Christmas spirit, is worked out in the play. There will be old carols sung to intensify the atmosphere of the play. A ballet of children who are the fruits and flowers will be a charming feature of the pageant. Miss Elizabeth Barnes, assisted by Miss Helen Brong, has charge of the direction of the play. Mrs. Norman Christie, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., young women and girls from the different social groups of the organization, and young men from the Y. M. C. A. will fill the various roles.

Miss Wilberta Babbidge is ballet director and premiere dancer. Miss Louise Huntley will direct the carols with Miss Ethel Sawyer and Mrs. George Rebas as general advisers for the costumes. Miss Nell Pipes of the Oregon Historical association will have charge of the period stage setting and properties.

Rehearsals are progressing very rapidly and the "Trimming of the Tree" promises to be one of the most interesting holiday events.

Many charming novelties will be displayed at the Christmas bazaar which is being planned by the membership committee of the Y. W. C. A. The bazaar will be given in the association building beginning December 1. The members of the committee are meeting once a week to make delivery gifts and make arrangements for the bazaar. Miss Carolyn F. Bickel is chairman of the bazaar committee and Mrs. John Pearson chairman of the membership committee. Other members of the committee who are doing so much to make the bazaar a success are:

Miss Florence Stackpole, Mrs. M. L. Hardwick, Mrs. Willis Dunaway, Mrs. George Dickey, Mrs. Robert Lord, Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews, Mrs. J. E. Terry, L. Ward White, Mrs. Hugh McGuire, Mrs. Jessie Stearns, Mrs. F. J. Riley, Mrs. David Goodell, Mrs. M. E. Reid, Mrs. Loring K. Adams, Mrs. C. W. Fulton, Mrs. H. M. Haller, Mrs. C. W. King, Mrs. H. B. VanDusen, Mrs. Henry Henderson, Mrs. F. N. Pratt and Mrs. Paul M. French.

A charming young matron being welcomed socially is Mrs. C. S. Jensen. Mrs. Jensen was an attractive guest at Mrs. O'Gorman's tea. She wore a smart fur coat and a becoming velvet hat and was greatly admired.

General Hunter Light will be a guest of Hill military academy November 30 and at that time will inspect the battalion.

Mrs. John J. Valentine, a prominent society matron of California, was entertained extensively here during the past fortnight. Mrs. and Mrs. H. L. Van Doren of Salem were among those from outside of Portland who entertained for Mrs. Valentine. They gave a dinner for 16 at their beautiful country place honoring Mrs. Valentine. The dining room was gay with many bright-colored balloons and serpentine. Dancing followed the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Terry and of Mrs. J. J. Gordon and Mrs. H. G. Terry. Mrs. Gordon was her hostess at a smart afternoon at bridge and a dinner at the Benson. Mrs. Frank Heitkemper was hostess at a luncheon at Waverley Country club. Mrs. Terry gave Mrs. Valentine a very attractive affair for Mrs. Valentine. Mrs. Valentine and her daughter returned to San Francisco Tuesday.

The many friends of Mrs. Van Houten are sympathizing with her in her recent great sorrow, passing of her husband. Mrs. Van Houten formerly lived in Portland and was widely beloved for her personal charm and sweet, unselfish character. She has been residing in New Mexico for several years.

The wedding of Miss Iza Agnew of Seattle, Wash., and Robert Gillespie of Portland will be solemnized November 27. Miss Agnew is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Agnew of Seattle.

A delightful affair was the farewell reception given by Mrs. G. L. Buland at her home, 505 Maple street, Tuesday afternoon. Ladd's addition, Tuesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Esther Harris, Portland playwright, who leaves Sunday for Los Angeles. Two of Mrs. Harris' plays were read with splendid interpretative effect by Mrs. Walter Bruce. The reader and author were each presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The afternoon closed with refreshments. "The Human Cry" will be read by Mrs. Bruce before a woman's club at Gresham soon after. Those present Tuesday were: Mrs. Buland and daughter, Mrs. G. N. Campbell and Mrs. A. W. Bryan; Mrs. Esther Harris, Mrs. E. E. Collins, Mrs. William Ingold, Mrs. Walter Bruce, reader; Grace E. Hall, Mrs. La Marr, Mrs. O. Hermann, Mrs. George Honey, Mrs. O. Young, Mrs. J. R. Miller, Mrs. Anthony Giesbach, Mrs. E. R. Pitalkau, Mrs. J. E. Rand, Mrs. Fred Honey, Miss Imogen Coleman, Miss Burt, Mrs. Ralph Lee, Mrs. E. R. Stockton, Mrs. R. E. Hondurant, Mrs. D. M. Watson, Mrs. Cora Peuffer, Mrs. E. J. Steele, Mrs. John Gault, Mrs. James Withrow, Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mrs. Grace Hall, Mrs. Julia La Barre, Mrs. G. Hermann, Mrs. E. B. Colwell.

Announcement of the marriage of Marjorie Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Simmons, and Mills E. Lawrence at Chicago, Ill., on November 12, has been received. The bride is a Portland girl and a graduate of Jefferson High school. For the next three months Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence will remain in Chicago, where Mr. Lawrence, a world's war victim, is attending a government school. After February 1 they will be at home at Franklin, Va.

Portland will have the opportunity of hearing Edward Abner Thompson, M. A. of Boston, in the thrilling drama of Disraeli. Mr. Thompson is a member of the Curry School of Expression. His work is that of a master and bears the stamp of culture and refinement. He is an artist of high order. Mr. Thompson will appear in Couch school December 4 at 8 P. M., under the auspices of the Shakespeare club.

Mrs. Victor Anderson of Irvington entertained Friday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock with a delightful tea. A feature of the affair was the autumnal decoration of chrysanthemums, Oregon grape and bright leaves, which Leonid Pink arranged. Those present were: Mesdames Edward Teare Taubman, Paul M. French, George T. Galligan, Samuel D. Fenwick, W. E. Wright, marriage to Herbert W. Gerber, Charles Powell, E. E. Kaseberg, C. F. Fulton, Fred Bruening, Dan Martin, James Lyons, Oscar Loomis, G. A. Mr. and Mrs. Justin W. McGachern announce the engagement of their daughter, One, to James F. Morrell Jr. of this city. The wedding date has not been set, but the ceremony will be an event of the near future.

Miss Helen M. Hall entertained Saturday at a delightful luncheon at the home of Mrs. D. M. Davies. The tables were cleverly arranged with pink carnations and pink candles. A large Japanese parasol from which were suspended dainty bells sheltered a miniature bride and bridegroom. The place cards, from Japan, were Japanese ladies carrying parasols which, when opened, announced the date of Miss Helen Hall's marriage to Herschel L. Driver, December 28. Covers were laid for 23 guests. Among those present were the Misses Allen Townsend, Mary Townsend, Marion Baker, Edith Driver, Doris Ford, Helen Cos, Stella Redford, Clem Cameron, Edna Nyquist, Edith Williams, Mona Green, Marion Richmond, Bernice Zimmerman, Eva Tucker, Eva Zimmerman, Helen Woodburn, Thelma Reed, Dorothy Bennett, Vivian Pallett, Myrtle Bulr, Almada Smith and Mrs. Hermes Wrightson, Mrs. H. P. Heilman.

All is in readiness for the benefit dancing and card party to be given by the women of the Red Cross Canteen Reserve tomorrow evening, November 22, at the Pythian Temple. About 25 workers are assisting Mrs. Minnie Briggs Monroe, the chairman, in making this a success. Working with her, too, are the past officers of the canteen, including Mrs. Harry D. Green, Mrs. R. S. Stearns, Mrs. E. N. Howe and Mrs. Raymond Gill. Mayor and Mrs. Baker are expositing this benefit, as are also Commissioner and Mrs. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Jenkins, Colonel and Mrs. C. E. Dentler and Miss Grace Phelps. The funds derived will be used to give additional aid and comfort to the ex-servicemen in the local hospitals. Those having the affair in charge anticipate a very large attendance.

Miss Frances Hare and Miss Vivian Eiker entertained on Friday night at a smart dancing party for their young friends. Miss Frances is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William B. Hare. Miss Eiker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Eiker. The parents received with the young hostesses. The Laurelhurst clubhouse was the scene.

"Sweeper-Vac Week"

—November 22 to 27

The manufacturers of Sweeper-Vac Electric Cleaners have designated November 22 to 27 as "Sweeper-Vac Week" all over America. The main purpose of this national campaign is to bring to the attention of the public the many superior features of these machines and to induce people to visit the "Sweeper-Vac" store, see the machine in actual operation and judge of its merits. If you have any intention of buying an Electric Cleaner it will be worth your while to investigate the Sweeper-Vac.

WITH MOTOR-DRIVEN BRUSH

Two Electric Cleaners in One

—Yes, They Are Both in the One Sweeper-Vac!

CHOOSE WHICHEVER YOU WISH—One turn of the lever will give it to you—either a Vacuum Cleaner with Plain Suction or one with Motor-driven Brush and suction combined. Instantaneously controlled by this lever is a unique mechanism in which the famous worm-drive principle plays a leading role, giving a silent sure-drive for the correctly speeded brush, while at the same time it allows the high speed motor necessary for the most powerful suction. It also is light in weight, easy to operate, and free from adjustments and has many other useful features.
