The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Travelers' Protective association will be a luncheon at the Oregon grille, Thursday, December 2, at 12 o'clock. All members and friends are urged to be present, as an important subject will be discussed. Mrs. Henry W. Farrington is in charge of arrangements with Mrs. Olive Malhouse, Mrs. Charles E. Bailey and Mrs. Fred Glander assisting. Reservations may be made by calling Taber 7553 or Woodlawn 1858.

Mrs. M. S. Creighton entertained recently at a dinner and candy pull for Almon Spomer and Creighton Jones, junior cadets at Hill academy. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamilton were recent hosts for a few junior cadets.

The girls of the Tyee club entertained last week with a dancing party at the home of Dorothy Dodge. The house was decorated in autumn flowers and refreshments were served. The invitational list included Misses Genevieve Lesiere, Kathryn Pickard, Ruth Archeson, Dorothy Dodge, Ruth Goodman, Helen Smith, Elizabeth Rauch, Frances Jones, Martha Billeter, Jean Harper, Geraldine Root and Edna May Root. Cadets Dwyler Fryer, Bob Thompson, Bruce Galloway, Messrs. Gordon Ford, Burr Canfield, Palmer Parshel, George Galtner, Harold Ross, Willard Jordon, Kenneth Rauch, Thomas Mackenzie, Bill Shank and Vernon Goetz.

The Misses Geraldine and Edna May Root were hostesses last week at a dinner party for a group of cadets from Hill Military academy. The guests were Darwin Van Gilder, Dallas Cox, Lewis Persenow, James Fulton and Lee Graves.

A box party of the last week was that given by Cadet Bruce Galloway to a group of his friends, including Edna Kirkwood, Edna May Root and Geraldine Root. Cadets Bob Thompson and Dwyler Fryer. The group were supper guests later at the home of Edna Kirkwood.

The women of the American Red Cross canteen reserve were charming hosts at their dancing and card party the evening of November 22. The ballroom and card parlors of the Pythian temple were taxed to capacity, the hundreds of guests thoroughly enjoying the evening. The party was entirely informal and the spirit of goodfellowship and gaiety was most pronounced. The only note of formality was the grand march which took place at 10 o'clock. This was led by the Hon. George L. Baker, mayor, and Miss Minnie B. Monroe, a veteran canteen worker and chairman of the committee, and Colonel C. E. Dentler, U. S. A., and Mrs. Dentler. Hundreds of Portland's citizens fell in line to the martial music. One hundred women who make up the canteen club were the committee.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Arthur MacLure of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Leonard entertained with a dinner dance Wednesday night at the Benson hotel. Covers were laid for 88. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. E. H. Keller, Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mrs. Andre Wolff and Mrs. Percy Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Lawrence were hosts for a line party at the Orpheum Monday night honoring their nephew, Dr. John Somerville of Atlanta, Ga. Their guests included Miss Mary Clancy, Miss Louise Smith, Dr. Somerville and James Wheeler. After the performance they enjoyed the supper-dance at the Multnomah. Of interest to many Portland friends is the announcement of the marriage of Alfred L. Stone, young business man of this city, to Juanita C. O'Day, recently of Los Angeles. The ceremony was held at the residence of Mrs. B. L. Stone, 626 Everett street, Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. November 24. The bride, accompanied by the immediate relatives of the family, Madeline E. Stone, sister of the bridegroom, and her bridesmaid and J. A. McHolland was best man. After a short wedding trip the young couple occupy apartments at Alexandria court.

Mrs. Laurence Endicott was hostess to two prettily appointed luncheons at the University club before leaving for California.

Mrs. Frank M. Taylor has returned from Akron, O., where she was the guest of Mrs. E. A. Seiberling. Mrs. Taylor went as representative from Oregon to the board meeting of the National Federation of Music Clubs. She was entertained at banquets and a ball and had a most delightful visit.

The women of the Harding and Coolidge club have accepted an invitation to take part in the Red Cross Christmas card drive, another day, December 23, having been added to the original campaign beginning December 12. The sale is under the auspices of the national tuberculosis association.

tion, and the drive will be limited only by the boundaries of the United States. The women in every county in Oregon are preparing to put the state over the top. Various women organizations of Portland will have certain days, and much activity already exists in preparation of the campaign against the white plague in this country.

Speaking for the Harding and Coolidge club, Mrs. M. H. Lamond, vice-president and chairman of the day, said the large membership organized for political work would be able also to demonstrate its efficiency in work in a great campaign for suffering humanity. Many have volunteered for the work and it is expected that all women members who can give time to the work will communicate in person or by telephone at club headquarters, 722 Northwestern bank building, Main 2248, during the preparatory work now going on.

Those who have already been assigned booths and will have members assisting them are: Mrs. William M. Calk and Miss Julia Chemin, Imperial hotel; Mrs. D. W. Hoss and Mrs. E. W. Langdon, Meier & Frank; Miss Minnie I. Smith, Olds, Wortman & King; Mrs. P. C. Norris and Mrs. M. H. McClune, Multnomah hotel; Mrs. Leander Martin and Mrs. J. F. Kelly, Loman, Wolfe & Co.; Mrs. Mary Steepley, Broadway postoffice; Mrs. Ethel Spaulding, Morrison-street postoffice; Mrs. A. E. Wheeler and Mrs. S. E. Huston, Portland hotel; Mrs. Paul M. French, Owl drug store; Miss May Silcocka, Oregon hotel; Mrs. H. T. Clark, Benson hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Locke entertained members of the younger set at a dinner party at the Hotel Portland Saturday evening, the affair being in honor of the birthday anniversary of their son, Edward L. Locke. Covers were placed for 18. Following dinner an informal dance was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Locke. Those making up the party were: Misses Mildred Johnson, Delight Ingold, Josephine Ulrich, Joy Johnson, Nan La Roche, Katherine Biggs, Alice Peaper, Beatrice Locke, Messrs. Walter Pearson, Philip Thompson, Russell Gowans, Thomas Nordby, Warren Ulrich, Rodney Keating, Milton R. Kiepper, Edward G. Locks and Dr. and Mrs. Locke.

Two successful college dances were given last week at Multnomah hotel. The first was on Wednesday evening and was for the Oregon Agricultural college alumni. H. B. Martin, a general manager, deserves special credit for the success. On the committee were Margaret Volbrecht, Henry Anderson, Miss Golda Owens and Miss Laura Smith. Patrons and patronesses were: Dean Mary E. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Anderson, M. M. Hall, Mrs. L. F. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Blain B. Coles, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cook and Mrs. L. H. Blake.

The other affair was the college from which was a credit to the committee.

Mrs. Sherman T. Edwards was hostess for Mrs. Mary Fawcett, dean of the college.

There will be many special features put on by the club at this time in addition to the play, "I Love You," which will be given by the Baker players.

Miss Alice Juston will appear in solo.

Miss Marie Gamble will present some of her pupils in esthetic dancing.

Thanksgiving night was exceedingly gay at the Hotel Portland, both the main dining room and the grill being filled with diners who enjoyed the dinner and dance.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

An event that was deserving of special notice was the Elks club benefit performance of "The Mandarin" at the Auditorium on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The principals were excellent and the chorus was made up of well-trained voices. Attractively costumed, the singers formed a fine feature of the show. Among those who were in the play
