

he served there until mustered out at the close of the war. Patriotic songs were sung, after which the guests were bidden to the dining room, beautiful in its tasteful decorations in which the green of myrtle and ivy was here and there in evidence, the national colors predominating.

Those present were: Mrs. E. Richmond, Mrs. C. M. Canaris, Mrs. R. W. Mitchell, Mrs. A. H. Deputy, Mrs. Alice Sheridan, Mrs. Anna B. Lax, Mrs. Walter Struhal, Mrs. Lena Schulze, Mrs. C. A. Anderson, Miss Ellen Anderson, Mrs. William C. Dragan, Mrs. J. B. Pape, Mrs. C. Apperson, Mrs. Newton V. Rowe, Mrs. H. E. Deputy and children.

Frank Canaris, Thomas Lyniff, Donald and Ralph Apperson and Louis Lyniff were the only representatives of the sterner sex present. Mrs. C. Apperson and Mrs. J. B. Pape assisted the hostess in serving.

An interesting party was held in social hall of the Y. W. C. A. Saturday evening, when the Tr-L society of the Franklin high school held an initiation in honor of its new members. Sixty members were present to enjoy the evening of fun and frolic. Miss Dorothy Dodge had charge of the entertainment committee.

A delightful dancing party was enjoyed Saturday evening by the employees of the Blumauer & Frank Drug company, the affair being given in the assembly room of the Hotel Portland.

The Laurelhurst club afternoon card party was held at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. P. Buchanan and Mrs. Eschenshade as hostesses. The high scores in bridge were Miss Lorna Ganone and Mrs. H. Cloyes. In 600 Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Fred Dunham.

The Laurelhurst club dancing party for members only, was held at the clubhouse on Thursday evening, November 18, and in spite of the heavy downpour, a capacity crowd was on hand.

Mrs. Oren Van Schoonhoven entertained with a dainty luncheon at her home in Irvington Saturday. Covers were laid for Mrs. Robert Denton, Mrs. Harold Leonard Bowman, Mrs. John Bennett, Mrs. W. J. Greer, Miss Emma Rises, Mrs. J. C. Stuart, Mrs. E. A. Pierce, Mrs. Mary B. Taylor, the Misses Vera, Alice and Ruth Van Schoonhoven and the hostess.

Mrs. Denton arrived in Portland Friday from Elizabethtown, N. Y., and plans to spend the winter here with her sister, Mrs. Greer.

Last Saturday morning Peninsula Park clubhouse was the scene of an interesting gathering, when the Yamhill Social club met for a dinner and a jolly good time. There were about 125 former residents of Yamhill county present.

E. J. Woods as toastmaster contributed much to the pleasure of the occasion by his witticisms and kindly remarks. J. W. Baker gave a few interesting historical facts in regard to first buildings in Yamhill county. Carl Grissom rendered exquisite violin music, accompanied by Mrs. Grissom. Miss Vera Harry entertained with readings. Mrs. Glen Henderson and Mrs. Milton Edwila Warren sang. Officers selected were: Mrs. Anna Wallace Todd, president; Mrs. E. J. Woods, secretary.

COMING EVENTS.
The Daughters of the Nile will hold their ceremonial Tuesday afternoon at Pythian temple. Wives, mothers, slaters and daughters of Shriners are invited to become members of the organization. Meetings will be held at 10:30 A. M. on Tuesday, November 23, at 825 courthouse, 7 o'clock.

In the evening a ball and card party will be held in the temple for members and husbands. The patrol will give an exhibition drill under the direction of Mrs. O'Brien. Mrs. Hugh J. Boyd, assisted by the officers, will have charge of the evening's entertainment.

Scout Young auxiliary, No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans, will give a "500" card party Tuesday afternoon, November 23, at 825 courthouse, 7 o'clock.

The Kenton club will give a dancing party next Wednesday night at the clubhouse. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hunt will be hosts for the evening.

Scout Young auxiliary, No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans, will hold their first bazaar on Tuesday, November 23, in the afternoon and evening at 825 courthouse. All kinds of fancy work and aprons suitable for Christmas gifts, also home-made mincemeat, cakes, jellies, candies and other goodies for your Thanksgiving dinner. Light refreshments will be served at the noon hour. The following committee is working to make their first bazaar a success: Mesdames Harriet Sawyer, Jennie Eddy, Sara Bodley, Ada Harnes, Madi Turley, Nell Raskah, Minnie Glessner, Ida Klingsmith. Proceeds will go toward carrying on the patriotic work of the organization.

The crystal room of the Benson hotel will be the scene of a dinner given by the girls of the Community Service on Saturday night, November 27, at 8:15 o'clock. All young men and girls interested in community service, and especially those who are unable to go to their homes on Thanksgiving, are cordially invited. Register before 6 o'clock Friday night at 436 North-western Bank building, Main 664 or Main 7424. Mayor Baker and Mrs. Baker will be the guests of honor and an interesting programme is being arranged.

Liberty assembly of United Artisans will give a masquerade ball Wednesday evening, November 24, in the Woodmen of the World hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. Music will be furnished by the Artisan orchestra.

Lipman, Wolfe & Co. will give a dance for all its employees Saturday night at the Multnomah hotel. The affair will be a costume party and prizes and special features will be arranged.

The Girl Reserves of the city are looking forward to their big get-together party on Friday, November 26, at 8 o'clock in the Washington high school auditorium. All friends of the girls and the public are invited to enjoy the programme of clever stunts put on by the corps. Walter Jenkins will conduct a short community song as an opening to the evening's programme.

The Daughters of Isabella will entertain Tuesday with a dance in Knights of Columbus ballroom.

Peter A. Porter Circle, No. 35, Ladies of the G. A. R., will hold their regular meeting Wednesday, November 24, in Thell's hall on Killingsworth avenue, near Mississippi avenue. Department president and inspector will be present. A good attendance is requested. Members will take well filled baskets.

The Portland chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity has announced a dance to be given Friday evening in the assembly room of the Hotel Portland. It is expected that there will be about 75 present.

The Kappa Psi fraternity will give a banquet Saturday evening in the grill of the Hotel Portland. It is expected that there will be about 75 present.

The Christian Endeavor society of Piedmont Community Presbyterian church will present an interesting programme at the regular Sunday evening meeting November 28. The speaker for the hour will be Mrs. R. H. Mort, who will tell stories of the work which will be splendidly illustrated by the use of a stereopticon. There will also be special musical numbers. All young people are especially invited. The meeting opens at 6:30 o'clock.

Laurelhurst club Woman's Progressive unit will give one of their card parties open to members and non-members at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon, November 23. These affairs have always taxed the capacity of the clubhouse but with the newly remodeled and enlarged ballroom the affair is expected to draw a large crowd. The entire unit will act as hostesses.

The Laurelhurst club will give their annual Thanksgiving ball on Wednesday evening, November 24, at the clubhouse. These affairs have heretofore been held on the west side at the Multnomah hotel, but with the enlarged dancing space the directors of the club have decided to stage all club affairs in the clubhouse hereafter.

The Al Kader Shrine band will give a dancery Friday evening, December 3, at Christensen's hall. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lea, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Grant, Mayor George L. Baker and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holman, Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson Boone, Dr. F. H. Dunn and Mrs. Dammasch, Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Green.

The Laurelhurst club Woman's Progressive Unit and Study club will stage their annual vaudeville entertainment at the clubhouse on Friday evening, December 3. The ladies have promised that this year's performance will eclipse their efforts of last year, which scored such a tremendous hit.

Community service programme for the week includes: Monday, com-street, in honor of George Wilson, the vice-president of the June 21 graduating class of Franklin high school. Miss Caroline McEwen played several selections on the piano and Miss Helen Michaelson sang beautiful solos accompanied by Miss McEwen. The guests included Miss Martha Kallender, Miss Caroline McEwen, Miss Helen Michaelson, Kenneth Patterson, Alden Mills, George Wilson and LeRoy Schaefer.

ASHLAND, Or., Nov. 12.—A social affair that attracted a large group of women Friday afternoon was the reception given at the practice house in honor of Miss Bertha Davis, state supervisor of vocational education of Oregon.

Miss Evangeline Foley, head of the home economics department of the Smith-Hughes vocational high school, was assisted by Mrs. G. Galley of the board of education. Mrs. Dodge, president of the Parent-Teachers' club, and Mrs. George Briscoe. A bevy of high school girls who are members of the practice house group served tea and wafers in the dining room. More than 100 women called during the afternoon. Miss Davis gave two interesting talks on "The Training of Home Makers."

The Ashland school is one of the four vocational schools in the state operated under Smith-Hughes supervision. Oregon vocational home economics departments are unique in that they require a practice house in addition to the regular school equipment.

Wednesday evening the welfare league of Simon's department store, composed of all employees of the firm, entertained their friends at an informal dancing party at the East Side Business Men's club.

Dancing and cards were indulged in until the wee small hours, after which delicious refreshments were served. About 125 persons enjoyed the evening's entertainment, which is one of a series of such parties that are being planned.

J. B. Hudson gave a beautifully appointed dinner Tuesday evening at the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for 14 at a table decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns.

The B'nai Brith Dramatic club at its meeting at the B'nai Brith building, Wednesday night, decided to abandon the fantasy previously chosen, "The Enemies of Israel," as it was unanimously decided that the characters of the play required a group of younger boys and girls than members of the club.

A meeting will be held at the B'nai Brith building Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock to choose another play. It was also agreed that the first few plays are to be presented before the club members only, in order to attain the necessary proficiency and confidence to give a public performance.

All those interested in dramatics are requested to attend the next meeting, as a number of changes will be made in the organization and plans of the club.

The Reed college Menorah are being congratulated on the lovely dancing party held at the B'nai Brith building Saturday evening for the benefit of suffering Jewish students of eastern Europe. Every available space was banked with bright green foliage and with the red streamers and Japanese lanterns above and immense red ribbon bows attached to golden baskets of Thanksgiving goodies on each wall, the ballroom presented a beautifully festive appearance.

The soft light given by the red covered chandeliers added to the beauty of the pretty gowns worn by the girls and the ballroom presented a charming picture. The patronesses were: Mrs. S. Cohen, Mrs. Milton Kahn, Mrs. I. Koshland, Mrs. J. Lauterstein, Mrs. S. W. Otterbein, Mrs. M. Reinhold, Mrs. Lawrence Sell, Mrs. Z. Sweet, Mrs. M. Taylor, Mrs. Sidney Teiser and Mrs. Alex Weinstein. Ices were served.

Mrs. P. F. Clodius, president of Lincoln-Garfield corps, was hostess Tuesday, entertaining for officers of the corps. Luncheon was served and "tag" played. Honors went to Mrs. Loretta Hitchcock and Mrs. Helen Otto; consolation prize went to Mrs. E. Fording.

LONG BEACH, Wash., Nov. 20.—(Special).—Mrs. Mollie Lyniff of Driftwood inn entertained about 15 guests at a delightful dinner Armistice day. A short programme appropriate to the

Her Comfort-

Your Style

-in the wonderful Arch Preserver Shoe

THE Indian maiden walked flat on her feet, in her soft, easy moccasins. She never had foot annoyance. She had happy feet—because they were supported underneath their whole length—Nature's plan! Today you can enjoy the foot comfort of the Indian maiden, and yet wear shoes that conform to the latest ideas of style. The ARCH PRESERVER SHOE gives the same result when wearing heels as when the foot is walking flat on the ground. It is for well feet—it affords relief for practically all ordinary foot troubles.

THE ARCH PRESERVER SHOE

"KEEPS THE FOOT WELL"

Unless this trade-mark appears it is not a genuine ARCH PRESERVER SHOE. The exclusive arch construction offers firm support for the foot during the entire life of the shoe and gives the shoe longer life. There is a "walking base" underneath the entire foot.

Women's and Misses' ARCH PRESERVER SHOES for all occasions are made only by
