The Radiant Sixth Floor Full Laden With Gift-Suggestions

THE FLOOR OF 10,000 GIFTS—a floor that is an exposition in itself, where pottery, china, cut glass, art novelties, lamps, etc., gathered practically from the four corners of the earth, are assembled, presenting a gorgeous spectacle not to be seen elsewhere in Portland—and best of all, at this time of the year it supplies a profusion of gift suggestions—gifts that are useful as well as ornamental, gifts that are reasonably priced.

SPECIAL preparations have been made for Gift Monday. Extra salespeople will be on hand to take care of your wants. Many of the articles have been specially priced—the Floor of 10,000 Gifts is ready to take care of your needs. Place full dependence on it to provide the answer to that ever-recurrent question, "What shall I give?"

Serving Trays

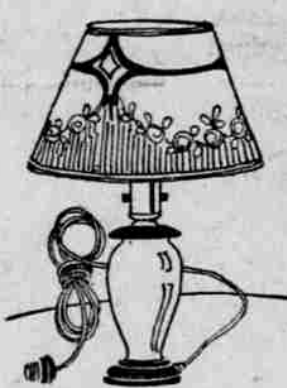

SOLID MAHOGANY and mahogany-finish Serving Trays in square, oblong and round shapes, from $1.95 to $15.00.

Sechrist Pressure Cookers $25.25 and $29.00

The Sechrist Pressure Cooker saves two hours' cooking time a day in the average home, cooking in thirty-five or forty minutes roasts or fowls ordinarily requiring hours. Cooks food more thoroughly because pressure forces 259 degrees of heat through every cell and fiber. Because steam tight, it retains all juices and flavors. Pays for itself in six months by food and fuel saving. Made of heavy rolled plate aluminum, smooth, bright, easy to clean. Equipped complete with inset pans. Priced $25.25 and $29.00.
