MINERS ASK FOR RELIEF

STATISTICS TO BE PRESENTED TO FEDERAL COMMISSION.

Reduction in Wages Also Proposed at Baker Session to Meet Situation Curtailing Output.

BAKER, Or., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Mining men representing practically all of the important mines in eastern Oregon met in Baker Wednesday night to consider means of meeting the present depressing conditions in the mining industry. Increased cost of production coupled with a permanent low selling price fixed at $28.47 an ounce has proved to be a combination that cannot be coped with, and mining has practically come to a standstill. The miners appointed a committee to look up statistics on the decrease in ore shipments during the last two years to present to the interstate commerce commission with a view of changing the freight rates. The wage scale was also discussed, and it was agreed that a cut would be made in the near future. Provision will be made for a sliding scale, in which wages decrease to meet the decrease in the cost of living. The mine operators favor legislative aid in the form of the McFadden bill, but if this cannot be pushed through at once they feel that they must take matters of readjustment into their own hands and cut wages to meet the present crisis.

Indian Claims to Be Presented. YAKIMA, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Louis Mann, a leader of the Yakima Indian tribe, will leave shortly for Washington to lay before congress the contentions of his tribe regarding water rights and other matters. He will stop in Marion, Or., to interview President-elect Harding, he said, and expects to carry letters of introduction from leading republicans of this state.

Improvement Bill Adopted. KELSO, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—The assessment roll of local improvement district No. 32 was adopted by the city council last night, when no protest was made at the hearing. This assessment roll aggregates about $77,000, covering the cost of grading streets and construction of concrete curbs and sidewalks throughout the south end. Property owners will have a period in which to make cash payment of the assessment, after which bonds, running for a period of 10 years, will be issued covering the unpaid balance.

SENIORS GET DIPLOMAS

Graduation Exercises Are Held at Oregon Normal School. OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—The following persons were graduated from the Oregon normal school yesterday: Gertrude Butt, Newberg; Teresa Devoreaux, Bandon; Helen Fletcher, Buell; Lida B. Hayes, Lawson; Florence Kimmel, La Grande; Alice Kershaw, Sherwood; Elsie La Roche, Portland; Francine Miller, Portland; Floy Norton, Salem; Addie Quesinberry, Portland; Myra Will, Aurora; Retta Wilson, Dallas, and Clara T. There were graduating exercises for the students in the chapel. President Ackerman delivered a short address and Professor Butler presented the diplomas.

Mustard Costs $100,000 a Year. WALLA WALLA, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Jim Hill mustard is costing farmers of Columbia county $100,000 a year and the farmers are planning a determined fight against it, according to announcement of Dayton men here yesterday.

HELP SENT TO ALASKANS

NATIVES DECLARED STARVING IN FAR NORTH.

Recent Arrivals in Seattle Say Reports of Conditions Are Believed Exaggeration.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Reports that natives on the Kuskokwim river in Alaska are starving are being investigated by government agents, according to advices received by the Seattle office of the Alaska division of the United States bureau of education from W. T. Lopp, chief of the bureau, who is at Washington, D. C. Mr. Lopp stated in his message that $100 had been made available for the purchase of supplies at once at Iditarod for shipment across the divide to the Kuskokwim. Should further aid be necessary, agents of the Alaska division have authority to make purchases. Alaskans who have recently arrived from the interior of Alaska, have informed the Alaska division that they do not believe conditions are as serious as was indicated in a telegram received early this month from G. W. Hoffman, United States commissioner at Iditarod. The message stated that one native had died of starvation and that others were ill and in need of food.

Schools Adjourn for Holidays. KELSO, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—The local schools adjourned for the Christmas holidays yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. All the buildings had programmes and Christmas trees. School will be closed for two weeks, resuming Monday morning, January 3.

Latin Teaching Is Subject. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Latin, which since the passing of German, has come back as one of the most popular language courses in Oregon high schools, will receive comprehensive treatment from the teaching point of view in a bulletin soon to be published by F. S. Dunn, head of the department of Latin in the University of Oregon. All the newer aspects of teaching this subject, which has gone through many vicissitudes in the curriculum of secondary schools, but which seems eventually to come up smiling will be treated in the pamphlet.

Royal Neighbors Elect. HOOD RIVER, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—The local camp of Royal Neighbors of America has elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. Elizabeth Rodger, orator; Mrs. Lottie Daniels, vice-orator; Mrs. Hattie Peck, chancellor; Mrs. Emma Jones, recorder; Mrs. Martha Hartwell, re-

"THE DOUBLE STANDARD" IN STANDARD

Taken from the story "The White Dove"

BY WILLIAM J. LOCKE

"The Double Standard" brings a refreshingly broad and whole-hearted appeal of real human elements, sufficient in that respect alone to make it a picture of surpassing merit, added to which is an extraordinary and daring theme of married life, unusual plot construction, a thrilling and surprising climax, and cleverness and sympathy of action throughout of noteworthy quality.

If You Want a 1 1/8 Karat Perfect DIAMOND of FINE COLOR, for $550 "We Have It"

AND SOME LITTLE ONES, TOO. THEY SURE SPARKLE. We've Never Found a Match for Our $50, $75 and $100 Diamond Rings We Think the Following Statement Is Worth a One-page Advertisement: OH! Yes, he was a customer. He'd been around some, too. Had a sad experience at a SALE ONCE. (YOU know). Well, anyway, he said: NO NEED ATTENDING JEWELRY SALES AS LONG AS ROY & MOLIN IS IN BUSINESS. Newspaper space is too high to tell all he said, but if you will pardon us we will indulge in a little boastfulness, the first in some 35 YEARS, since the establishment of this shop by A. Vuilleumier. FIRST—WE HAVE (by close estimate) the twelfth largest exclusive jewelry and optical stock in Portland of 71 jewelers listed in telephone book. THIRD—WE ARE PROUD of having a first-class rating in the leading mercantile agencies. FOURTH—WE ARE commonly called the busiest jewelry store in town. We do very little advertising except through our much appreciated customers. OUR PLACE IS NOT LARGE but filled with "Fine Goods," "sold right"—that's our slogan. Our store is right near the corner of Second and Alder. A large street clock marks our store. If nothing more, take a look at the place anyway. If you decide to try us out once, we will try and make you feel like Mr. Roy while in New York City doing our buying and visiting factories. While in a strange city one usually asks about a good place to eat. The place recommended to him was very little for class, but oh, the food and service! And reasonable, too. THAT'S US. We are giving a discount on many goods which we are moving quietly and rapidly. REMEMBER, THERE ARE TWO POINTS TO CONSIDER: WHAT YOU PAY AND WHAT YOU GET
