B. McCormick has been apparticularly the other world experiments.

Beginning next Tuesday and continuing until Saturday noon, an institute for the Baptist ministers of the state will be held in this church. The state will be held in this church. The state will be composed of Dr. H. F. Stillwell, Dr. Rolvix Harlan and Dr. R. N. West, is making a four of the Pacific chast states.

The Divine Method of Reaching Men" is the theme of the morning at the Third Baptist church.

The outstanding feature of the really strong mick of Grand Rapids, Mich. He was born at Baltimore and graduated from the Western Theological seminary in the Weste Dr. Elliott is one of the really strong mick of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The evening worship will open with a gospel song service, led by the new chorister, Mrs. Lou Gray. "Choosing Life" will be the theme of the evening sermon.

An intermediate young people's society has been organized, with Mrs. R. J. Wuner as superintendent and Level Schedule. The intermediate young people's society has been organized. The intermediate young people's society has been organized. The intermediate will be music by the choir, intermediate young people with Deputing a mixed country with Deputing and the country with Deputing and t Lauren Sykes as president. The in-termediate society will meet at 6:30 fessor F. C. Streyfeller as leader and o'clock this evening in the Abernathy Miss Helen Gordon organist. Johns is reported. The initial service held last Sunday in Bickner's hall was well attended. Special music has COVE, Or, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—E.

C. Bentley, state evangelist, opened a series of revival services in Caivary Baptist church in Cove Sunday on annual rolicall of membership day, with an all-day service, interrupted at noon with a basket lunch and social hour.

Miss Helen Gordon organist.

The Sunday school meets at 9:45.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick on a service of the service is held in Bick of the Sunday school meets at 9:45.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick on a service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick of the service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in Bick of the service today and a new class has since been organist.

There were 253 present last Sunday at 3 P. M., including a solo by Ger trude Ost. A service is held in B with a basket lunch and social hour, be a union Thanksgiving service at East Seventeenth and Schuyler streets, and adjourned with a business ses- this church at 10 o'clock on Thankssion, when financial, music and enter-tainment committees were appointed, the Sellwood Baptist church will looking toward a month's campaign, Rev. D. Loren, Grand Ronde Baptist East Fifteenth street and Tacoma

> Armistice day will receive honor at he Woodlawn Methodist Episcopal Speakers from the Moody Bible in-the Woodlawn Methodist Episcopal stitute now being held at the First church morning service today; also the "win-my-chum" week campaign, occupy the pulpit of that church to- which begins today, will be initiated. the evening. The temple quartet will at Woodlawn church, and Thursday

Methodist women of Portland are requested to reserve Saturday, November 20, for the district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, which will be held in Woodstock church, East Forty-fourth street and Woodstock avenue, beginning at 10 A. M. Basket luncheon will be served at noon. Addresses will be given by Mrs. Matt S. Hughes and given by Mrs. Matt. Mrs. C. W. Huett.

At First Norwegian Danish Methodlst Episcopal church, Eighteenth and Hoyt streets, Rev. C. August Peplanned a praise service meeting for service. While their mothers sew for A. M. and 7:45 P. M. The morning Monday at 2:30. This will be the the hazaar that is to be held Tuesday. the bazaar that is to be held Tuesday, subject will be "Contrary Winds" and Rev. W. E. BRINKMAN, who has November 30, a professional kinder- the night topic "Freedom by the Rev. P. O. Bonebrake will be the kiddles. Hot luncheon will be served meeting from 6 P. M. to 7.45 P. M.

"Jonah, the Preacher Who Back called a "Kellogg Programme" will slid," will be the topic of the night be given. Episcopal church. The Sunday school session will start at 10 A. M. and the night sermon at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Charles W. Huett will conduc the women sent to Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg a fine table phonograph and about 50 records as a Christmas present. It is sent thus early that it may arrive in Shaowu, China, where the Kelloggs live, before the celebration of Christ's natal day.

Mrs. Frederick Kribs will be the soloist at this Kellogg meeting on Wednesday. Mrs. Brigger will conduct

The Methodist Episcopal church, East

The first missionary work which and Alameda streets. The subject of the morning sermon will be "Despondency and God's Response to It." and "True Goodness" history.

The first missionary work which resulted in the organization of St. James church was begun in 1889 by the Rev. G. H. Gerberding, then of Fargo, N. D. Before the close of the soloist at this Kellogg meeting on Wednesday. Mrs. Brigger will conduct Mrs. Harold Gilbert will give an interesting personal sketch of these two efficient missionaries and Mrs. W. H. Phillips will give a graphic resume of their many-sided works.

The Church of Divine Truth will hold services today at 11 A. M. and 3 P. M. in room 412 Central building.

Cial revival campaign beginning Sunday, November 14, and lasting two articles of agreement and the rules of government. Six of the charter members are still with the congregation. Their names are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. Wickline, Mrs. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen, Mrs. P. Blankholm.

Bohnsen, Mrs. P. Blankholm.

During the 30 members signing the articles of agreement and the rules gian will assist the pastor in the members are still with the congregation. Their names are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. Wickline, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bohnsen, Mrs. P. Blankholm.

During the 30 years of its development. Six of the charter members are still with the congregation.

will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. a large active body of church mem-W. N. Byars. The Epworth league bers. The church is in a prosper-will hold a sunrise prayer meeting at 1.30 octock this morning. The night date its complete church building in-service will be of special interest to young people, as it is the first of the observation of "win-my-chum" ek. Dr. Hickman will be in charge of one of the week-night meetings.

Laurelhurst Methodist Episcopal to attend the study classes, church will observe "win-my-chum" week, beginning tonight, with spe-cial services led by the pastor, Rev. F. E. Finley. Last night groups of young people, members of the Ep-worth league chapter of the church, sang in the streets of the community leste Albin, 1411 Michigan avenue, s the opening feature of the week's beervance. Meetings will be held at :30 o'clock every night, to which the public is invited.

The Scientific Christian Spiritualist Church Center, inc., will hold services in Alisky hall, on Morrison near third street, at 2 and 8 P. M. today, R. M. Singeton, the pastor, and J. Wilson, assistant, will conduct the services. An inspired lecture by the assistant pastor at 8 o'clock. Messages will be given to public by various mediums. Sunday school for chil dren at 5 o'clock and circle 'at the

The Epworth leagues of the Portland district will observe the follow-ing week, November 14 to 21, inclu-sive, as their annual "win-my-chum" sive, as their annual "win-my-chum" be the contraito and baritone duet, week. A number of the leagues have arranged for special speakers. Each league will hold services in its own and Mr. Guy Mannan. In the evening church.

league will hold services in its own; and Mr. Guy Mannan. In the evening at 7:45 the pastor will speak on Sunday. November 21, at 3 P. M. "Cave-itis," taking his lead from Lord Bacon's d'sserfation on "idols of the young people and a commission service for Miss Evelyn Full, who leaves John, "Little children, guard youryoung people and a commission service for Miss Evelyn Full, who leaves for Pekin, China, December I, will be leves from idois."

In charge of Rev. W. W. Youngson.

Armistice Day Services at Pro-Cathedral.

ments.

Dr. Hinson spoke to the students of McMinnville college last week, a ministry he has been exercising every fortnight for 11 years.

Beginning next Tuesday and con-

East Thirteenth and East Pine streets, the morning sermon will be delivered by Rev. Lewis Sperry Chafer of New York, who is now active in the Moody Bible institute work, At this service, the chorus directed by Mr. Beicher, will sing. "Unfold Ye Portals," by Gounod, also "The Lost Sheep," by Jordan.

At the evening service the eighth illustrated lecture of a series of the Hillustrated lecture of a series of the light and on Tuesday. Wednesday, and on Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday night at 7:5. E. T. The vicar explains that this does not hillustrated lecture of a series of the hillustrated lecture of a series of the limits and on Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday nights at 7:5. E. T. Growell will be the special make these of war upon the best considers of the American people; and that the war upon the best considers of the American people; and the war upon the best considers of the church special music will be a feature each night.

This work the coming winter will be delivered the Mondy of Reaching great than he will hereference to Armistice day, will be the church this week will and a larger salary than he will here the dat St. Andrew's Episcopal church, this work in First church this week will a series of the work in First church this week will a series of the dat St. Andrew's Episcopal church, this will be the series of the work in First church this week will be the test of the series of the work in First church this week will a series of the work in First church this week will be the last of a series of the work in First church this week will be the permanent of the blody. This the theme of the morning at 11 o'clock Rev. The might service that the chorus the church the work in First church this week will be the permanent of the blody. The Republic as a Goldwin the chorus the church the work in First church this week will be the Epscopal church, the church this week will a series of the best time expenditures, the real scands of the war proves to be the lack o gratitude to the men who served civ

Great Interest in the work established by the Episcopal church at St. held last Sunday in Bickner's hall was well attended. Special music has been arranged for the service today

made plans
"which will
There will will celebrate its first anniversary next Sunday. The usual regular meeting will be dispensed with, and all members and their friends are asked to assemble at 5:30 P. M. in the parish house, at the corner of Thirteenth and Clay streets, where they will partake of a supper especially prepared by the young women of the society.

The honored guests of the evening will be the Right Rev. Walter Taylor
Summer, D. D., bishop of the diocese; the Very Rev Reginals T T Hicks. dean; Mrs. Wilson Johnston and sev eral others.

The following programme has been arranged: Violin solo, Helen Burke; short talk, "Our First Year's Accomplishments," Myla Chambers; vocal solo, W. O. Robertson; reading, Claire E. Wilson; short talk. "The Future of Our Society," Theodore E. Ditte-brandt; vocal solo, Muriel Thomas. At the conclusion of the programm the Young People's society will go to the cathedral in a body, where Bishop Sumner will preach a special arm stice anniversary sermon, the public are most cordially invited.

Lutheran Pastor to Recall History of Church.

Rev. W. E. Brinkman to Conduc Special Services Today, the east after attending the biennial convention of the United Lutheran church of America, held in Washington, D. C., will conduct special services at St. James church Sunday in observance of the 30th anniversary year of the church's organization in Portland.

The pastor will deliver a special sermon touching upon outstanding features of the congregation's devel opment during the 30 years of its as regular pastor. The first services every Sunday afternoon at 5:30 are a every Sunday afternoon at 5:30 are a success and offer home surroundings and Christian companionship to the The Clinton Kelly Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, East Fortieth The permanent organization of th to which Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg min-ister. and Powell streets, will begin a spe-cial revival campaign beginning Sun-15, 1890, with 30 members signing the meetings on some of the afternoons after public school hours.

Both services today at Lincoln Methodist Episcopal church, East Fifty-second and East Lincoln streets, the church at the present time is one of the largest of the Lutheran church on the coast and has a large active body of cheer of the largest of the largest services continuing through the week regular session Sunday at 9:50 A. M. Miss Celeste Albins is superintendent. Classes have been organized for young and old and a special welcome will be extended to the children and adults

The St. James Young People's Lu-theran league will hold its devotional services Sunday evening in the The St. James Young Ladles' Guild will meet at the home of Miss Ce-

"Organized Christianity" Is Sermon Topic.

Friday to Be Busy Day at First Christian, With Two Meets.

THE place and power of organized Christianity in the life of the community will be the general theme of worship this morning at the First Christian church. The pastor, Rev. Harold H. Griffis, will speak at 11 A. M., having for his definite topic, "The Seven-Branched Candlestick." A feature of the musical programme by the church quartet will

Friday will be an unusually busy day at this church, with two simultaneous programmes in different sec-tions of the building. The county Sunday school convention will hold forth in the main auditorium, while in the lecture room will be held the quarterly meeting of the Federated Missionary societies of Portland particularly the other world experi-ence of Dick Desborough, who appears after his death to his wife and after his death to his wife and friends. The significance of the increasingly frequent occurrence of the

"Mortals and Immortals"

Is Sunday Theme. Christian Science Churches Hold Regular Services Morning and Evening.

"M ORTALS and Immortals" will be the subject of the lesson sermon in Christian Science churches All Christian Science churches hold regular services this morning at 11 o'clock and all except the Fifth and Seventh churches hold evening services at 8. Wednesday-evening meetings, held in all churches at 8 o'clck, ence healings. Sunday school for pupils to the age of 20 is held in all the churches at churches, which hold their sessions at 9:30 and 11 o'clock. The churches are located as fol-

First church, Nineteenth and Everett streets. Second church, East Sixth and Holladay Third church, East Twelfth and Salmon Fourth church, Vancouver avenue and merson street. Fifth church, Sixty-second avenue and Forty-second street S. E. Sixth church, Pythian temple, 388 Yam-Seventh church, 403 Smith avenue, St. Johns, Evangelist Dickson will speak in Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and topic, "Cutting the World's Canker at Its Source," which will be a disclosure of the virus of anarchy. Special music of a rich character has been arranged under direction of Professor Colcord. A big song service will precede the lecture. Everybody is in-

H. Edward Mills will address the Realization league at 11 A. M. in the Modern Conservatory of Music, 148 Thirteenth street, on "Thoughts and Things," and at the Portland hotel at 8 P. M. on "The Significance of Unity."

Young People Inaugurate Helpful Movement.

Open House Meetings Successful at Our Saviour's Church.

THE young people of Our Savior's Lutheran church have inaugurated a movement that is proving very students and other young Lutherans in the city. The programme to be given Sunday will be in charge of visitors in the city.

The morning service will be in English Rev. M. A. Christensen preaching. The first in a series of missionary rallies will be held in the Bethlehem Lutheran church