PASTOR, QUILTS PULPIT

WAR HAS CHANGED VIEWS OF FASHIONABLE PREACHER.

Christians Found as Good Outside of Church as Members of Congregation.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—(Special).—Rev. Frank E. R. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church, one of the most fashionable in the city, yesterday resigned and withdrew from the ministry. The war and service among soldiers destroyed his former ideal of Christianity, he said, so after 20 years he quits.

"I have come to believe," he explained, "that the church imposes restrictions that other wholesome religious men do not have to contend with. There are standards of Christianity in the church that I believe purely fictitious. I cannot bring myself to think that because a man plays cards, dances and goes to the theater he is pagan and that if he does not do any of those things he is a Christian. I also do not accept unreservedly the orthodox belief of the deity of Jesus. I believe the deity of Jesus is based on character more than on mystic birth. I think there are contradictory accounts of the birth of Jesus in Matthew. I could not believe in the supreme importance of the Baptists. I no longer can go along with the evangelists who say that those who live according to their tenets will go to heaven and those who do not will go to hell."

"For some time past I have been conscious of a repugnance toward evangelistic methods and the superficial standards of the church. I have found just as good Christians outside the church as inside."

CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED

Methodists Are Busy Remodeling Building Recently Purchased.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 18.—(Special).—The work of remodeling the building purchased by the Methodist church, formerly owned by C. H. Caulfield, at Eighth and Center streets, is progressing rapidly. It is expected to have the dedication of the church about February 1.

The first floor will be devoted to a Sunday school room, workroom of the Ladies Aid society, kitchen and pantry. The second floor will be devoted to a church auditorium. The windows will be left as they are and, with the installation of clusters of electric lights, there will be an excellent lighting system. The grounds surrounding the building are to be beautified.

The members of the calendar committee of the Ladies Aid society have worked untiringly during the last year to help defray the expense of remodeling the building and for paying on the church property. Since

HOME TRAINING IS BAD

Half Inmates of State School Get Poor Start, Is Statement.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special).—Half the boys at the state training school at Chehalis were from "bad" homes, according to Tom Horn, superintendent of the school, who spoke before the Rotary club yesterday. There are 300 boys in the school. The efforts of the officers have been directed toward training the boys along educational lines rather than merely to "herd" the inmates, as was formerly the policy, said Mr. Horn.

"Keep the boys busy and half the battle is won," he declared. The boys raised $14,000 worth of produce last year, and in addition excavated a large canal for drainage purposes.

Rebeksas Hold Rollcall.

SEASIDE, Or., Dec. 18.—(Special).—Last Monday evening the members of Ramona Rebeka lodge held their annual rollcall, about 60 members being present. Following the business session old-fashioned games were played and as the members gathered around the banquet table letters were read from a number of the members who are in other localities. It is intended to make this rollcall a feature of every year.

RECALL OF JUDGE SOUGHT

ROAD CONDITIONS IN POLK COUNTY START MOVEMENT.

Attempt to Oust Asa B. Robinson as Head of Court Is Made at Meeting at Dallas.

DALLAS, Or., Dec. 18.—(Special).—Proceedings toward the recall of Asa B. Robinson, county judge of Polk county, were instituted this afternoon at a meeting in the circuit court room when J. F. Ulrich, a farmer of the Airline precinct, was selected to run on the ticket at the recall election. The meeting was not attended by very large delegations from the various precincts, as a large number of the county residents are not in favor of the recall.

The feeling is bitter against Judge Robinson in some parts of the county, owing to the condition of the roads which have been made barely passable by the hauling of lumber and other heavy loads by trucks. Judge Robinson has closed several roads to truck hauling, and at present is engaged in repairing roads throughout the county. The inability of the county court to repair the roads sooner was on account of the lack of road building machinery and the money with which to purchase the equipment.

That the recall, when it comes to election, will be defeated is the opinion of a large majority of the voters as they hold that the county court and Judge Robinson are not to blame for the condition of the highways. It is estimated that Judge Robinson's support in the cities of the county will far outnumber the vote in the rural districts at the election, should the proceedings go that far.

Woodmen Plan Lodge Hall.

HALFWAY, Or., Dec. 18.—(Special).—The local camp of the Modern Woodmen of America is planning to build a lodge hall and will probably decide the matter next week at its regular meeting. The plan is to combine a community lodge hall and have something that can be used for any purpose. The Woodmen will do much of their own work if the building is constructed, and will start getting out logs for the lumber within a short time.

RHEUMATISM—RELIEF

From Its Dreadful Pains and Aches, Stiffness, Soreness—

is properly to be sought in a good blood medicine, because authorities say rheumatism is a blood disease; acid has entered the blood, settling in the muscles and joints. That's what makes the sharp, sudden, shot-like pains, causing you to jump and wringe in agony.

Hood's Sarsaparilla comprises remedies that every physician prescribes for rheumatism, combined with other blood-purifying, tonic and strength-building ingredients in a formula vastly superior in make-up and in curative power. It does give positive relief. Thousands say so. So will you. For a fine laxative take Hood's Pills.
